Crystals And Pyramids ~ Beginning Discussion

(March 15, 1988)

We have a discussion to begin regarding crystals and pyramids. We have had Jenjura researching the manner in which we can begin to present this material to you, and we feel that we would like to begin our discussion concerning the pyramids, to give you some insights into their purpose. This is a very wide body of knowledge, this area of what you call the pyramids. There is now the beginnings of understanding by those who need to understand that the pyramids are not what they appear to be. They have camouflaged a far greater purpose. This is being understood now by a significantly large number of entities on the earth plane.

The pyramid concept is one of unity and has its origins millions of years ago. It has not just been on the earth plane these few thousands of years that history records it. Remember that we have said, and I have spoken in these sessions, that the earth plane has undergone many cleansings and that the age of the Planet Earth is much greater than your scientists realize. That which we want to be known is known, and that much has been cleansed and wiped clean. Much that has come before is not known, or it need not be known. It is not necessary. And the use of pyramids is common to the earth plane so that it is appearing on other planets that are part of the earth plane environment, the levels of which I have spoken earlier.

The pyramids serve as an energizer and are a relater of energies currently manifesting on the earth plane to The Universal Consciousness. The energy forms at dimensions higher than, and in different levels than, the earth plane. The pyramids, as you know them now, have been on this earth plane, the ones that you see and have recognized, for approximately six thousand to seven thousand of your earth plane years. They are a reflection of this encapsulation of time and energy forms. They will come and go with cleansings, and as cleansings occur, new pyramids will be constructed to then reflect the current vibration on the earth plane, to serve as a conduit of that vibration.

During the time of Atlantis, as you know, there were three periods of time and three destructions of Atlantis. There were, therefore, three different pyramid eras, eras of time that reflected the vibrations from one cleansing to another. The current pyramids contain much valuable information about the spiritual and the vibrational aspects and have been used as transformers of information from one cleansing period to another so that certain types of information are not lost. And it will occur before this cleansing that is about to happen that your scientists will unlock the secrets that are currently in these pyramids that contain information from other pyramid eras. There will be those who are trusted with the task of keeping safe the information contained now in these pyramids that must go into the new ones that will be constructed after The Shift.

This information will be easily translated for there are several now embodied on the earth plane who were The Builders of the pyramids, these current pyramids, at the time, and they have embodied now. There are several who are aware of this, and several who are not and will become aware, and several who are just now becoming aware of their role. And they will all take up their rightful task that was determined by them so many thousands of years ago. They were given this task by those who had gone before them. It was passed on as part of a tradition, if you will. Those who passed on the responsibilities have finished their manifestations on the earth plane and have gone into other dimensions and are no longer affiliated with the earth plane.

So, too, the ones now embodied will select several in the same way in which they were selected to carry on the tradition. And when the time occurs again, be it six or seven or eight or ten thousand years, whenever the next cleansing must occur, they will embody once again and the same will occur. There is a continuity here, a passing on of certain wisdoms that is all part of the pattern that The Creative Force determined in the beginning for this experience that is called the earth plane, to help in the transmission of very significant information, information that only those vibrationally attuned will be able to understand and accept and be able to use in the building after The Shift.

Pyramids And Their Relationship To Crystals

When we spoke of a connection between the pyramids and the crystals, there is a chamber in what is referred to as the great pyramid that is as yet undiscovered, that will be discovered once the caretakers from so long ago take their responsibilities in hand. This will be discovered. And in this chamber lies a crystal of such magnitude and power that it will overwhelm most. It is the origin. It is the source, and its uncovering will create a change in energies that are currently found in the crystals that are on the earth plane now. This is a crystal that has come from pyramid era to pyramid era. It is the responsibility of the caretakers to secure it. For it is the lifeblood of the earth plane. It is the source from which all crystals receive their energies and power. It is as old as the earth plane, which is older than you realize, and will be of benefit during the time of The Shift.

The pyramids, and the Great Pyramid in particular, will not be destroyed at the time of The Shift, for they are here to serve as those conductors of energy to the safe areas. All those who are spiritually attuned will meld in mind during The Shift, and the energies will be directed and controlled from the pyramids so that The Universal Consciousness will be in charge during this brief shifting, and it will discern then who is to stay and who is not to stay, for those who are not spiritually attuned will not be able to attune to the powers that will come from the pyramids. They will not be connected with The Universal Consciousness, and they will therefore have to leave. This is how it will be done. It will be an Energy Force.

Once this is accomplished and the Planet Earth has settled down, once again, the pyramids will crumble and dissolve. That which is needed from them will have been taken from them by the caretakers, and there will be no need for them. Their purpose will have been accomplished. There will be no trace of them. They will simply dissolve into the earth. The energies that were in them will infiltrate into the Planet Earth and help to contribute to the Higher Vibration, and at that point preparation for the new construction will begin.

Just as each of the pyramids has been constructed in the past so too will these be constructed. The construction will be directed by the caretakers who have the knowledge of how it is to be done, and it will be done in a very rapid amount of time, for the powers that the caretakers have that can be transmitted to those who must follow the direction for construction is tremendous. It is not necessary for you to know the details of construction. It would not be understood by most. Know only that they will be constructed rapidly, for they will house the new energy forms and the new vibrations of an advanced vibrational level.

The Pyramids Were Not Constructed By Slaves, As History Reports (March 15, 1988)

Will they be constructed by slaves, like in Egypt?

They were not constructed by slaves, my dear.

Is our history wrong?

Yes. It is a result of the very limited knowledge that exists.

How many will be built?

The new ones to be constructed will be in different locations than now currently exist. They will be at pivotal points as they are now. That number is yet to be determined, for it will be a reflection on the number of what are called SAFE AREAS, these pivotal points in the Planet Earth, that will remain safe during The Shift.

What was the purpose of propagating the idea that the Egyptian pyramids were constructed by slaves?

It did not come from us, and we did not want this to be, but it was a popular myth that came down through your ages of history that was a result of misinterpretation of pictures. These pictures contained information that is meant to be used during the time of the upcoming shift. It was misinterpreted and thought to be information from the past. It is indeed information for the future. The pyramids are the future.

Why Were The Pyramids Used As Tombs? (March 15, 1988)

The particular entities who were housed in these pyramids were of a particular vibration necessary to the infusion of certain energies and vibrations into the physical structure. The pyramids for this particular pyramid era were representative of the time frame in which they were constructed to house treasure, and it was only by presenting an aura of royalty that the pyramids would not be invaded and the real secret knowledge stolen or destroyed, or worse. So, it was determined that based upon the perceptions of energies on the earth plane at that time, and to come, between that cleansing and another, that those perceptions would respect a certain type of manifestation that they thought the pyramid represented. The pyramids in the past in other pyramid eras have not housed treasures. They have housed other types of information, depending upon the era in which they lived. This too will prevail in the new era of pyramids. It would be beyond most of your understandings now to discuss that for it will be determined once The Shift has occurred.

What About The Curses That We Hear?

(March 15, 1988)

Myths, my dear. Illusions. Realize that so much that you hear is illusion and myth propagated for certain purposes and handed down over time and misinterpreted. Translations from one generation to the next, from one language to the next give misrepresentations.

Are The Pyramids That You Refer To In Any Other Location Other Than Egypt?

(March 15, 1988)

Oh, yes. Throughout Planet Earth. There are also pyramids on other planets that are part of the earth plane. They will have no connection with this particular cleansing, for each of the planets that are part of the earth plane experience have their own kinds of cleansings, and the pyramids on these planets are also related to those cleansings in their own particular way.

A Discussion Of Lay Lines And Energy Centers

I have been doing some reading recently about Lay Lines, and I wondered if you could expand on this. I am referring to the lines that are drawn between sites that are labeled now mystical, or of some importance, most of them in Europe, as examples in the book of churches that have existed on sites, century after century, and for some reason, in the line of the Lay Line ~ like Energy Vortexes. Is it energy paths?

We are gathering this information now. Understand the reason, for so often the difficulties is that certain incidences and occurrences that are currently being experienced on the earth plane are not new over the millennia and have been given other names as I have spoken this last time of the pyramid eras. We want to make certain that that which you labeled the particular occurrence is indeed that which is consistent with other occurrences over the millennia. What you refer to, and we will try to explain this in as simple a manner as we can, for it is complex, and we may have to return at another time with a greater simplification of it for you.

You are referring to markings that have remained after the physical manifestation has left, and that there is an interconnectedness to the vibration currently surrounding Planet Earth and extending further out to the entire earth plane experience. And these markings all have vibrational significance that tie them into the one pyramid, the one that is referred to now on the earth plane as the Great Pyramid. It is the central powerhouse. And all of the markings that exist on Planet Earth now are related in some way to the vibrational attunements of the pyramid, and to serve a function for the cleansing of the Earth when that time occurs. It marks certain vibrational areas, geographic areas, which will have significance to the greater scheme of events when The Shift occurs.

For those whose mission it is now to give attention to the unfolding of the pyramid and its purpose to be served in The Shift, it will be information that will be readily available to those entities. It is information now, currently serving what we might refer to as an entertainment for those who would like to read about it, hear about it. Its scientific significance is beyond the understanding of those currently on the earth plane except for a very few whose soul mission it is to deal with it when the time arrives.

As I had indicated in our last discussions, these entities are all currently on the earth plane. Some are not physically on Planet Earth but are on the earth plane and will manifest themselves when the time occurs. It is necessary. There are several whose soul memories are now being stirred who will rise to the occasion, as we might say, when it is appropriate for that to occur.

We encourage you to continue in your quest for this information and to seek out more information, for you have a natural curiosity and somewhat innate ability to understand some of the scientific ramifications of this. For most, though, there is not this understanding or this desire to understand. Rest assured that these are all part of the plan for the continuation of the physical planet after The Shift. These have been used in all of the other eras of cleansing. It is a continuity factor.

A Pyramid Shape In Helping Those Who Are Struggling With Ailments (April 12, 1988)

I have a child who chose to be born with many ailments. I have recently taken her off all artificial remedies. How can I help her with balancing herself and with her spiritual growth at this time?

Your daughter has chosen to come in through you to help her in her own lessons. You were chosen specifically because you have the strength of spirit that is needed for this particular energy form who has chosen to come in at this time because of the opportunities of accelerated growth, this time before The Shift. She has much that she has taken on. It relates to two very particular issues that I am not at liberty to discuss because they involve her soul's path, and I, without her own questioning or her permission, cannot respond to that particular issue. However, what you are doing, my dear, is as it needs to be. You have begun the difficult process of taking away the dependency upon artificial means. There will be time periods in which the breaking away from this dependency may seem to bring on greater pain, but it is not in the long term.

We have a suggestion that you might employ in the short term to begin this healing process. That is, to build a structure in the shape of a pyramid. It does not need to be filled in, merely the skeleton of the pyramid, one which you can place over her. And when she is asleep, this structure needs to stay over her. You may, if you are inclined, dress it up with some lace and with a large crystal that will be positioned on the top of the point. And as she goes into the sleep state, stand by her and visualize the ball of White Light encompassing her complete being. Do this for some time and you will begin to see improvements. Do not expect dramatic improvements, for she needs to endure this for some time. This may be employed until the time of The Shift, perhaps, and if she does learn what she needs to learn and balance herself as she so hopes to do, by the time of The Shift, she will then be ready to take on the second part of her mission which is, of course, dependent upon the first part of her mission.

She will look to you for your strength in helping her through this and for your understanding, which is already evidenced. We recommend this pyramid to many who would like assistance in gaining greater attunements. For as we had indicated earlier, in another session, the pyramids on the earth plane currently serve a purpose as energy conductors, and it would be of benefit to all of you if there is a particular physical ailment to have a pyramid in your midst, not necessarily one in which you sleep, but one which you have in your vibration.

Question About The Way Waith Holds His Hands In The Shape Of A Pyramid

(May 10, 1988)

Waith, I notice the manner in which you hold your hands. Lately when I go into meditation, I place my fingertips in that manner. Is there some significance to that?

Yes, of course. It is an energy field that is closely linked to the pyramid formation, and when the hands are placed in this position there can be a connecting to the energies that the pyramid formations on Planet Earth take. It is not possible for all to do this. The vibration must be of a particular level in order to connect with the vibrations from the pyramid formations, and it is significant, of course, that you have noticed this and that you are able also to do this now.

