Waith Talks Of The Other Six In His Spirit Group And Their Acclimation To Channelling

We know that there are many among you who are curious about the, shall we say, personalities of those who make up The Spirit Group of Waith and Company, and that there have been questions that you have had that you wondered who was answering the question, even though it was coming from me. As I had indicated some time ago, the other six who work with me are in training modes, if you will, and are looked to for answers, even though they do not give the answers themselves.

There has been a period of, shall we say, familiarization with the earth plane in this process known as channelling. They have been trying to accustom themselves to the inherent difficulties that go with interpretation of information from this plane to your plane, and part of their learning is to in fact do this. The difficulties, for example, that we have in pinpointing time, as you would like it to be categorized, is only one of the areas of which I speak.

We thought for this session if any of you had a specific question you wanted to ask we would then address it. We would give it to the appropriate energy form here and let the energy form come through and answer themselves to the question. Some of you, of course, know of the identities. Five of the six have been identified. The sixth is yet to be identified. The time is not yet for that.

So, knowing the identity and that there are some specific missions that a couple of them have, we have of course agreed with Mushiba to allow one of the others to come through during this session and speak with you. It will be for a short period of time for Mushiba's physical body is undergoing some changes coupled with her inopportune time of catching what is called a virus. We are not able to stop some things, and there are reasons why, as you all know, illnesses are taken on in the body form. So we would be most pleased, all of us, including Mushiba, to take a question or two and then, depending upon what your question is, will determine who will come through. I will still be here. I will simply move over in the vibrational field and allow another energy to come in. At the conclusion I will return to bid you farewell and give you my blessing.

The Importance Of Truly Learning Lessons In Order To Obtain A Physical Healing

To Jacques: I asked the healing of the lower back of (name withheld). Do you believe that the healing we did last week will be successful, or will there be other healing necessary?

Jacques: The issue of healing with the laying on of hands, there is much involved in this issue that relates more to desires to transmit energies between the sender and the receiver. It is not so simple a task as to simply touch and heal. There must be a reciprocal agreement at some level. It need not be at the earth plane level, and many times is not, but rather at a Higher Level where the Soul connects with the vibrational patterns of the sender. In your particular case, you have the high vibrational patterns to heal. You know this. The healing of this entity is more complicated than simply your wanting to heal her. (Jacques speaks to the person directly) My dear, do you want to be healed?

I think so.

Jacques: You think so. You see, this is the crux of the problem, not to be taken lightly. We all take various paths in our incarnations, and it is not always that we want to be healed at the earth plane level. The answer given, my dear, is a typical earth plane response, for the Soul, at this time, is not certain if the lessons have been fully learned. There is a sense that the lesson has been learned, but you want to make certain that it has so that you do not have to repeat it ever again. If you were to be healed now, your soul is saying that it is perhaps too soon. You have not had this lesson long enough. While you would like to be healed and can in fact receive relief from the vibrational patterns of this healer, you need to hold onto this lesson for somewhat longer.

But it will eventually be possible to get rid of the pain?

Jacques: If you so choose to do so. You see, you have learned your lesson, but now you want to make certain that you have indeed learned it. You are not fully confident in your own strength and have a somewhat tentative feeling of relapse that the lesson, if the pain goes away, would not have in fact been learned, and you would regress into that situation that caused you to take on the pain in the first place. Do you understand this?

Very well.

Jacques: I knew you would. It can be detrimental to have a forcing of healing. (Jacques speaks to the healer) I speak to you of this as well, as to many others who are developing their healing abilities. And there are several of you in this room who have this ability that is blossoming. It is a tremendous responsibility. You must not force it onto anyone. You will know, for the Soul will touch the Soul of sender and receiver. You will know, for example, if you were to go into, shall we say, a hospital and went into a room of people, you would know who at the Soul Level would be reciprocal to your healing and it would be done. This is not to say, though, that you cannot use your healing to ease somewhat the physical pain or the emotional pain. You may not cure, as we would say, but there would be an alleviation of the discomfort level and this in many cases serves a most useful purpose.

So in a case like mine that could happen as well.

Jacques: Yes, indeed and has.

And then it would come back, and I would ask for that again without giving up the whole thing?

Jacques: That is correct. Do not feel guilt about this or pressure to give it up. You may decide not to give it up at all in this lifetime. You may decide to keep it completely to make certain that you have in fact learned this lesson. Waith is saying that I must leave the vibration now for the energy expended has been great, and there are still some cellular changes that are being worked on with Mushiba. We do not want to short-circuit her. Well.

Thank you, Jacques. We are speechless.

Waith: Yes. This response has taken us all by surprise, and we are feeling quite happy. If there is what can be called a warm fuzzy feeling, we have it. ☺ Yes, indeed. We are ready to answer perhaps a couple of questions. This type of energy expenditure still has a particular effect upon Mushiba, which will not be for much longer. She will be able to accommodate it with the strength that is needed. So we anticipate perhaps time for one or two questions, not of course of a personal nature, but concerns of a Universal nature that we might address.

Why Do We Cry When We See Such Beauty? Is It From Happiness?

