

Mission Unfulfilled? Look More Closely

Mushiba: Many people are stumbling around with no sense of direction ~ feeling that their life's Mission is Unfulfilled. Years ago, I felt that way until a series of events brought me to a point of awareness of my mission in this life. Waith has counseled us about this sensation of a Mission Unfulfilled:

Question: “Quite a while ago I had an experience that had a profound effect on me. Since that time, I have had a sense that I can't seem to determine my mission.”

Waith: “You have been on a mission ~ it is just that it is a minor mission. Your major mission cannot be accomplished until your minor one is ~ which is true for all energies. This experience was necessary as your Soul knew you were becoming bogged down in the minor mission and that it had a major mission to accomplish. Thus, your Soul decided to do some shaking up of the consciousness which is the reason this incident occurred.

“Do not be distressed or feel that you are not moving along as you need to, for you are opening up Self now to the kinds of information that are necessary for you. It would be beneficial to seek your Higher Self. Simply find a way in which you can bring stillness to your mind, quiet Self, and concentrate on your body and what it is telling you ~ and then your Soul will begin to speak to you.”

I believe that we are living our mission every moment of every day ~ whether we consciously know what that mission is or not. And each Minor Mission is, indeed, part of our Major Mission. I am not concerned whether my mission is Major or Minor ~ it just is.

Our Soul speaks to us ~ we just need to actively listen and Relax about it! And as we listen to our Soul, remember to: Focus on Lightheartedness and the Spreading of Light!