It will occur naturally with each of you. As your own energies increase, so too will the natural connection with the pyramid formation occur. I do this at particular times when there is a necessity of pulling in old energies which the pyramids have, and it is of course connected with a vibration that I share with Mushiba when I enter, and it is an old energy connection for Mushiba, and it energizes the environment in very positive ways.

And as you begin to do this more and more yourself you will find a stronger ability to center your own energies. It is an ability that advanced energy forms like yourself are able to take in and utilize. If you do not have the vibrational level, even by placing the hands together like this will not bring the connection with the pyramid formation. You will know it if you have that. You will feel the energy and you will begin now to feel stronger and stronger energies, so carry on.

Discussion Of The Pyramids (Comprehensive Discussion)

(June 09, 1988)

We have been giving consideration to a discussion that we had begun some time ago and in terms of continuing the discussion, and we thought that this time would be appropriate to continue a discussion of the pyramids, and for those who missed out on Part I of the pyramids, it is of course available now in transcribed form for anyone to take and to disseminate as you see fit and appropriate.

Ah, the pyramids. There continues to be much discussion on the earth plane and much misconception about the pyramids, and the pyramids have many mysteries about them that have been purposely built into the phenomena. It has been meant that it provide a certain amount of mystery to those on the earth plane, for it is a vehicle by which knowledge or the seeking of knowledge is presented to all of you. It appears that when an energy begins to be curious about the pyramids, it indicates a certain attainment of awareness at the Soul Level. For those who are on the earth plane who do not really express an interest or even an awareness of the pyramids and the power of the pyramids, it indicates that they are at a level of awareness that in this particular incarnation they are doing things other than seeking real spiritual advancement, and this is fine, and so we have sort of, shall we say, triggered in The Universal Consciousness a memory of the entire pyramid concept as had been indicated in the first discussion of this.

The Primary Purpose Of The Pyramids ~ Conductors Of Energy

The pyramids currently on the earth plane are only one in a series of time frames that pyramids have been on the earth plane, and that their sole purpose is to be used as conductors of energy in between Planet Earth cleansings so that this series of pyramids is currently just one in a series, really, and is now storing up the energies that have been from the last cleansing and will be until this cleansing.

It is beneficial that as you begin to advance in your own awarenesses and as your Chakras open more and more, that you have some type of pyramid in your environment. It need not be a large structure. There are some now who we see as sleeping under pyramid structures, and we have recommended this in one particular case thus far, and we will recommend this in the future for specific cases. What we do see is any type of pyramid, be it in the shape of a crystal, or a rock, or any type of structure, material, that would make the structure, would be beneficial, for the shape alone of the pyramid is a conductor of energies and will help you in your own awarenesses and opening up.

We currently see the energy conducting of the major pyramids on the earth plane now as increasing, and the storage component of the pyramids is enlarging itself, and when The Shift occurs there will be tremendous amounts of energy released at all the major points on the earth that will aid in the maintaining of your own energies, for those who are able to choose to remain on the earth plane at the time of the cleansing. And the energies from the pyramids will, shall we say, shoot out to all those who need the reinforcement. It will go only to those, of course, who will be allowed to stay on the earth plane. Those who are not attuned to the new earth vibration will not, of course, receive this added energy, this extra shock, shall we say.

This is the primary purpose of the pyramids. The other so-called purposes are meant to create what you might call folklore, to create this curiosity about what is inside the pyramids. The pyramids, when originally constructed, were used by those who constructed them for spiritual advancement sessions, shall we say, where there was tremendous gatherings of energy by a significant number of energy forms on the earth plane at that particular time of the creation of this set of pyramids. And the various nooks and crannies that are within the pyramid structure, each have a vibrational significance to those energies who were creating this particular series. And they are back on the earth plane now, and they are beginning to gather. There are several thousand energies probably about three thousand five hundred to four thousand approximately, energies who have had a participation in the pyramids around the earth plane.

There are many pyramids, by the way, that have not been found. They are small in dimension. The ones that are known to all of you are known because it was meant that they be known to you. Realize also that there are pyramids in other planets that surround the earth, for the other planets are part of the entire earth plane experience, as we have told you before. And therefore, when The Shifting occurs it will be affecting all of the planets, not just Planet Earth, and that each of these planets have pyramid structures and they will all work, they will all come into action simultaneously helping to create the new vibration, and the work will be completed with the cleansing. And by the time that the physical earth has settled down once again, several years, the pyramids will have done what they were supposed to do, and they will no longer be, and it will then become the task of building new ones. And so, it continues from cleansing to cleansing.

Those who are gathering now who were part of the major pyramid construction, many have acknowledged the memory of that time, many are just beginning to have the Soul memories, and many are about to. And by the time of The Shift, all who have come back into this time frame will know their role, for those who were with the pyramids in the beginning are obligated to be with the pyramids in the end, so that they can pass on the knowledge to new creators of pyramids. This is how it has been for the millennia and it will continue. We sense that there is surprise among you. An understatement.

Are any of us builders of pyramids?

As has been indicated that Mushiba has been in the time of the pyramids and is one of whom I speak. There is one other in this vibration currently who is, and that vibration is about to become aware of this knowledge. And until that soul memory has allowed itself to come to the surface, we will not reveal the identity. But in this particular gathering, right now, all of you little energies, there is one. And this energy was with Mushiba, and Mushiba knows who it is and is just waiting for the remembrance. And when you remember, my dear little energy form ~ ☺

I have a question about the pyramid structures you suggested we have in our homes. Do they need to be of a size or to the true dimensions of the real pyramids, or just in that type of shape?

The size is not important. The dimensions are. It would not be useful to have a pyramid that was not geometrically sound. It could be tiny, tiny, tiny and still be geometrically sound. We know that there are many vibrations who currently have several pyramid structures of varying sizes in their environment, and this is helping them to attune themselves, and as many as you want to have is as many as you need. You may find that you do not have a physical pyramid but rather you are able to create it in your meditations. When we say that you should have a pyramid, it can be tangible or intangible. For most of you, the tangible is the way that you must go, at least for the time being, until you are able to create it in your meditations, and therefore have a pyramid around you at all times, carrying it with you because it is part of your Higher Self.

Is there a difference how close the pyramid is. Would it be more beneficial to wear it on your hat, head? ☺ Having it in my room?

Yes, my dear. If you would like to get yourself a little hat pyramid then you can carry it around with you at all times. It is important, you understand, also, for the symbolism of the pyramid to become more evident and for more and more vibrations to acknowledge to the world, to all those energy forms who need the reminding, and need the Soul memories moved about a little bit. And so, it is rather fun actually to think of ways in which you can put the pyramid structure into concrete form. You can do just about anything. The imagination is limitless. The ultimate, of course, is being able to carry it around in your Higher Self, you see, having the geometric formation constantly in your memories and in your meditations.

How Were The Structures Of The Pyramids Built? (June 09, 1988)

Waith, is it correct that the pyramids were built with sound, or so-called sonar energy?

They were built most predominantly with mind. The abilities of those who built the pyramids during that particular time frame were very powerful and were used in that time frame specifically for the building of the pyramids. Manifestations by these energy forms since then have not included a mind control, for it is very powerful, and that type of mind control is allowed only for very specific situations, and with very specific individuals, and only for a specific time, so that for the time frame that was needed to build these pyramids, and this will hold true for the building of the new ones, for the next phase, the mind power will manifest itself only for that time that is needed. And part of the mind control that is needed links in with sound.

It is a very complex area to discuss, for when you use the word sound, you are referring to vibration, and it is a vibration frequency that is not familiar to the average entity on the earth plane. It is a very high vibration that only certain vibrations can plug into, that they are allowed to plug into. And yes, so to answer your question, there is a part of sound that, at a very high vibrational level, in combination with the mind. So that all of the stories of course and the speculations of how the pyramids were constructed are quite amusing actually. We find them to be interesting. They are no more ludicrous in their stories during this time frame than there have been during all the other phases between cleansings of how the structures were built. This will hold true with the new structures. We are in the process of selecting the new group who will build the structures and who will be guided by the old, sort of the passing on of the knowledge.

Would It Be Helpful To Gather More Information To Study The Pyramids?

Would it be helpful to kind of start reading material? I have a book called Initiation that is specifically dealing with the time frame of the pyramids, to just familiarize ourselves again with the knowledge that is there right now.

You may do whatever you feel is best for you, my dear. There is a considerable amount of information that we have allowed onto the earth plane regarding the pyramids. There is information that has been interpreted incorrectly, as well as interpreted correctly. And as with everything that we have indicated before for information you must reach your own judgements, your own conclusions. Whatever you want to learn will come to you. If you feel a need to learn, you send it out to The Universe and the information that you need will come to you, as you know.

There are many of you who may not feel a need to gather information about the pyramids, and that is fine. Remember, as we have said before, do not allow yourselves to feel pressured by those around you who may be seeking certain types of information that you find not of interest to you. And so, my dear, if you are feeling a need to learn more about the pyramids, then by all means seek out more information. You will perhaps be bombarded by information if this is the energy that we are currently feeling from you where this area is concerned. Know that The Universe is going to bombard you and you must then be in a position of interpreting that which is useful and that which is not to you.

There was recently a television special on pyramids which I found fascinating. There are people who dedicate their lives to the study of the pyramids, or the study of Egypt, and which is largely centered around the pyramids, and I was wondering if these are the souls that have incarnated again at this time to pass on the information.

Not necessarily. There are many who are fascinated of course with the pyramids and who have devoted, shall we say, their entire manifestation to it. It does not mean that they are those who were The Builders and those who would pass on the knowledge. There is a possibility that they will be those who will become The New Builders, but not necessarily. It is not easy. We do not allow things to be easily interpreted. We understand that there is a tendency for all the vibrations to be able to look at someone and immediately say, "Oh, I know what their mission is."

Just yesterday someone happened to be talking about pyramids to me. They were telling me that the pyramids are constructed of triangles, four triangles, and each of the triangles represents the integration of three things, the astral, the physical, and the spiritual aspects of Creation, and that mystery that is contained within there, relates to all of that. Is that good information?

Yes, it is. That is all that I will remark on at the moment.

A Discussion Of Materials Used To Construct Pyramids During Specific Time Frames (June 09, 1988)

The pyramids that we know now are made out of stone, but obviously not all the pyramids were made out of stone. I was fascinated when you said to construct pyramids in your imagination that are not of the physical. Are these the kind of pyramids that will be built to come ~ of a luminescence type?

Ah, so you are trying to project what the new pyramids will look like before the old ones have gone away?

The old ones are very heavy and stonelike. I do not think the ones from Atlantis were like that. I see them as being made from crystal.

The pyramids that are built, the physical material for each of the phases, represent particular issues, major issues, that need to be resolved at a spiritual level in between the cleansings. You see, we get into some heavy-duty stuff. Each of the time frames between cleansings on the earth plane have major issues built onto the earth plane that souls, in choosing to come in and manifest during the time frame between each of the cleansings, can learn certain things. There are many, many souls who do not manifest in particular time frames between cleansings, for they have determined that those lessons major to the earth plane are not what they need to do. They have either learned them or they choose not to take advantage of learning them, and therefore stay in other dimensions and wait until the next phase to see what they might avail themselves of.

Chickens.

Not necessarily chickens! ☺ For many have learned what they needed to learn and therefore there is no need to come in during a particular time frame, and so therefore the physical material that is used relates directly to, shall we say, the mission of the earth plane at that particular time. And so, you are correct in your visualization that during the Atlantean time frame pyramid structures were of a crystalline material. They are of a stone formation for now and they will be different for the next phase.

So, each time there is a cleansing the earth increases in its vibration?

Yes, it does.

So, the earth is growing.

The earth is growing.

Is its vibration as we are at the Soul Level?

That is correct.

Are Symbols Of The Pyramids Used Throughout The Universe And Other Dimensions?

(June 09, 1988)

They are used on the earth plane. They have been specifically designed for the mission of the earth plane. There are other kinds of symbols used in other dimensions, depending upon the type of manifestation that occurs in other dimensions. It would be beyond most comprehensions for me to describe this, for the physical manifestation in which you currently find yourself on the earth plane has its own kinds of symbols, and it is enough for most of you to understand those symbols without my adding further confusion by trying to describe manifested symbols in other dimensions. So, suffice it to say that yes, there are other symbols in other dimensions, and that the pyramid is specifically designed for the earth plane.

