

Where Does Waith Live?

Mushiba: Waith has been asked many questions during the past 30+ years. Sometimes a question seems, to the audience, to be a silly or frivolous one. Yet, Waith ~ always respectful and so often irreverent ~ answers in a way that gives a spiritual spin, as he loves to say! For your reading pleasure, here is one such interaction between Waith and a member of the class that occurred during the first few months of his speaking through me:

Question: “I have a question about your lifestyle.”

Waith: “You may ask whatever you like. I may not answer ~ yet, you may certainly ask.”

Question: “I have read books that were written by spirit through channels and they speak of houses that they reside in. They speak of buildings in the spirit realm. Hoping that spirit does not live in the void, what I would like to know, Waith, is, do you have a meeting place? Do you have a house? Do you have a building, or do you kind of meet in an open park, perhaps?”

Waith: “Your question is appropriate, and interesting that it is a concern. We had not realized that there was this curiosity and find it curious that you wonder where we live, so to speak.”

“Information that is given through this process of channeling comes in from different levels, to reach different levels on the earth plane. Those on the earth plane are at different levels of understanding and can be categorized in groupings, and therefore, the information needs to be tailored toward their level of awareness. Thus, to describe space to some on the earth plane necessitates the use of symbolism in order to reach their levels of understanding.

“We communicate through as a pure form of energy ~ we do not need to be gathered together in order to have a meeting, if you will. I am able to communicate with many simultaneously.”

Question: “I perceive that there are hundreds within a small space, because they are not taking up any space. Yet in books, they speak of houses, and I question those who are with me, ‘Why don’t you have a house?’”

Waith: “Would you want them to have furniture also? Plants perhaps? Windows?”

Question: “I read of houses and buildings ~ yet, do they live in the void that I perceive?”

Waith: “It is not a void ~ there is no void.”

Question: “If it has some kind of substance, what is the substance? The spirits said limited only by their imagining.”

Waith: “It is too complex, at this point, to address. Part of the mission that we have taken on is to increase your levels of awareness so that, at some future time, we may give you a description of your question and address it.”

During these many years Waith has, indeed, given descriptions of the abstract and concrete that exists in all dimensions (or levels).
