A Discussion Of The Easter Season

We are aware of the time now on the earth plane that is in preparation for the celebration of the sacrifice that the entity Jesus gave. And we are most pleased at the attunement of so many souls currently on the earth plane who take this time to meditate and to pray for the uplifting of not only themselves but of those around them. Amelius, as is referred to in the information that has come through from other sources before I, is the beginnings of the condition known as human, and it is His Kingdom of which I am a part.

There Are Many Different Kingdoms Having Distinct Responsibilities, With Much Order

There are many kingdoms, each having distinct responsibilities for various planes, and the developments that occur on those planes, the earth plane being only one of many hundreds of thousands of planes. The number is overwhelming for understanding for most. The earth plane has its own set of developments, and the energy forms who were charged with its development are headed by Amelius, as the energy form has been named. I report directly to Amelius.

There are times when you have all asked for information regarding someone whom you love or someone of whom you would like to know their whereabouts, their safety, or whatever. There are times, and there will be many other times coming, when the particular energy form of whom you speak is under the jurisdiction of another kingdom, and therefore I must make connections with my counterpart in another kingdom.

It is all very ordered here, and every plane has an order to it, a kingdom. All the kingdoms are connected. We are not separate from each other. We simply have different orders depending on the plane. Some of the planes are in lower vibrations. We have spoken of The Animal Kingdom that is one of those kingdoms, The Plant Kingdom, and other planes that you also will go to in learning and making your way toward The Creative Force. You can go from one kingdom to the other. You do not need a passport, so to speak.

When you have completed a particular experience on the earth plane, you can go into another plane at a parallel level, and therefore be a part of another hierarchy of order. When you come onto the earth plane you are under the guidance and protection of myself and all those charged with me. It is quite logical, and as you ascend in a particular plane to higher levels you then will go into higher levels in other kingdoms that correspond to the level that you currently are in, and the ascension continues until you are One.

Amelius, charged with the overseeing of the earth plane, has the ability to merge with The Creator and to reemerge. And all those in other kingdoms that are his counterpart, for He is a male energy, this particular one ~ , Amelius, ~ also have this ability to merge.

We refer to Him as a male energy, for a female part has another role. They are One, but separate, just as all energy forms have a counterpart, and for clarification from this end, in our explanations to you of Universal Laws, we have found it easier for your understanding to refer to the male and female, to make that distinction, thus use of the male gender.

He is with us now in the vibration, and there is much rejoicing at the acceleration of advancement that is occurring on the earth plane, this in spite of what many may feel to be true. He has joined us. It is always so beyond what words can describe. You see, language is so limiting ~ what His vibration does when it is here as it is now. He has very close connections with several of the vibrations that are here now, and there is a renewing.

He is most beautiful. He is requesting that all of you, in your efforts to raise the attunements, take this time that approaches that represents time He spent on the wooden crucifix, this time period, and that you take this time to meditate in whatever form has become comfortable for you. Do not speak or engage in any activities, and as you spend this time in your meditations alone with your own consciousness, visualize Light and keep in your mind the phrase, "He is of the Highest Light", and continue thinking this phrase throughout your meditations, "He is of the Highest Light." And from now until you leave the earth plane, each of you, and those who will read the transcript of this information, should do this on the anniversary of this celebration each time it occurs. And as your vibration increases, so too will its effect upon those around you have as you meditate each anniversary.

Amelius Enters And Sends His Blessing

He asks now that you all join vibrations by holding hands, for He sends to you soon a blessing. There must be a holding of all hands. There must not be any break. (Everyone holds hands) This must occur so that all begin now to think of the Highest of the White Light. Visualize, my children, the Light that is so bright. Call upon your inner sources. Visualize the beauty that is your soul, each of you so beautiful, so bright in your own Light, and reflect in this Light that is your uniqueness, and call upon the love that is you, that is capable of breaking through the darkest of the dark if you only allow it. Amelius sends the energy. (A wave of energy and love is felt by everyone. Waith's hands are held up with palms facing those gathered and-he is trembling). Blessings come to you directly from the Highest of the White Light. (Spoken in a low, emphatic voice) He sends it through the very loving vibration, one of his longtime companions.

It is completed. We have completed what we were here for in this session. The energy is such that comes through that it does some realigning of the physical cells of Mushiba. It has permanently altered them.

We will leave you now. We wish you to reflect upon the Love that comes from the Highest and the part that you all play in this love, to carry the warmth of the energy that has come through as the time approaches, for the next short time frame on the earth plane should be spent cultivating more this love that has been sent to you from Amelius. Use it as a tool to help others and to understand others, to love them.

It is now time that I depart. For our next session we will have a larger group of vibrations assembled. They will be drawn here because of your own vibrations. Protect yourselves in this manner when you feel the darkness encompassing you in these days to come. (Waith puts both hands over his head with the fingers touching and pointing up) It is a part of the vibration that comes from the pyramids, and you can use your own hands to simulate the vibration that will keep the energy that has been sent to you from Amelius. This energy will last through the time that is referred to as Easter.

I, your humble servant, bid you farewell for now and will be with you as you encompass the energy from Amelius will help you. You may call upon me. I am here for all of you.