Waith, we always see the pyramids pointing up. Is there any significance to their pointing down?

Yes, of course.

I always envision it like when it is pointing up, it is like we are projecting the energy outward, and I see that when it is pointing down that it gives to us from the higher planes. Is that correct?

There is a tremendous amount of symbolism that goes with the pyramids. There is so much to talk about where the pyramids are concerned that we have only begun, you see. It has taken two sessions so far and we have not even touched the surface, shall we say. So let us take that particular issue and put it into another session, for the time nears now that I must depart. And therefore, it will be best put into a session where there is more time to explain the symbolism of the placement of the pyramidal structure.

It is time now for us to depart. We have been most honored to have Been of Service to you and to have hopefully added to your knowledge, and of course we know we have added to your confusion, but it is necessary for you to be confused so that you can become coherent. So, I send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.

The Energy Of Three Crystals Placed In A Triangle ~ Pyramids ~ Kundalini ~ Healing (July 10, 1988)

Can you tell us about how we are affected by the energy from three crystals placed in a triangle?

Yes, we know you have been wanting the answer to this question for some time. Three crystals placed on a triangle. A triangle represents energy, and connected with two pyramids, and as I have said before, which some of you understand and some of you do not, not necessarily in this gathering but from others, the pyramids are conductors of energy designed specifically for the coming cleansing, and that the energy that emanates from these pyramids are directly related to healing energy, for there will be a healing that occurs for Planet Earth.

There is a symbolism in The Universe for the number three. There is a symbolism of three being a connector, and when you place the three crystals upon that which you call the triangle in pyramid, what you receive is a direct and very forceful connection to the kundalini, and it is very powerful, as I have addressed to you in the past, and one which needs to be done with responsibility. It will be accomplished as you develop your own ability to bring it about, and it will enable you to call upon the kundalini whenever you need it in a responsible manner and in a way that will not frighten you or others around you. And it is an indicator for you that your healing abilities have reached a certain level, a level where you will be tested in a very dramatic way to your spiritual context, for there will be tremendous power that you will have.

Not all who would do as you do with the crystals would have this ability, for you have a certain level of power and healing that you bring with you from the time of the pyramids, which we have not even begun to discuss with you. And you are ready to take on this particular test, and you have been preparing for it, and it is simply then a matter of your permission for the test to begin.

A Question Is Asked About The New Pyramids That Re Going To Be Built After The Shift (July 12, 1988)

I have a question on the pyramids that are going to be built after The Shift. I was curious if they are going to be six sided rather than four.

Most interesting that you should bring that up. You are a step ahead of us, which of course, oh no, not really. You see, the discussion that we will be having soon, and Mushiba will give the time of this session on pyramids and crystals, is as the healing session, going to be an intermediary level of knowledge. The shape of the pyramids has changed from cleansing to cleansing. The material that is used to construct the pyramids is determined by the vibration of the earth plane, Planet Earth, and all those who are expected to be a part of the next series of time frames until the next cleansing, so that it is determined at this time that the pyramid will in fact be not of a four sided but rather of something more than four.

You, of course, would know to even ask this question and to even be aware of it because of that role that you played in the building of the current pyramids. And it will be a very interesting discussion that we have in this mini-session of the pyramids. And so, we will wait until that time. Soul memories are presenting themselves to you, as well as the information that is coming to you from sources on the earth plane now, who are in preparation for the building of the new pyramids.

Pyramids And Crystals ~ And The Relationship Of Crystals To Pyramids (August 21, 1988)

We are ready to begin our discussion on Pyramids and Crystals and the relationship of crystals to pyramids. This discussion has a very specific purpose and orientation. Those of you who are here at this particular session, as opposed to those who will read in the future, are here for a very specific purpose, which will become clear to several of you in a very short time, and to others of you, as time progresses, you will understand the meaning for your attendance here.

It will help to serve as a model for the future, for we have now begun in earnest that which needs to be done, and that of course is, as we have discussed before, is the development of the Spiritual Community, and the gathering of all who would feel agreeable to being a part of the Community, and as time approaches, you will become part of the group.

Purpose Of Pyramids ~ Role Of Individuals ~ How The Pyramid Is Formulated (August 21, 1988)

All of you have a significant, or can have a significant role to play. We will begin by explaining to you something about the purpose of pyramids and the role of certain individuals and how the pyramid is actually formulated. It was determined millennia ago when the pyramids were ready to be placed onto the earth plane, when the earth plane was first formulated, that there would need to be times appropriate vibrationally for groups of pyramids, and that as we designed the earth plane, it was determined that the earth plane would need to have vibrational changes periodically, anywhere from four to ten thousand years, sometimes fifteen thousand years.

The last cleansing, for example, occurred six thousand years ago approximately. The one prior to that was Atlantis which was from now, this time frame, ten thousand years ago. But in between the cleansings of Atlantis, and the six thousand years ago, was approximately four thousand years. You see the last cleansing was not as many think, ten thousand years ago at the end of the Atlantis experience. So that there have been varying time frames.

It was looked upon as necessary for the entire earth plane, and this includes not just the Planet Earth but all those planets and other dimensions that are connected with Planet Earth that make up what is referred to as the earth plane, that as these vibrational changes occurred, that there needed to be a conduit, some type of central energizing force that would help the earth plane end its current vibration and move on to the next level.

Just as each of you find yourselves, when you move from one vibrational level to another, experiencing certain new awarenesses and new energies, so too does the earth and this plane that you find yourselves upon. And it was determined that that which you now know as the pyramids would be that conduit, and that the shape was determined for particular time frames. The shape that you know now is not always the shape that is used. It depends upon certain factors.

However, what it does present to you is the fact that there is a very solid structure that is implanted upon the various planets of the earth plane, Earth being the central area. And all of the planets that you know of, and many that you do not know of, and the construction of these monuments, if you will, large structures, have been taken care of by a very distinct process and have been used as transferences of energy from souls who help in the construction and then move into other advanced areas.

What is done is simply this. There are twelve souls, and each time of the cleansing, who return from the prior cleansing, and they select twelve each to help in the new building. And out of the group, the twelve times twelve, come twelve, and the twelve who have safeguarded the energies are now ready to move on. They have finished their time on the earth plane. Some choose The Angelic Force and some choose other dimensions. And the twelve out of this group of twelve times twelve, arise twelve who are chosen from the group. It is a natural selection process. And those twelve are then the caretakers through the next phase of the earth.

And when it is time for the earth plane to cleanse itself once again, be it four thousand, six thousand, fifteen thousand, the twelve incarnate once again throughout the Planet Earth, for the Planet Earth is the central area, and the twelve have guarded well and are ready now to transfer their knowledge to twelve times twelve, and so the process continues.

Each of the twelve select twelve, and the building of the new structures will begin once The Shift has occurred and the cleansing is complete and the knowledge will come to those that have been selected at the time that is needed. And when the structures are completed, the knowledge will then be hidden into the Soul memory only to be brought up again when needed. It is very powerful knowledge.

What is now occurring is that the twelve who were chosen from the last cleansing, those who build what you now refer to as the pyramids, the structure, are here on the earth plane. They are in various pivotal points on the earth plane. They choose, each of them, twelve. The choice is not made at the spirit level but rather the choice is made at the earth plane level. They wait until actual incarnation to make their choices. The process will continue that the twelve times twelve will then be given the appropriate knowledge to assist in the construction of the new forms, the next phase, and out of that group will arise twelve, and those who are not part of that twelve will simply continue on in their path and could possibly be chosen to be part of the twelve times twelve for the next cleansing.

Now, those who will be chosen ~ some will know of this selection at a very conscious level. They will be told so that certain preparations at a spiritual level can be made. Others will know at the higher consciousness that they have been chosen and they will take their place when The Shift occurs.

Throughout the last one million years, Mushiba has been part of many time periods of cleansing. She has chosen to come in at certain times and to learn that which she needed to learn, and she has been part of the group, the twelve times twelve, and has learned much from this. She has been a part of that grouping, oh, perhaps five times five ~ not just in this lifeline. It becomes difficult when I have to look at all ten of these lifelines, but it appears in about five different occasions. And at the time of the cleansing six thousand years ago, she became one of the twelve, and she and eleven others now at the pivotal points on the earth plane begin their selection.

Those of you who are here now, as I said earlier, have a very specific purpose, for the twelve gather not only twelve others who will be taught and be given the knowledge, but they gather significant numbers around them who will assist the twelve by twelve. And this geographic area that you find yourselves in has been told to you, of course, that it is a safe area. However, we tell you now that it is not only a safe area but it is one of the pivotal. There are twelve pivotal areas. So, this is not just a safe area. It is an area where one of the new structures will be erected.

The structures change from cleansing to cleansing, and their placement within the total earth plane experience changes. The twelve are responsible for the erection of all of the structures, either on the Planet Earth and the other dimensions and the other planets.

Those of you who are here will be given the opportunity at different levels, with different responsibilities, to be a part of that which is assigned to Mushiba to do after the cleansing. It is why she and I will remain after the cleansing. It will take a significant number of what you call years to do this. And once the passing of information and knowledge and wisdom is given to the new group, and the twelve have been selected to carry on, then the twelve now will be relieved of this tremendous responsibility that has been carried from the last cleansing, and they will be allowed to leave the earth plane. Two have selected The Angelic Force, Mushiba and one other, and the others will go on their merry little ways doing marvelous attunements.

Mushiba has begun her selection. There will be others who will come into this grouping during a relatively short period of time now who will become part of the twelve grouping. It is to be that the twelve who Mushiba selects will be in this community and those twelve assist in the preparations for the land area, some without even knowing that they are doing it, for they know of their selection only when The Shift occurs. They will suddenly know.

The Pyramid Structures Over The Millennia Have Taken On Different Shapes (August 21, 1988)

With that preparation now given to you, this information of the process of the structures, understand that the pyramid structure has been used more than any other structure. There are others. There are what might be viewed as long and straight that have certain vibrations plugged into their dimensions. There have been round structures at other points, millennia past.

During the past perhaps four cleansings, the structures have been of this shape that you have all come to recognize as The Pyramid Shape, for the earth plane is going through a particular vibrational attunement over a very long period of time, and the structures that will be prepared for the next period of time will be of a different shape. They will not be of what is now thought of as pyramid shape.

The way in which these are constructed, of course, has been the subject of much speculation on the earth plane, as it always creates when their existence is recognized and it appears that they started at a primitive level with primitive individuals as has been the case currently. The speculation of how these stones were placed has always been amusing for us. We take away just enough from each cleansing for evidence so that it presents a brand-new world, so to speak.

Those who will come after you, perhaps one thousand or two thousand years in the future, will look at these structures and will try to look at the civilization that built them and understand how such a very primitive group of people could do this, you see, for it will appear that you are primitive in comparison to that which will have developed. Because of the new vibrations there will be quite an advancement occurring in the next phase of the earth plane.

All Is Done With Mind Control, The Safeguarded Knowledge Is Only For A Few (August 21, 1988)

It is really quite simple. It is all done with mind control, but this knowledge is, of course, for only a few, for the power is so tremendous that only a few can safeguard it, and it is within a total spiritual context, so that there will be thousands and thousands of souls who will be privileged to be a part of the building and will see the process. All of you here will have the opportunity to do so.

Some of you may choose not to, which is very fine. There is no obligation that you must feel that because you are here to listen to this information that you must in fact do something. It is simply that you have been determined to be of a certain vibrational attunement already, and also potentially, that not only your vibrational attunement but also the enthusiasm and the desire to truly advance at a spiritual level are inherent in your motivations and your behavior. It will be the result of tremendous group effort. And there will be at the time of the cleansing, a coming together at the mind level of the twelve, and there will be such power never seen by those on the earth plane now. This is the reason for the care that is taken.

The twelve know who they are now. They have all been told. Some were blocking the memory, and there will now be a connection at the spirit level of the twelve from now until the time of the cleansing, for the work is ready to begin, and it will mean that the structures that you currently see will no longer be. They will dissolve once The Shift has occurred. They are here to control the vibration so that the physical planets do not disintegrate.

They are much like you might think of as lead or rope holding together a particular ball because of their positioning on the earth and on other planets. They literally, with their energy projections, keep the Planet Earth from crumbling. And thus, when the axis shifts on Planet Earth it will affect the other planets that you know of, the sun and the moon and others that you do not know of, and it will serve as a strong foundation of strength that will keep everything together.