It is an earth plane phenomenon. It is something that goes with the physical body that is taken on in this particular dimension. In other dimensions we have other ways of expressing emotion. And know, please, that emotion does exist at all dimensions. It just is at a different attunement. There are many who would think that energies at our level in our dimension are so evolved that there is no emotion. This is not true. You see, emotion is a very important part of the path. Love, Unconditional Love, is the ultimate emotion of the most beautiful state.

When on the earth plane you are feeling happy, there is a gathering of not only physical body chemicals but a spiritual dimension that comes together in a form that gives you a feeling of sweeping through you, a security, a happiness, if you would want to use that word. It is for you to enjoy, for you to remember, because when the times are just the opposite, when you are feeling unhappy and distressed, and have the very opposite feeling in your body, you have something to hold onto in memory, for when things have been good, and something to grasp to so that when things are not good for you, you will not despair. You will remember the feeling and attempt to replicate that feeling over and over again.

It Is Very Healthy For The Human Body To Release Tears

It just seems strange, though. When you are sad, you cry. When you are happy, you cry, the same.

Yes, but entirely different feelings. It is a body chemistry that comes together. It is very healthy for the human body to release tears, as they are called. It is very unhealthy to not do this. The human body, on a periodic basis, needs to have this release and if it does not occur, then there develops a blockage, an actual physical blockage in the body that then begins to translate itself at the spiritual level. Anyone who never cries is blocking certain things. The release is very healthy. Never be ashamed of the tears. We know that as things exist now on the earth plane, tears are considered a weakness. Know that this has not always been true, and in fact in a spiritually evolved society quite the opposite is true. Tears are encouraged and are a sign of strength.

Other Sources ~ Apparitions of Mary, Medjugorje ~ Virgin Mary, Bayside, NY

I have a question about the apparitions of Mary in Medjugorje versus the apparitions of Mary, the Blessed Virgin, in New York, in the Bay area, Bayside. Now this question that I have is twofold. Mary is saying that there is heaven, hell, and purgatory and that many people today do not go to heaven, they go to purgatory. And this seems to be adverse to what I am reading and hearing ~ hearing from you and reading in books. Could you just quickly answer that question?

The answer to this question, dear, is the same as I have responded to other questions relating to the kinds of information that are coming through. And I will refer you, and perhaps you could read this particular session where I address the issue of groups of people needing certain types of information or understanding. You will have exposure to much information. Some of it will seem very simplistic to you and other information will seem very overwhelming to you. But that there are groups of people on the earth plane to whom this information is specifically addressed, and it will have relevance to them and meaning to them for their understanding of The Universe.

To describe The Universe in terms of heaven, hell, and purgatory is meant for those who have an elementary understanding of the Universal Forces. As an understanding of The Universe becomes more in depth, being to see the far greater focus of what these words mean, they are simply allegorical. And there are individuals who understand this and can relate it to their own lives and in where they are in their own evolution. There are many who, when hearing these descriptions, recognize them for their simplicity, recognize them for the beginnings, much as a beginning textbook in school on a particular subject where you are being introduced to the subject matter. And as you learn the basic concepts of the subject matter you are then introduced to Higher Concepts. The beginning concepts seem like child's play. When the entity Jesus was on the earth plane he used what were called parables to explain certain Universal Truths. This is quite similar to that.

Are The Apparitions In Bayside In New York Valid?

Yes, they are. They are valid.

Are Ufos Valid?

The subject of UFOs, as you refer to them, is quite complex, and is not answered quickly. What we will say is that energy forms from other planets are indeed manifesting themselves on this dimension. Nonetheless, it is far more complex than simply to say yes, they are valid, as they are indeed valid. But it is a very interesting weave of life paths that will be discussed at some future time when we feel certain subject areas are ready to be heard. We are at an introductory level now. There is much to tell you and we have much time to do it. There is no rush, if you will, to do this. Yes, and you do see them, my dear. But you have not recognized them. They do not come in little spaceships colored green. ☺ They are manifesting themselves in many ways.

A Discussion Of Various Training Grounds For Energy Forms

Are all the people that are on the earth plane from the earth plane?

You must know that all energy forms are in other dimensions. The earth plane is only one of the dimensions available, so that all energy forms have spent times on other planets. And those on other planets may not, though, have spent time on the earth plane, but eventually, may come onto the earth plane. It is of their choosing. There has been a multidisciplinary focus here. There is, where the earth plane is concerned, not something that is strictly earth plane, for the earth plane is the most intensive of the training grounds for energies. And not every energy form comes onto the earth plane. We are all One Energy.

Yes, it is most curious, this fascination that the earth plane has with things unexplained. The amount of knowledge that those on the earth plane have is so infinitesimal to the greater knowledge that it cannot even be discussed. But that is the purpose of the earth plane as a training ground. It is set up that way. We will not go into any more depth in that area at this point.

I do not want to leave you in the session feeling frustrated and overwhelmed. We want to leave you with a happy feeling, for you have made us all very happy in this session. Jacques' Light is a bit brighter now as a result of what has occurred. He is feeling confident in his abilities to serve as a spokesman for the group, on occasion, to come through. We thank you for that.