It also serves the purpose of sending out the appropriate energies to those who will remain on the earth plane, who have chosen to stay, and will give to all those who have chosen to stay a certain energy that will not be needed until the earth shift, a certain energy that will enable those who stay to carry on, for we realize that many of you think of the future, and you have much trepidation about what is discussed, and the changes that will be evident when the earth shifts and you wonder about your abilities, whether you will be afraid, whether you will be able to do that which you need to do.

And you will, for these structures are designed to provide certain types of knowledge to you, those of you who will stay, to help you, and it is a very important time, for as the new energies begin to enter the earth plane, as they will, you who have gone through The Shifting and have stayed will have the responsibilities of preparing the new entities who come through with the new type of vibration and the new type of experience.

The New Structures Will Be A Different Shape And Constructed With New Materials

(August 21, 1988)

The new structures that will be erected will have a very interesting shape to them, as well as the type of material that is not currently on the earth plane, that you know of. But rather, when The Shifting occurs, certain materials will arrive once again. There will be some combinations from several times past that are significant in that, this next phase coming, for the earth plane is a taking of other times, and taking of certain elements, and creating something very new out of that which has been, rather than simply taking something all very new, as has been processed during the past perhaps five hundred thousand years.

And thus, materials from six thousand years ago, from ten thousand years ago, from one hundred thousand years ago, that no one is aware exists, but indeed does, will be available again. And this is what the new structures will have as their material. They will be much larger in height than that which currently you know as pyramids. They will have different pivotal points in the structure as well as where they are placed on the earth.

Enfield Is A Pivotal Location For The New Structures

(August 21, 1988)

Thus, in this area that we ~ many of you ~ joke about ~ you say, "Enfield!" We hear you. "What is so special about Enfield?" We hear this. It is special for the vibration that it now brings, the gathering of those many of you, and many who will read this transcript will say, "I do not know how I ended up here, but somehow here I am." Surprise. This area is very, very important and has been in times past, a time approximately five hundred thousand years ago, this particular land area was a pivotal point, and it was, in fact, the place where Mushiba for the first time became one of the twelve times twelve group.

There is a renewing of that vibration, and I was with her at that time. It is the time frame that she gave me this nickname of Waith and I gave her Mushiba as a name which has been used in several other times. She used Mushiba in Atlantis also. And thus, you see, there is a renewing here, for this land area disappeared for some time, perhaps maybe two hundred thousand years ago, as it was meant to, to rest, and then it was allowed to come back, and it is now ready to take its place vibrationally, for it too has been chosen just as others at The Human Kingdom have been chosen.

There will be those of The Animal Kingdom chosen, those at The Plant Kingdom chosen, those at The Mineral Kingdom chosen, to take their place at this particular pivotal point. It is one of high, high vibration and is just now being recognized as such, and it will become more so now as the work begins. You will feel the pull. Many of you will fall right into place, shall we say, for you have already begun to do certain types of activities.

Crystals And Their Current Placement With The Pyramids

(August 21, 1988)

Now, many of you have queried us about crystals and their placement in the pyramids. You must realize that certain crystals are chosen because of their power, and the power is used to help in the generation of the energy. And in each phase of the earth plane, whatever structure happens to be there, certain of those from The Mineral Kingdom are chosen. For this last time frame crystals were chosen. There will be another group chosen for the coming structures.

They have served well, these crystals, and they will go into other dimensions. They will not dissolve when these structures currently existing dissolve, but rather they will disappear ~ people, many thinking that they have dissolved, but they will not. They will be protected for a time to become adjusted to the new vibration and to find their place, and they may not reappear for several hundred years, but they will once again. Just as many of you have been told that entities go onto a Rest Planet, so too do others of the other kingdoms do the same thing. They go into a rest place until it is time for them to come back. So, now we would place on the record questions that you might have.

Question About The Bent Pyramid In Egypt, The One With Two Angles

(August 21, 1988)

Waith, I have two questions. I was wondering if you could just talk briefly about the bent pyramid in Egypt, the pyramid with two angles. And also, I would like to know if there is a ~ I am cutting some healing crystals, double terminated quartz crystals. One termination has an angle of about fifty-two degrees, and I am wondering what the mathematical relation is for the second termination in relation to the number of sides.

Let us address one question at a time here. The pyramid of which you speak is a dual conductor and was designed to be the pivotal point between the Planet Earth and the other planets. There is always one structure that serves as the, shall we say, the intermedicator and has capabilities of coordinating the energies. What occurs is that those energies on Planet Earth are coordinated with those energies on the other planets and in the other dimensions.

Remember also that there are many pyramid structures on Planet Earth of which none of you are aware of. There are twelve main pivotal points, and each of those twelve pivotal points will have sub-points. Depending upon the purpose of the pivotal point will determine the number of sub-pivotal points. This particular structure is the coordinator of all of the structures and works in conjunction with all of the other structures on the earth plane.

There are, for example, structures beneath the land mass that you know of now. There is life below that which you stand on, not meant for you to associate with, nor they with you. It is part of other dimensions of which we speak. This structure is the critical one. If you were to visualize the energy, you would see streams of Light. Some can see this for whatever their attunements are. Others, of course, it is not meant to.

You can see the connection, and if you were to look up at infinity almost, you would see these beams going in all different directions. And duality is needed, for one represents that which is called female, and the other represents that which is male, and allows for the separateness, but yet the wholeness, and brings together the two so that there is the complimentary energy eventually that is infused into each of the structures, so that one structure is not imbalanced with more of the male energy than the female, or another structure having more of a female than a male, but rather the balance of the two. So, it has a very important function. There will be one such structure in the new buildings. At this time, we will not discuss its location or what it will be doing for it is too soon to give that information, but that is its purpose.

As far as your other question, perhaps, my son, you could explain just a bit differently what your dilemma is. We are trying to understand what your dilemma is for we do not see a dilemma ~ however, we realize that there is one in your mind.

I am trying to determine with a double terminated quartz crystal, what angles should be used for the second termination in relation to the number of sides in order to produce the highest focus of the energy, the highest amount of energy. In other words, the angle would change as the number of sides changes.

What is occurring here is that from our perspective we do not see that this is important in the scheme of that which must occur, and that you have taken this as a problem that you feel is important. What is occurring is that you are not trusting in your own soul memories. There is something that you can do. We will give you this technique that will help you through this problem, for you will encounter this problem in the future.

You see, dearest one, what is occurring is that there is an ending coming to the use of pyramids as energy conductors, and it will begin to accelerate as The Shift occurs. They are still very important for most on the plane. However, there are many like yourself who are now in a process of change, where you are no longer needing pyramids or any structure related to those dimensions, and that you are beginning to get a sense of that which is about to be for structure, dimension, and form, and there is ~ perhaps the best way to describe this kind of clashing in your own mind as to that which is important and that which really is not critical ~ you are being presented with information at a higher level that is sort of, shall we say, squeezing its way in and occupying space in your mind that is already trying to deal with something that is past.

This is a transition for you, and what I will give to you is something for you to do to sort of help you through this time period. I would want you to find a spot that is in its dimensions eight foot by eight foot and lay in this spot on your back and have with you a crystal that is red in color in your right hand, put a crystal that is blue in color in your left hand, and to project light into both of these crystals from your imagery, and allow energy transference to occur between the red crystal into the other crystal so that it goes from the red. There is a crystal currently in your environment that has the shape of three sides. This is the one to use.

What this is going to do is to help you in understanding. You will be given very important awarenesses so that this dilemma that you present currently, you will find to be not a dilemma at all, but rather other information will now be given to you that you will find much easier, for when there is a dilemma, for you especially, where crystals are concerned, there need not be any, for your knowledge is such that there would be nothing that would not be known to you that needed to be done.

And you will find an easing mentally for yourself, for you will see rather what needs to be done with the new formations. For you will of course be, if you so choose, a part at some level. We will not reveal it as yet. That will be discussions that you will have with all of us, a role to play in the new structures, for you have helped in other times and you will have the opportunity to do so again. What it will be is yet to be discussed.

Please Explain The Mastery Level Of The Twelve Chosen To Construct The Pyramids (August 21, 1988)

I have a question concerning the twelve. From what we understand, at the earth plane level, the master is the one who has had many, many incarnations, and who through their life experiences to The Creator, and once their lessons and missions have been fulfilled, they go on to The Creator or to The Angelic Force, if they should choose. They are very high vibrational attunements in their being. The twelve that you speak of are almost at this mastery level, and because only they could possess such information as to the building and construction of these pyramids, and I guess what I am asking is are the twelve ready to ascend, and is that what happens when their information is passed on? Are they free from the wheel of birth and rebirth? Are they finished?

Yes, but there is some qualification given here. They are not by any means ready to become One. They are simply finished with the earth plane. It does not mean that they will go into The Oneness. It simply means that they have attended all that they needed to on the earth plane experience and that they are now ready to proceed into other dimensions, The Angelic Force being one of those options open to them. Many other options are open to them.

Remember that an entity can take on the earth plane at any point in their development, but many who come onto the earth plane are essentially at a beginning stage of their development, and there are a number who enter the earth plane at very high levels, that in fact they enter at a level that spiritually is attuned higher than many who would ~ as they leave the earth plane would have a certain level of attunement, and that when we speak, and we do not refer to them as masters ~ only The Creator is the Master. There are levels of attainment, but master, even though we may on occasion refer to a soul as a master soul, they are not masters.

Until they reach The Creator?

This is correct. This is correct. They may have certain masteries that have been achieved, and yes, they are at the end of the earth plane experience.

So, they are not on a level as Amelius?

No. No. That is ascribed to very different vibrations. Those are very selected vibrations. One can become a part of the One without taking the place, taking his or her place, at a level that Amelius ~ you see, there are certain missions and responsibilities that an entity would take on to do the role of that which Amelius and others at His level have done. It is a covenant that is made with The Creative Energy, just as it is done with The Angelics, and just as it is done with any of the other dimensions.

There is nothing for anyone to feel in awe of. Those who you might perceive as being highly advanced, it is simply that they have done certain things, they have been at it longer, perhaps. They have accelerated, they have taken on certain responsibilities, that whatever their path is to return to the One, they have taken a certain direction. It does not mean that anyone is any better than anyone else.

You must be very careful of perceiving that anyone is any better. One of the issues that Mushiba and I discuss frequently, and it is a concern of hers very much since she is on the earth plane, and mine because of what we do, that there would be an attitude toward Mushiba. She is simply on her path. She is not to be idolized, and she will tell you this, and when you meet other high souls, you must not idolize them. They will not want this. It creates, actually, a difficulty for them. It presents something that then needs for them to dissolve, or to attempt to dissolve, for idolization represents ego enforcement.

And all gathered on the earth plane and in other dimensions, are all part of the One, and you are all part of each other. We are all part, as I have said before, of each other, simply here to do certain things. And believe me, that which the twelve have is a very tremendous lesson and test, and it is simply that they have been asked and they have accepted the challenge. There will be many others, since there is eternity, who will be presented with the same.

May I ask just one more question? Do you have to be at the mastery level, the level of Amelius, for example, I know there are many that we do not know of, do you have to be at that level before you can raise your body, or are there other levels in between?

What is difficult here, my dear, is that you are posing questions that come from a source that is not entirely complementary to the type of information that I am presenting in its understanding. There is some dilution, you see. The body does not ascend. It is spirit that ascends. The body is simply an earth plane illusion used to house the spirit. In other dimensions there are other types of encasements, but spirit is energy, and when it ~ as it moves through its dimensions, there is an elevation that occurs, but it is a spirit elevation, and there are certain criteria at the Universal Level that need to be reached before Oneness can occur.

Amelius is actually One with The Creator, and is of a special distinction in that He, She, for it is dual energy of course, can move from that Oneness. It is a special situation. There are a number of energies who do this. Amelius has on occasion the responsibility to come onto the earth plane, to go into other dimensions, to move ahead the progress, shall we say, of that which is being done.

All energies have the ultimate potential of becoming like the energy known as Amelius. However, they choose not to, for there are tremendous responsibilities and other types of attunements and testing that occur. And it is not necessary to go through this phase in order to become One, but what it means is that once you become One, you stay there. To take on that which Amelius and others have means that you move back and forth. It has very different implications to it, so that there are many, many who will elevate themselves, their spirits, so that eventually they become One.

Ascending is a word that is used on the earth plane for certain types of individuals who may have difficulty in grasping the concept of elevation and therefore need the imagery of the body moving through the various levels. It is quite simplistic and goes toward a certain group. We present information of a purer sort. The purpose is ultimately the same, of course, but there can be some confusions, and so it is advised that you look carefully at that which you study.

What Will These New Structures Look Like? And What Will The New Helpers Be? (August 21, 1988)

Waith, I have two questions. One, what will these structures look like? You once mentioned, when I asked you about the inverted pyramids, I do not think they are going to look like that, but I guess I would like to hear more about the inverted pyramid. And I am curious to know what the new structures will look like. And instead of crystals, what will the new helpers be in making these new ones?

The new structures at this time we will not reveal. There is no need for that, for there will only be a group, a small number in relation to the masses that will even be involved in this or will even care. Those who truly do care and who will be a part of it will be given that information soon enough. Those that will replace the crystals, for that also falls within this realm, there are a small gathering now, a small amount, who in a very short time will have the answer to this.

As far as the inverted crystal ~ pyramid goes, what has occurred is that as the time approaches, as it does now for the ending of a phase, there is a sifting out, if you will, of energies. There is a shaking of energies. Inversion means that certain types of crystal structures are now ready to change form, and that they are moving from the form of uprightedness into inversion in preparation for the change in form. They will be representative of the change, and there is actually, if you could see this, a draining out of energies. They are connected initially to the pyramid structures, and now the energy that they have received all this time from the structures is now ready to leave the form, and in order for the form to change, the energies must be depleted. There must not be any so that the new energies can now enter in and change the form.

Interesting. Thank you.

Waith, I brought a crystal and I was wondering if you could give me your impressions of it. You know what I intended to do with it, and then I could not do it.

You must leave this alone. I am just giving it some energies. This needs eventually to be located in the geographic area that is sub-pivotal to the new structures. It is fine with you now. You are helping it to prepare itself for work that it will do in the new phase. You should place this on something that you might refer to as a pillow, a white pillow, that has three sides to it. That is all we will tell you now. It is a most beautiful mineral.

Waith, are these crystals as you refer to in the pyramids, are they giving out energy all the time?

Yes, it is a constant flow of energy that many are able to charge into. As you move along in your earth plane experiences and become more attuned to the flow of energy within yourself, your enlightenment reaches a point from the Higher Self that you know that the energy field is there from the pyramids, and you are able at a higher level to plug into it and to receive the energy that you need, depending upon the attunement that you now need, and that which you advance as you go through your earth plane experiences. It is continuous. It is always there ready to be tapped into as you need it.

A Discussion Of The Pyramids Built In Disney World In Florida (August 21, 1988)

These pyramids that they built down in Florida, in Disney World. I mean it sounds kind of silly to ask. You always say do not worry about silly questions. Do they have anything at all there. or are they just plain facades, buildings? Would they have any other meaning?

Their meaning is simply that of any structure that is built dimensionally correct to the original pyramids in that they serve as energy conductors. Any pyramid shape has the special ability to plug into the pivotal pyramid and in fact can serve to be a very special conductor of energy. We have mentioned in the past that, and we say this now, for the time being it is still appropriate to have pyramid structures in your environment, be they physical or mental, for there is still, you see, this energy that is available, and that will maintain itself until The Shift.

The Current Pyramids Will Not Dissolve Before The New Structures Are In Place

(August 21, 1988)

Recognize that the current pyramids will not dissolve before the new structures are in place. There will be no time that there will be a disruption. For example, the pyramids will not dissolve and then you will find one or two or three years, that term, that time frame superfluously, that there will not be any structures. It will all be of such a timing that one immediately replaces the other, and there is absolutely no disruption in energies, so that you will all receive benefit from the pyramid energies and that those of you who are here when the new structures present themselves will, in fact, simply, most of you, without any recognition of it, simply will be receiving energies from the new source, the new structure.

Those of you who will become a part of the new structure in an intimate way will begin to feel that change, as I have said earlier, before the changeover occurs. It is here to help on the earth plane experience. It is specially designed, these structures, for the earth plane experience. They do not exist in other dimensions. They exist only for the earth plane dimensions. There are other types of energy helpers, if you will, that exist in other dimensions that when you are in other dimensions in spirit form you are able to utilize, and when you come onto the earth plane experience, it is here for you to utilize.

A Question About The Pyramid At Meridian
(September 20, 1988)

I read a book recently discussing the pyramid at Meridian, which is not fully built, and the author examined that pyramid, as well as some others, and drew some conclusions, which were pretty much what you had told us. The question I have is about the one at Meridian. Was this a starter pyramid? Was it a pyramid that fell apart, or what?

The pyramid of which you speak, is a completion pyramid. It is one in which the energies from all of the other pyramids will be funneled into as each pyramid fulfills its mission, and no longer needs the energies, it will be placed into this pyramid at that point. The pyramids, once relieved of their energies, will, as I have said before, disappear.

The final pyramid, with all of the energies now in it, from all of the pyramids, will now be the central point in which the twelve will tap to create the new structures, and to pull from that remaining structure all of the energy and be placed into the new structures. Once that has been completed, and that structure is then empty, its mission is completed, and it will disappear, to be replaced by a structure complimentary to the new design of structures that will serve as the completion structure for the next cleansing.

The Inner Circle Of Mushiba And The Twelve To Be Selected For The Pyramids
(September 20, 1988)

In our last meeting, you referred to six being in the inner circle of the group, and in the pyramid session, you referred to twelve being part of the inner circle.

They are two very distinct situations.

Two separate groups?

Two separate groups. The six of which I refer, are those who surround Mushiba and I in our mission here. They will serve as special messengers and serve as those who all in the spiritual community can seek guidance from. They will be receiving special instructions from me and will serve much as you might refer to as lieutenants for Mushiba. They will be shielding in many ways Mushiba's activities, and will serve as emissaries, lead emissaries of the community. They will be pivotal in helping the development of the community. They will each have a particular role within the community development.

There are ~ this scenario occurred ten thousand years ago in Atlantis, when Mushiba and I were last here working with the cleansing together, and there was an Inner Circle, consisting of ten. All ten of those Inner Circle members have returned and surround Mushiba now. However, not all of them have chosen to reenact that which occurred ten thousand years ago. They have other paths to follow. The Inner Circle currently now consists of four from that time frame, and two new energy forms, who make up the Inner Circle. We will very shortly, tell you more about their role.

When we spoke of the twelve, in the pyramid session, this is something very different. This does not relate to this particular situation directly, but since Mushiba is one of the twelve, it will directly impact upon all of you who are a part of the community, and Mushiba will select twelve. They will not be from the Inner Circle.

They will be different, for their roles will be different, their missions different. And as time goes on you will understand the difference and you will begin to appreciate the difference, and you will, in fact, be very fortunate to have so many different entities available to help you at a very earth plane level, in your path, helping you to increase your spirituality. This is the mission that Mushiba and I have. Our basic mission is to help you all to increase your spirituality and to grow more vibrant, more stronger, and this is what we do.

When we gather around us those who will be able to help in this mission, for they will have very specific guidelines from Mushiba and I, and you will be able to identify with them, perhaps, a little more easily than you might be able to identify with Mushiba, for her lessons are very different from all those which you will be encountering. And so those of the Inner Circle will be experiencing those same kinds of tests and lessons and will be able to talk you through them, and help you to understand the meanings of that which you encounter in your life.

A Continued Discussion Of The Pyramids
(November 01, 1988)

We thought that this particular session that we would discuss a particular topic. We will begin our discussion of this topic. We have touched upon it in the past and feel that there is a greater need for a discussion now, and it relates to the topic of the pyramids and the coming structures that will be designed and built. There seems to be much interest. We have given a Special Topic Session on this particular issue, and find, from our own investigations of your needs, that it is a continuing topic of, shall we say, fascination. We will give you some further information and then we will allow you to ask questions that we know are on your mind and would like to have placed on the record.

We have stated that the pyramids, as they are now, are conductors of energy, and that their purpose is coming to the fruition that it was intended when built approximately six thousand years ago. These structures, and we refer to them as structures rather than specifically as pyramids, change in their form from cleansing to cleansing, depending upon that which must be accomplished during that particular time frame. The current structures on the earth plane are these that you know as pyramids.

When the cleansing occurs and The Shift of the axis comes, they will serve as energizers, and there will be a connection of very intense energy. They are positioned at what are called critical points on the earth plane, remembering always that the earth plane is made up of more than just Planet Earth. You would refer to previous sessions where we have discussed what is actually made up of the earth plane. And all of these structures were designed by a very select group of entities who have now returned to the earth plane to gather about them a new group of energies and to teach them how to transfer the energy from the pyramid structures into the new structures which will be built once the axis shifts.

The pyramids, as you now know them, will simply dissolve. This is how they are designed. It is of a design and a molecular structure that is really unknown to all from the earth plane, though it gives the illusion of that which is known by the scientists. It is not. And they will dissolve, and the new structures will be constructed. And there will be new critical points on the earth plane. Planet Earth itself will have twelve critical points, and there are twelve leaders who know who they are.

The new structures will serve to contain the energy that will be needed for the new time frame on the earth plane, to help those who enter the earth plane in the lessons that need to be learned and the very specific types of energies that will be required and the vibrations that will be needed.

There is a direct correlation with The Mineral Kingdom and the cleansing structures, as we refer to them. Crystals will have new programming as a result of the new structures. As we have indicated in the past, this area known as Enfield is one of the twelve critical points, and one of the missions of Mushiba is that of one of the twelve who will serve to help in the structures that will be constructed.

They will be of a shape ~ many of you have been anxiously awaiting what the shape will be ~ we know this ~ and you have been guessing and presenting speculation, and we will say to you that the new shape will be quite different from the old shape, and that it will have a smoothness to it, rather than this sharpness of what is pyramids, and that is really all that you need to know. It will be smooth. That will be known as they are being constructed, for you see, those of you who will be a part of the community, here in the safe area, will be here as Mushiba directs the twelve who she must select as her builders, and you will all see them being constructed. You will see your very own structure here in the land that will be for the structure.

It will be as these current structures, large, and it is constructed through the mental processes, not at all the way many of the renowned scientists have indicated was the possible way that the pyramids were built. There is nothing mysterious about it. It is an ancient power, but it is a very powerful power, and one which comes in for use only for construction of the structures.

And so Mushiba and the twelve will have this ability when the time is right, and not before, and when the task is accomplished, the power will cease, for it is a very specific type of energy that is transmitted to those who have taken on the responsibility and the tremendous task of construction. And you will all, who become part of the community, be enlisted to help the twelve workers, as we would call them, whom Mushiba will select. You will each have certain abilities given to you to assist, in varying degrees, thus setting the stage for many of you, when the next cleansing occurs, to be a part of the twelve.

We anticipate that many of you will want to be very strong participants in this process that is about to occur. It does not take a very long time, as known on the earth plane. The construction of the structure takes what might be referred to as the blink of an eye, in time, for there is much to be accomplished after the structure is in place, and thus it is not the type of activity that one would devote years of energy to, for it is a quick type of process, so that the structure can be in place, and it will be in place simultaneously with the eleven other structures. It will all be done simultaneously. The connection and the new energy and the new vibration will be in place, so that the work can be done, after The Shift, to prepare the Souls who would enter for the next six to ten thousand earth plane years.

It is not, therefore, a coincidence that so many come into this land known as Enfield. If any of you were to question why you are here, of all places, many of you will find the answers from within now, that this land has been, in the past, used for a similar purpose. It has been a critical point in the past, many, many millions of earth plane years ago. The land mass has a vibrational memory that now permits us to use it as a critical point, for it has attained a spiritual advancement that will allow it to be strong enough for the next time frame, for the building of the new energies, and the new vibrations.

It is counseled from us that none of you worry about where you should locate yourself, but rather, allow that which will flow to occur, remembering that your souls have chosen a particular mission, and that many of you are here to help with The Shift ~ after The Shift as well as before, and that many of you will choose not to stay after The Shift, but rather will do your work before The Shift, so that you may then go on to other types of activities and return when the time is appropriate, into the new vibration.

The community will begin to build the shelters within perhaps, what is on the earth plane, five to six years coming. There is still, as you measure time, significant time before the structures need to be built, the shelters, and we will be guiding you at all times ~ and knowing that you will be in the range of the new structure is for you to realize the immense energy that you will be living with. It will provide to you a tremendous source of power. It will be a good source of power that will provide to those of you who have chosen to remain after The Shift the ability to help and to rebuild at a physical level that which needed to be cleaned, and thus you will all be engaged in a great deal of physical activity as well as spiritual growth, and you will receive your energies from the structure which will be quite literally in your own back yard. You will all find yourselves habitating around this structure, but we will have more on that in the future.

Will There Be Transportation After The Shift So We Can See The Other Structures? (November 01, 1988)

It will not be necessary to see the other structures. They will be situated in very great distances from this particular structure. Transportation as you now know it will be altered, and for the immediate time after The Shift there will be a very rudimentary type of transportation available, and just as occurs after every cleansing, there becomes, once again, the building up of the experiences and the energies coming back onto the earth plane and bringing with them their knowledge and their experience and starting all over again, as we have talked so very often about.

There will be those of the twelve who will have the vision of the other structures, but there will be no need to physically visit the others for they will be of the same shape and have the same purpose, and by being with this particular structure will connect you with the other eleven automatically.

The Pyramid Structures Serving A Vibrational Purpose From Cleansing To Cleansing (January 31, 1989)

When I hold the crystal that Mushiba programmed in Atlantis, I have been seeing, three-sided crystal pyramids with light or colors of the apex with white light. That is all the information I have received so far from this crystal. And I was reading the books on Atlantis, it was said that during the times of Atlantis, there were twelve times twelve crystal pyramids that were used for various reasons and that they are no longer physically in the earth, but they are still vibrationally set up in different points around the world.

Would you elaborate on this? Are their energies going to be involved with the new energies of the earth? Are they helping during this cleansing?

Yes. What occurs from cleansing to cleansing is that the structures, be they in the shape of pyramids, or whatever they happen to be in, serve a vibrational purpose. And now when there has been a cleansing, they are physically gone. They disappear physically. However, their vibration remains for approximately four cleansings after, depending on which point they were in the vibration ~ if they were one of the major twelve, they may be assigned to stay vibrationally into ~ longer. If they are one of the minor twelve then they would stay for a less amount of time.

Thus, the structures used during the Atlantean time, and we speak now of Atlantean time going back perhaps sixty thousand earth plane years ~ these structures are about to come to the end of their need to be plugged in vibrationally. What it actually is accomplishing is a transition vibrationally from one to the other so that the new structures that will be built with this cleansing will then have help vibrationally from the ones that have just disappeared. They will be the most dominant of the vibration. The ones that have just disappeared will, in fact, still be receiving vibrational help from the ones that disappeared in the cleansing prior to this, and thus it goes, you see, until there is a disillusion of the energy. And this is what is being referred to, you see ~ the vibration, the energy ~ it is still a part of, but only at an ancillary type of situation and not the dominant.

So, am I just touching the tip of the iceberg when I see this in my meditation?

Indeed.

Is this area one of the pivotal areas from Atlantis?

This area now was not a pivotal area in Atlantis ~ a major pivotal. It was one of the minor pivots. Thus, it becomes a major one now for many reasons.

Comments About Sedona, Arizona (March 07, 1989)

I am trying to decide where to go on a vacation and would like your input.

Indeed. We would suggest for your vibration that you go to that which is called Sedona.

Sedona. In Arizona?

Indeed. For that is where there is a hidden pyramid, and the vibration of that particular geographic area is quite complimentary to your own. The vibrations currently manifesting in Sedona are going to be a part of the transfer to this geographic area for the new structure that will be constructed in this area at the time of the cleansing.

Mushiba's Spiritual Journey To Jamaica ~Hidden Pyramids ~ Energy Transference
(March 28, 1989)

How did you like Jamaica?

Ah. The best result of this was that it was a spiritual journey for Mushiba, a renewal of energies and a connection of certain energies, and along with that very serious mission that she was given for this journey, there came from it also fun. A most important part of what Mushiba had to do was to energize with one of the hidden pyramids which finds itself in this land mass where she was brought, and it was needed to occur at the time that it did. And thus, all was arranged as needed to be. It had a direct connection with the rock now that you will see Mushiba using. There was the final energy transference.

Questions Regarding Pivotal Points And Information Contained In The Current Pyramids
(April 25, 1989)

Waith, last time you mentioned that the area where we are now, is called the pivotal point. What is a pivotal point?

The pivotal point has been discussed in other sessions. As soon as the transcripts are up to date that will be available to you.

Okay. Sorry, I am rather new so I will wait to read it that way.

Yes, we understand that. Simply know that the pivotal point means that there are Twelve Major Structures on the planet. Currently there are twelve major pyramids, for example, and many, many other smaller pyramids that serve as energy transformers, and there are twelve major ones, and this particular geographic area will be one of those major structures, and there is more information about it that we have given out and there will be more coming concerning it. So, this is a very critical point, vibrationally, for the time after The Shift and between this new time and when the next shift or cleansing occurs.

Waith, I have a question regarding pyramids. I do not know whether you addressed it in your previous paper. I was reading that after the earth shift, the first thing the Souls who will remain on earth will build pyramids, and that is what they did in old Egypt, that is what the Mayans did. And they were saying that all the technology in that time would be concentrated in a pyramid. I know when you measure the Egypt pyramids, you find certain mathematical equations in it, but that is all scientists found out, so what else will be concentrated in these pyramids?

Again, we have given out some basic information about what will occur. The structures, as we would refer to them, will change in their shape. The new ones will not be of The Pyramid Shape. Those of the twelve entities who are charged with the responsibility of building each of the new structures, Mushiba assigned to this particular pivotal point to do that, will have the knowledge from the pyramids as the pyramids are dissolved during The Shift, and there will occur, at the same time, a temporary resurging of knowledge that will assist in the building of the new structures, and then the knowledge, or what you would call the ~ the knowledge that is currently in the pyramids that will be used to help in the building of the new structures will then no longer be of use, and it will no longer be needed. The knowledge that comes into the mind of the twelve who are responsible for the pivotal structures, once that has been used to build the new structures, it will be transferred into the new structures.

As there is knowledge in the pyramids now, so too will there be new types of knowledge there to be drawn upon by those who are able to draw upon it, those who would need the information during the time frame that will come, be they the scientists, be they others whose missions are to receive this knowledge at selected periods of time that will aid in the development of the culture, the civilization, will periodically be allowed to be translated and understood so that advancements can be made as they are needed.

Thus, it has been from the last cleansing, and with the information that is in the current pyramids, that this information, as it is needed, as it has been needed during these many thousands of earth plane years, has been made available. There is much in there, in the pyramids, that a select number of entities over the past thousands of years have been able to gain access to. That which is needed to be known and understood by the scientists of the day is exactly what is given to them.

Uh-huh. I am not quite happy with that.

I knew you would not be. 😊

Think about the Egypt pyramids and the Mayan pyramids. Scientists still do not find the answer.

Indeed, they do not.

So, what is the value of putting all the technology, everything that is available in the pyramid, if the following generation cannot read it?

First, you must understand that the information that is contained in these particular pyramids has been there to be available at certain points in time and has been used in the past. It has no need at this point in time. It will become available for use when The Shift occurs. Know that much of the information that is stored in those pyramids is precisely to be used for a brief period of time, occurring at the time of The Shift, and helping to then build the new structures which will house a different kind of knowledge and different types of information so that ~ just because it is there, does not mean that it is for all and that it is to be readily accessible. We allow it to be accessible to those whom we want it to be accessible to for purposes of advancement and growth.

Last summer, I held what I was told was an Egyptian seal in my hand. When I closed my eyes, I saw myself standing in what seemed like a pyramid chamber. I could describe the walls and ceiling of this chamber. and there were air shafts and light coming from different directions. Was that little insight for me as to what we are discussing now, or not?

What you experienced was a flashback to the time when you were helping in the construction of particular structures. It is not, however, the structures of the current ~ those known as the pyramids now. It was in a time frame of, oh, several, several cleansings ago ~ we lose track, you know, there has been so many of them ~ oh, perhaps, four or five cleansings ago when it was a pyramid structure that was at issue. That emblem that you held was one that was transferred physically from that time frame into the current structures, so that it was vibrationally aligned with the new structures. And what you had happen was something that many entities placed in similar situations would have where those involved in the construction of the pyramid, as it was then, the structure, would have a flashback. It serves a purpose that will be known to you as the coming time frame moves along.

So that is why I was getting that?

You will retain the memories of what you saw now, for at another time you would not have retained this image. Now, you will. It will serve you in the future.

Are The Twelve Pivotal Structures Within The United States Or Around The World? (May 23, 1989)

This is on earth itself, not just in one land mass.

Waith Addresses Pyramids and Crystals Placement (June 20, 1989)

Waith, I have a question about pyramids, in particular the type you put over your stones. I have one at home and I am wondering, does it make a difference, I was thinking about this the other night, how many stones are under it at one time or does it matter if one should be directly under the apex, or does it matter if it is inside or outside the house? Will it affect it in any particular way?

That is a question far too complex to answer at this time, for again, it will be determined by other situations. What you need to understand is that the pyramid structures are not necessarily to be used with cavalier attitudes, and that they have very specific missions, and if they are not being utilized in a particular manner that is correct, they simply will be neutralized, and will not do anything with the stones.

You need to not consider stones and pyramid combinations as games to play. Those combinations are very serious in terms of energy projections and are not a parlor game, as you might sometimes think, to get a pyramid and to arbitrarily do something with it. It has very strong vibrational implications. It is, therefore, important that you connect with ~ and there are many in the community who have connections with crystals that can give you guidance as to whether or not what you do is correct. We will leave it at that for now.

Topic ~ The Pyramids And Their Relationship With Crystals (June 04, 1991)

We, in this time with you now, would speak of additional information relating to the pyramids and their relationship with crystals, and the tremendous knowledge that is contained in the pyramid structures and their valuable resource on the earth plane. They are established at each illusion change to give to those energies who will come onto the plane during that particular illusion all of the necessary information that is needed to work through that particular illusion. At the time of the illusion change, the information is then transferred into new structures that would be information necessary for The New Illusion.

Now. We are going to give to you some of the ways in which you might best utilize the knowledge that comes from the pyramids and how you may gain access to this knowledge through your meditations and through the use of certain crystals. In order for you to reach the knowledge that is contained in the great structures, you must, of course, meditate. You must call upon, first, the Forces of the White Light and the very highest protection so that those forces of the dark would not intervene and therefore, perhaps scramble the message, as you might call it.

A Protection Technique To Use When Going To The Pyramids In Your Meditation (June 04, 1991)

We will give you a particular technique that would be beneficial to use when going to the pyramids in your meditation to assist you in protection. This is a technique in which you would call upon Amelius directly. No intermediary required in this technique. And it is a very simple technique, and if you are then going to call upon the knowledge in the pyramids you would plan your meditation session for just this type of situation, so that you would sit in your normal meditative position, or if you are perhaps walking and doing your meditation, or any way in which you find best to meditate. As we have said, your best way is the way and not that which another would tell you.

You would then envision a White Light all around that which is the Crown Chakra. You would envision a White Light that is much like what you would call a halo, that which has become synonymous in this illusion with The Angelics, but it has a very distinct purpose, for you would envision this circle around your Crown Chakra and it would be a vibrant White Light Circle. And you would then, as you are envisioning this circle around your Crown Chakra, say, "I call upon Amelius, the very Highest of the White Light, to give me protection as I seek the knowledge that is needed for Self and for growth of Self. And as I seek the knowledge from the pyramid structures, Amelius and all the Forces of the Light, protect me." And this is all that is needed for your initial session. Then you would meditate as you best do, that situation in which you are able, then, to connect with your Higher Self.

Gaining Information From The Pyramids ~ Colors Associated With The Energy Centers (June 04, 1991)

Now. This is the very wonderful part of what the new ~ what the structures are giving to you, and as they prepare for the new structures you will begin to feel the connection.

(Name given) had an experience not too long ago on the plane with what we are about to give you for information, and it is most exciting actually, for ~ explain what you envisioned, and we will then elaborate upon this, my love.

During my meditation I was envisioning the three pyramid structures that you had described earlier that week and out of the pyramid structures I saw a very bright orange and yellow light that was sent to another individual to help in healing.

Technique For Healing Assistance From The Pyramids And Energy Center Colors (June 04, 1991)

Yes. Now. What you are envisioning, you see, is a part of a technique for a healing assistance that can be given to another entity. It is to be used, as all assistance, only to be presented and not imposed upon another, but to be available if another entity who is in need of the assistance would seek it. Much like the sending of the White Light, you do not push it onto another but rather provide it if needed.

Now, what you do, you see, the colors that you envisioned, my love, related to those particular Energy Centers, or as you call them sometimes on the plane, the Chakras. Those Energy Centers have each been given a particular color in which they are represented, and others before me have given you out that information, and it is all available, as you all know.

Now, when there is a need for a particular healing with the ~ a particular Energy Center or any number of Energy Centers, you then envision, first of all, a pyramid shape. This is all that you need to do. And then you begin to envision the color of the particular Energy Center or Centers that you wish to work with. And by doing this, you then begin to see it in the form of a Light, and the form sometimes, perhaps, as you would think of smoke coming out of a chimney, you would think of the colors streaming out of the top part of the pyramid.

Now, this next step is where the healing aspect comes in and the seeking of the knowledge, for you then would say, and there does not need to be a script that you would use here, but rather in your basic request, "With the help of Amelius and my Spirit Guides, I call upon the knowledge from the pyramid that relates to ~" and then you would name the Energy Center.

If it relates to the Heart Center, then you would indicate the Heart Center. If it indicates any of the centers, the throat, you see, or whatever. And as you are envisioning the color that corresponds to it, you say then that you would call upon the knowledge that the pyramid has to give to you and to the entity to whom you would want to give healing assistance. And as you are calling upon this knowledge, you focus very, very intently upon the colors that stream out of the top of the pyramid. And you focus for as long as you need for that which you feel is the appropriate time.

Now, you know, as we have said before, you will not be hit with a lightning bolt that says to you, "Here's the knowledge!" There may be some of you who will immediately hear the information. You will sense it. There will be others of you who will say, "I do not know anything more now than I did when I started." This is fine, you see, for the next step in this process takes care of any of the lack of hearing the information, for it matters not if you, yourself, are aware of the information.

For now, you will say that you first will envision the White ~ the smoke, if you will, the colors, moving into the vision of the entity to whom you are sending this help, and as you are envisioning this, you are envisioning that the knowledge is moving with that Light. And you then bring it over to that entity to whom you wish to send it, surrounding the entity with the Light and surrounding the entity with the knowledge, trusting that the knowledge is there in the energy that is being sent, you see. At that point you then have released to the energy to whom you send the healing your part in this assistance.

You, then, after you have sent this energy and the color, then bring yourself in imagery back to the Crown Chakra where the Circle of White Light over the Crown Chakra has presented itself, and you then thank Amelius and you thank your Spirit Guides for protection and for assistance, and you return back into the conscious state. Now. This particular technique can take, oh, a very short amount of time, or it can last for quite a long time. It will be dependent upon your own abilities to connect with the knowledge that the pyramid will give to you.

Now. You would always want to meditate with a crystal in this particular situation. We know that the majority of entities who meditate use crystals. Some do not, however, and this is fine. There is no rule that says you must meditate with a crystal. However, for this particular type of connection with the pyramids, you would want to have a clear crystal with you, for the clarity represents ability to fill in information. Many of you have these crystals already in your possession. Those who would hear these words through other sources or would read our words would simply find a clear crystal. It does not need to be one that costs money, as you would call it on the plane, but one that is very, very small and very minor in its expense, and you may indeed find one out in the environment simply by looking around, for the clear crystals present themselves as they are needed to Be of Service.

And thus, this is a particular technique that we wanted to give to you as it relates to gaining information from the pyramids. Before we continue, are there any questions from any of you beloved ones regarding this technique or anything relating to what we have just given you?

Could this technique be used for Self healing?

Yes. Yes, you could, my love, and you would envision then Self.

With this technique, must the other entity be present?

You may do this whether the entity is in your physical environment or not. The trick, if you will, is in the envisioning of the entity, so that if the entity is with you in your physical environment, you would be meditating, and this other entity does not necessarily have to be meditating, understand this. But you would be in a state of meditation and you would then, through your meditative state, envision the entity. You would not use the technique looking directly at the entity. This is all a part of sending energy through an altered state of consciousness. Thus, you could obviously, then, do this with those who would not be in your physical environment.

It is simply one more technique, my love, in a very large portfolio, if you will, of techniques that can be used to assist others in their quest for healing, you see. Or shall I say Quest for Wholeness?

☺ I had best get the words the right way! (Waith is referring to the Quest for Wholeness seminar sponsored by the Community of Terra Lux)

Would it be beneficial to keep the clear crystals that you use for this meditation stored in a small replica of a pyramid?

It is not necessary, my love. Crystals have a very strong love, if you will, of The Pyramid Shape, and certainly enjoy being in a pyramid shape when they are in those structures, for this is where the crystals currently in this illusion have their prime energy source, is from the pyramids. However, if they are not in these pyramid shapes, they are able to function quite, quite easily and quite well. It is much like, on the plane, you refer to returning to the womb for a sense of safety and security. This is much like the crystals feel when they return to the shape of the pyramid, it is that security and safety. But they know they are out on the earth plane to do what they are here to do, just as each of you are on the earth plane to do what you need to do.

I have some stones from the pyramid. Is that too strong to use?

No, my love. We sense what you refer to, and they are appropriate. They are appropriate.

Does this technique in some way deplete your own energy when you do this?

It could, my love, and this is why there is such an emphasis upon the Circle of White Light over the Crown Chakra and the calling upon assistance directly from Amelius so that there will not be that depletion. The depletion could come in the form of the energies of the dark coming in, and it is because you place yourself in a very vulnerable position by going to the knowledge sources from the pyramids. It also can be a very powerful energy transference that occurs between yourself and giving energy to another. So, yes, there can be, if the proper protection techniques are not utilized.

There is more than one pyramid.

Understand that this a very elementary technique that we give to you, and we indicate that you only focus on the shape of a pyramid, and the knowledge that is needed will come to you from the appropriate pyramid that has the information. You are not, on the plane, at this point, ready to connect with the appropriate pyramid. That will come as the time nears for the illusion change when there will be a greater awareness of what structures house what information and energy. Thus, a part of the power of the pyramids is their ability to know when the knowledge is needed, first of all, and from where that knowledge will be obtained and directly given to you. This is done through an energy transference that is instantaneous in its transmission. A very good question, though.

A gentlemen named Paul Horn has played a musical instrument within the pyramids. Would it be of any advantage to a person to listen to this music that was recorded within the Great Pyramid?

It is certainly beneficial to hear this particular entity's contribution to the vibrational energy field of the greater earth plane as it has been transferred to him through the master pyramid. It is not necessary, however, in order for this technique to be effective, to hear this music.

How Do You Determine What Energy ~ When That Individual Is Ready?

(June 04, 1991)

That is a direct connection with the Higher Self and the Soul in contact with The Universal Consciousness which is then in contact with the information stored in a pyramid. It is, you know, done so, instantaneously. You connect with the Higher Self. The Higher Self goes to the Soul, unlocks the door to the Soul, and the Soul determines what amount of information can be disseminated, what is needed ~ goes to The Universal Consciousness. The Universal Consciousness understands instantly what is needed, then goes to that particular pyramid which then they all have what you would call an instant conversation, and it happens faster than the snapping of this finger, but it is all a part of the connection between the Higher Self, the Soul, and The Consciousness.

A Vision Of An Inverted Pyramid Coming Together At The Points With Another Pyramid (June 04, 1991)

I had a meditation where I saw the shape of a pyramid and then the inverted shape of a pyramid over that and coming together. It was like an hourglass. Can you tell me what it is?

There is very particular importance given to the pyramids envisioned where their points come together, and they are inverted, for it is an envisioning of the way in which the transference of information from each of the twelve major pyramids will partially occur when the new structures are constructed. There is time on the plane now, for we will give you this type of information where we discuss the transference information into the new structures, and indeed the shape of the new structures. We know many waits with, shall we say, bated breath, and have envisioned what they think are the new shapes for the new structures.

What you envision is simply a connection into an energy field that is giving you some insight into certain activities that will be occurring at the time of the illusion change when the new structures are constructed. Call upon this each time that it comes to you in your meditations and ask it for the knowledge that it contains as it relates to your own growth, my love.

What Is With The Pyramidal Shape That Generates Or Enhances Energy? (June 04, 1991)

There is no significance, per se, my loved one. Each illusion has a different shape. Some illusions use this shape that is the pyramid. The New Illusion will have a different shape. What occurs is that with each shape, then, will be determined the ways in which the energy is connected with each of the twelve structures that then surround the total energy field of the earth plane. And The Universal Consciousness, The Creative Force, each of you, each of us, all of us, The Creative Force in The Mass Consciousness, form the energies that surround the earth plane in the twelve structures, so that the points as you see them on the pyramid have a particular significance as it has been executed for the earth plane at that particular illusion. Thus, when you are able to make pyramid shapes that are proportional, and they need not be exact, the exact size, but they are proportional to each of the pyramids, they contain, then, the miniature aspect of the energies as the pyramids have.

During the last phase of Atlantis, pyramids were used, and it was determined that coming into this illusion that pyramids would continue to be used. The New Illusion has a very interesting shape to the structures, and it will have points of reference such as the pyramids have that will contain the pivotal Energy Centers that connect, much like a line of energy from each of the twelve pyramids to each other which then connect to the minor pyramids that are currently on the plane.

The Pyramids Have A Mission, And That Mission Is Guided By Amelius (June 04, 1991)

What about the pyramids that are in South America that are flat topped and have no point, or are there points just in energy only and not physical?

They are not considered part of the major structures. You must remember that there are many minor structures that are connected to the major pyramids which are connected to the master pyramid, and all that has been so called determined on the earth plane is not necessarily correct. There are major pyramids that are not known in their location to the earth plane, and there are pyramids that have been determined to be major pyramids that are not.

It matters not, understand, what any on the earth plane would consider to be major or not or to even be considered to be a pyramid, for the pyramids themselves have their mission, and it is a mission that is guided over by Amelius, and that is all that is necessary to know, that when the time comes for their use, they are guided by Amelius. They are protected by Amelius, for one. There are others also who protect them.

This is true throughout time as each structure has been given its responsibilities. The earth plane membership at the time is not always aware of the mission, just as you can relate this to your own mission. There are many, many, many, perhaps most, who do not know what your mission is, you see. And it matters not as long as at Soul Level you know what your mission is ~ and you do, at Soul Level, each of you.

Is The Large Pyramid At Giza The Major Pyramid? (June 04, 1991)

It is often thought that it is the master pyramid, but it is not. It is a major pyramid, but it is not the master pyramid.

What was the purpose of some of the chambers in the great pyramid at Giza?

Their purposes are ~ we are not at this time instructed to give out that information, for it relates to information that we will give when it is time to discuss energy transference. It relates to the housing of energy, and has nothing to do with that which you would call concrete situations where perhaps bodies were placed into them. This is not the case at all. For another time. It will flow naturally when we give out that information.

Is it correct that it sits on a junction of energy lines or fields, lay lines? Or a vortex?

All of the major pyramids have such an energy field surrounding them. It is not just that particular structure.

And will these fields change at the time that we have the illusion change?

Dramatically, my love. They will change in conjunction with the actual planet shifting on its axis and a new vibration occurring for the planet. Thus it is that, as we speak of polarity changes within the planet, and within each entity who will choose to remain for The New Illusion, so too, will the major energy sources have polarity changes of their own, and that will occur dramatically at the time of The Shifting. However, those polarity changes are beginning with the pyramid structures, just as they begin with many of you.

So, that while there will be, by necessity, a need to wait until the actual shifting for the major polarity changes of the pyramids to occur, they have begun already the shifting of their energies and the preparation of their energy transference into the new structures, so that the knowledge that is needed for The New Illusion will indeed be ready for transference, and that knowledge which the pyramids contain now, which does not ~ will not be needed for The New Illusion, will be stored for a future illusion.

Is it correct that this geographic area will be a junction of major energy lines?

This geographic area, the safe zone in which you find yourselves now, will house the master structure.

Did The Large Pyramid Have Any Equipment Or Accoutrements That Now Are Missing?

(June 04, 1991)

Nothing has been, as you would call it, stolen from the pyramids. Anything that is missing is by plan, that certain energies knew that they had a source to carry on their particular mission as they have come onto the earth plane since the beginning of this illusion, and that certain energy conductors and certain, what you would call, accoutrements of knowledge were available for particular energies who were given the information of their location and how to gain access to these particular tools. They were used to assist in the progression of the earth plane and have been used most frequently to fight off the periodic major attacks by the forces of dark.

When the entity Jesus was on the plane, during the time in which he spent in preparation for the pinnacle of his mission, he was with one of the major pyramids, as well as the master pyramid, and had been given the information from Amelius that this was where he would have the sources of the strength and the knowledge that would help him in his mission, and he was able to physically take with him certain concrete items that could no longer be left in the pyramid, for it was for his use and his use only. This was true of other concrete elements that were left by The Builders of the pyramids with their direct guidance and instruction from Amelius with designated names of energies, if you will, placed on them. There is one more container that will be utilized at the time of The Shift.

How long did Jesus possess these items? Was it short term? Did he have them the rest of his earthly time?

He needed them only for a short period of time during his preparation time, and he had them perhaps, as you would measure, in his teenage years, as best as we can relate to you time frame, during that time frame, and it was in this time that he traveled, by spirit of course, into other parts of the Planet Earth and connected with each of the twelve major pyramids. However, he was receiving his information from one of the major pyramids and from the master pyramids, those two pyramids. So, it was a relatively short period of time, at which point, upon completion of the gaining of the knowledge and the assistance and the energy, he was able to simply envision their dissolution, and they were no longer.

A Question About The Bermuda Triangle And Whether It Has Pyramids

(June 04, 1991)

There was an article in a paper saying there were two pyramids that were found in the Bermuda Triangle. Is there any credibility to that?

Those are energy sources, and this phenomenon that you call ~ most interesting ~ this Bermuda Triangle is as so many have already determined, an energy field. It is not, however, an area in which ~ it is not where hostile entities come in and snatch up others and take them away and never to be found again, you know. This is a topic for another session that we would have with you. It is not a hostile situation by any means at all. It is very much of the Light. What has been found are minor pyramid structures that are minor structures to the minor structures, if you follow what I say. They have significant types of energy that they are assigned in order to provide information where it is needed. They have been contributing to the work of this particular field of energy that is commonly referred to as the Bermuda Triangle.

What Is The Golden Mean?

(June 04, 1991)

Can you define the Golden Mean? It has to do with a mathematical logarithmic ratio and proportions.

Yes. To a rod of energy. Yes?

I am not familiar with the rod of energy. That is why I am asking.

Most interesting, for it is a mathematical ~ it refers to a rod of energy, and when we say rod it is used in a very broad context, that as it relates to the Energy Centers within the physical encasement and the Energy Centers of the twelve structures, there is a funnel of energy that goes from energy to energy, and what is inside this ~ you think of this tunnel of energy that goes around and around and around, that it is vacant within the inner structure, and this vacancy allows for opposite transference of energy. So that as the pyramids are giving out their energies and connecting with the Energy Centers of the physical encasement, the energy goes in one direction around and around this particular rod.

There are many energy connectors, but this particular one has a rod in its shape, and it is much like a tunnel, then, for it is ~ inside, it is open. What is allowed, then, is for the entity to send its own energy through the tunnel to connect, you see. It is a rather complex discussion that we would give and had been planning to give on another occasion when we talk about energy transference from structure to structure. We think that this is what you refer to, my love, when you speak of this name that you have given to it.

A Discussion Of Building The Pyramids Through Mind Power (June 04, 1991)

I recently had a discussion with someone about pyramids. This man said to me that at that time, they thought the world was flat. Also, he was surprised that that people still think they were built rather than through mind power.

Yes. It was really a very difficult process. It is not quite as easy as it might appear to be when you speak of construction via the mind. It is not as easy as it appears. And, again, that will be discussed in more depth. We have given out basic information quite some time ago on construction of the structures from illusion to illusion, and that it is a power that is given to those who agree to be The Builders that is only temporary for the construction of the structures, and that there must be a very high spiritual commitment by The Builders, for it is a very strong power, and ~ but, again, we will discuss this in greater detail. It is a point in each illusion where the famous battle between the dark and Light occurs during the construction of new structures.

And so, we will discuss it more and more, as you become adjusted to information that we give to you now, and as the major inhabitants of the earth plane who need this information, whether it comes from our source or from others who are giving information from within, as all of you on the plane adjust to the information, then we are able, then, to give out more information to build upon that which we have given out now.

There Will Be A Discovery In A Major Pyramid Of An Energy Form From The Mineral Kingdom
(June 04, 1991)

Have you all satisfied your questions for now? There will be one particular ~ from The Mineral Kingdom that will become closely aligned with the new structures that is currently a part of the pyramid structures and will remain in The New Illusion, but will take on a new form, and that will become evident very shortly on the plane. There will be a so-called discovery in one of the major pyramids of an energy form from The Mineral Kingdom. It will be that discovery, for we allow it to be discovered, that will begin certain energy transferences, and it will become rather well known on the plane that this from The Mineral Kingdom has been found and there will be great wonderment at what its purpose was and great discussions, and you heard it here first! ☺

Can we find any of those in Enfield?

That is for another discussion. And you know that we do not give out predictions very, very frequently, and we do not do it lightly. There is a reason why we give you this information now. That will become clear to those who need to have it be clear to them. For those who do not need to have it be clear to them it will not matter.

The Significance Of The Number Twelve, The Pyramids, And Timing of The Shift

You talk about dates, and not giving out dates, and yet I was just listening to a tape where the date 1212 was mentioned as a time of world ascension? And I wonder if you could speak on that. And also, twelve was mentioned a lot, or multiples of twelves, and that I think it was said that twelve ~ the number twelve would connect into the vibration of Earth? And what does that mean?

The number twelve is a vibrational number. We have discussed this in a session quite a while ago regarding the twelve builders currently on the earth plane who are charged with the responsibility of constructing the new structures that will replace the twelve major pyramids that currently exist on the earth plane. The twelve builders will select twelve who will select twelve. It is the way in which the vibrational webbing is maintained for the earth plane. The current vibration of the earth plane is held together, shall we say, by the energy that was put in place ten thousand years ago when this illusion that you are currently in was new.

The pyramids, the twelve major pyramids, and untold numbers of minor pyramids, store energy and store knowledge and are vibrationally attuned to keep the illusion together, essentially. With The Shift of the earth plane, of the planet itself, the pyramids are going to then dissolve as the new structures are constructed. The new structures will be in different locations around the physical planet than the current pyramids. There are twelve. The area in which you are now located, and part of the responsibility of Terra Lux, is the construction of one of those structures.

Part of the mission of Terra Lux and part of our mission is to aid in the vibrational changes coming with The Shift. This geographical area is one of those areas that is part of the webbing outline, if you will. There will be twelve who will be assisting Mushiba in the construction at the time of The Shifting. It takes place very, very quickly. So that twelve is very significant, and there has been a rather consistent flow of information from many different dimensions ~ that are giving information now ~ that hold with the number twelve. It is one of the few consistencies, if you will.

In terms of giving dates, we do not give dates. We find that because of the way in which energy moves, that to be so specific can be dangerous on the earth plane. We have said, for example, that The Shifting of the axis will occur plus or minus four years, the year 2000, but it could be anywhere from four years prior to this 2000 or four years after the year 2000, or any variation in there.

The danger in giving a specific date ~ and we have said this before also, because your question has been posed in another time ~ if the event does not occur on that exact date, then much skepticism builds up, and that is fine. What is going to occur is going to occur, whether entities believe it or not. It is not our concern that they know an exact date, for to give any exact date from our perspective is impossible. We are only able to judge our time, for example, with you in this session because of our timekeeper here. And otherwise, we would not have any idea about what you call time, even though we try to narrow it, as best as we can based on flows of energy.

We do not render any negative response to those who would give dates, for lessons to be learned are at issue here. Some entities are indeed given information from a particular level of awareness, that may in fact have a date, for they have perhaps not learned the hard way, as we have, that giving dates is not a good policy if one speaks from a dimension other than the earth plane. But this is how all who give information from other dimensions learn. Audiences who hear them are meant to hear them and are meant to respond, and that that is all right. And it is all right that if the date is not correct, that the source of that information is not given negative responses, for sources of information give you their information based on their levels of awareness. That is what they know.

We give you information based on our level of awareness, which is a very high level. It is not the highest level. Amelius is the highest level outside of The One for our chain of command, if you will. And thus, we have, if you will, our own limitations. But the more that we know for information, the more we know we do not know, and the more we are careful of giving certain kinds of specifics. For understand that the earth as a physical encasement, and the earth as an energy, and the earth as a training ground, has a soul and has its own consciousness. And just as each of you can change your mind, so can the earth.

Now, the earth is cleaning itself. When it is going to complete that is entirely up to it. It has said from an energy perspective when it plans to do the final cleansing, which is what your frame of reference knows as The Shifting of the Axis. It has given that information to The Universal Consciousness. And The Universal Consciousness then has responded in its own way by providing assistance, for example, in the form of twelve builders who will be on alert and ready to respond to the earth when the call comes for protection of the energy of the earth. Do you understand?

Twelve twelve, eleven eleven, ten ten, nine nine, they are numbers. For some they are significant vibrationally, and we would not deride in any way an entity's reliance on numbers and the vibrational significance to the life of an entity. Each has its own point on the path, EACH ENERGY, and each level of awareness is unique to each entity.

Did you say the pyramids, the twelve pyramids, are physical or not physical?

The twelve major pyramids are physical and also contain the nonconcrete component that is part of the webbing of energy that surrounds the earth plane ~ so it is a combination. The concreteness of it is necessary for the frame of reference on a concrete training ground, such as the earth plane, to understand that energy does not need a physical structure in order to exist. Energy can simply exist as energy. However, it is boring that way, you see, and thus, energy likes to go into encasements, and in this case, the pyramid is one such encasement for it.

And it then takes on experiences and it has a purpose. It has a mission. And the pyramids, or structures like the pyramids, exist for every one of the illusions that are part of the earth plane portfolio. For the past two illusions, you have had the shape of pyramids. For the illusion about to come, it will be a different shape, and we have not given the exact shape of that. While we have alluded to it, we have not given the exact shaping of the new structures. However, it will not be in a pyramid shape. It will be something that has been determined already by the earth itself to be vibrationally correct for it. It is much like buying a new item of clothing for your body. You choose something new to wear, and so the earth chooses a new way to surround its energy field, a new look if you will.

The pyramids that exist now, we can see them, and touch them, since they are concrete. And they are in twelve different locations around the earth?

Indeed.

Do we know where those twelve locations are?

Not all twelve. You know where some of them are.

Do they have a name?

Some of them do. Some of them you are very familiar with, as they are what you call tourist attractions. Some which you think of as tourist attractions are not the master pyramids ~ the twelve being the master pyramids ~ but rather, the minor pyramids, nonetheless, all part of the energy connection.

Can you give us one name?

Oh, that is too easy, my love, because you can look that up in an encyclopedia under pyramid.

Oh, you mean you are talking about the pyramids.

Indeed. Yes. You see, you do not need an Angelic to give you those names. You already have them. Yes, you see. Use us for more advanced information.

I read that they have found a body in one of the pyramids down in South America, and you said that they would be finding some bodies.

Yes?

I am just saying you said it first. 😊

Oh, indeed.

When you say we know some of them already, are you implying that there are some that we do not know?

I am not implying it at all. I am actually stating it.

Well, they are on the earth, and they have not been discovered because they are in some remote area?

"They have not been discovered," as you would say, quote unquote, for it was not their purpose to be a focus of attention. Some of the others that are very well known have as part of their path to be well known, just as some of you are well known and some of you are shy and retiring, and yet you all have a very specific purpose. No entity is more important than another entity. You only have different levels of awareness, but you are all equally important ~ we all are, as energies. And thus, the pyramids are all of equal importance, but some have different missions, and even though one of the pyramids that is a master pyramid, is a master, does not mean that it wants to be showy about it, you see. Some masters are showy and some masters are not. It depends on their style. It depends on their mission. It depends on their path. And that will also hold true for the new structures.

There will be some that will be very, very well known, just as the pyramids. They will have visitors and people climbing through them and around them, and around them, and others where no one will know that they are even in existence.

The pyramids now that are not well known, are they known locally, just to local people, or they totally remote and no one even notices that they are there?

Yes, and no. It is situational. Situational.
