Multiple Lives And Parallel Lives, Part I

We have been investigating certain areas for discussion for you, knowing that there are certain areas of concern that seem to dominate in your world now. And we understand that the entire discussion of what we would refer to as multiple lives, and often is referred to as reincarnation by many on the earth plane, is greatly misunderstood.

And so often, as you, who are finding your paths and traveling along, and opening up your own awarenesses, begin to talk with others about your new-found knowledge, and the excitement with which you find yourselves with these new awarenesses, and wanting to share these awarenesses with those around you, and that many will say to you, "Well, what are you, someone who believes in this reincarnation?" And immediately you feel a defense mechanism go up perhaps just by the tone of voice so often, or a particular book that is given to you by a soul who has not remembered from other times and is not as open in this manifestation as you might be, and you therefore feel so often at a loss as to what to say to these individuals.

Many times we realize you find yourselves in a position of defense for your beliefs and, in fact, not being able to adequately discuss what is perceived as this reincarnation ~ or, as we would like you all to begin really thinking of it, multiple lives, for reincarnation is an earth term that by its definition currently existing on the plane limits the true scope of the process and needs to have some expansion in regards to your own understanding, and therefore, how you might begin to explain to others what this process is all about, for there has been much misinformation over the many, many years in the current phase of the earth plane since the last cleansing, of interpretations of this process.

As happens so very often, a concept gets changed as time goes on as one generation of souls interprets and things begin to get a little muddled. It is a very complex process as is everything that occurs, as many of you are beginning to realize, that there is nothing simple in The Universe. It is simply levels of complexity that, as you open up your own awarenesses, you gain greater insights and become more closely aligned to the entire picture.

It is important, therefore, to begin to discuss some basic concepts regarding multiple lives. We will introduce you to these concepts during this session, and we will allow enough time so there can be a discussion and an interaction from those of you who might like to ask the questions. And we will continue, as we see fit, to add to the discussions and eventually to have presented to you as much as we feel you would be able to understand at this point in time, and then as awarenesses begin to increase, so too will the knowledge be given. So.

Multiple Lives, Part I. ☺ ☺ It begins at the beginning, which has no beginning. How is that for a beginning? ☺ It begins when each of the energy forms, all of us, for we are all One, spring forth from The Creative Force, attached, of course, by the very thin, thin cord I have described before. And each energy form has as its objective to grow and to learn and to return eventually to the One.

All Energy Forms Are Connected ~ Light And Dark ~ All Are Connected

What seems to be lost in the understanding is that all energy forms are connected. We have indicated this before, and we will reemphasize it now in this discussion, for it has significance and is basic to an understanding of multiple lives. The connectedness, no matter how fine-tuned it may appear to be and so distant it may appear to be to some energy forms, is nonetheless present at all times. Even those who we would refer to as being in the ultimate darkness, at that end of The Spectrum of Light and dark, are all connected. It is all connection. And certain energy forms are given from The Creative Force, very specific roles, and various Kingdoms are then assigned to energy forms. And know that this coming and going occurs constantly. It is a continuous process.

There are energy forms as we now speak who are bursting forth from The Oneness about to take on their task. And as you know from previous discussions of The Angelic Force, it is a very specific assignment that is given. And there are many of The Angelic Force, for example, who were assigned to this position, have never been in any other manifestations, except for some who may on occasion materialize for purposes of delivering messages. Recorded history documents those types of occurrences. However, there are the majority in The Angelic Force who have not gone through the process of birth to come onto the earth plane, so they have their very specific assignments, and the lessons that they need to learn are very specific and may, of course, be different from lessons that other groups and energy forms must tackle, nonetheless no more difficult or no less difficult, simply different.

So there are Kingdoms or roles that energy forms are assigned, and each of these areas has a way in which growth can occur. There are millions upon millions, billions would be a better definition for you, of energy forms who will never come onto the earth plane, for their path takes them to other dimensions, other planets ~ planets that you are not aware exist, for they are not necessary to be known. They are in other parts of The Universe.

And thus you begin your travel upon a path, and you have laid out for you those issues that you need to work on, those types of strengthening and growth that you choose to work upon, for you have left The Creative Force willingly. It is all a part of the fun of it, you see. ☺ It is not that you were thrown out of The Oneness. That did not occur. It simply was that it is all a game, my dear friends. It really is. It is quite fun. We know that when you are embodied on the earth plane in those horrible little shells that you really do not believe me!

No. 😊😊

And you think, "No. This is not real what he says, and I do not want to leave this body even though I do not like it, and I do not know what is coming next, and this is terrible, such long time." Or some of you, just the opposite, feel, "Oh, I love this little body. I do not want to ever leave." Many do whatever they can to avoid the leaving because they have become so attached.

Understand, first of all, that all of this is what you might look at as ~ I am trying to pull an analogy for you of games that you play on the earth plane that might ~ oh, it is all much like this game called Chess where you are out to play to others and conquer somebody else and become king of the mountain, so to speak.

And it becomes clear as you come closer to your own heightening of awarenesses that it is not this Chess game, but rather something that you are interconnected with every other energy form. You begin then to take on a different perspective. It is then that your progression changes and you begin to realize that you are a part of this total by choice, so that the Whole can be made stronger, not weaker, for when the initial bursting out from The Oneness occurs there is a sense of independence, and the sense of independence is what has become confused in the minds of many currently on the earth plane, and their understanding of how The Universe works. The independence is a part of the whole process, -that feeling of independence is necessary, for it serves as a motivator. It serves to exhilarate each energy form, to begin this process of strengthening, and depending on the Kingdom in which you begin, will determine where you will go in various dimensions.

Now the earth plane is used by several kingdoms as a training ground and is set up with various types of experiences specifically geared to those issues that need to be resolved. Included on The Earth Plane Kingdom are various other planets, some of which you are already aware that circle the physical earth itself. When energy forms manifest on those other planets it is in a form different from that on the earth plane, Planet Earth. And then, of course, there are a myriad of other dimensions that have within them levels, which have levels within them, which have levels within them, to which you aspire as you move along.

Now, the purpose of the energy form, each of you, each of us, is to brighten and strengthen. You all begin with a basic degree of brightness, and once separated from The Creator, free will is instilled, becomes a part of the energy form. This is necessary so that the games can be played and the fun can be had. For you see, if we did not do this, we would really all be rather bored, for what would we do if we did not continually play?

Free Will Becomes Part Of The Energy Form ~ And Then There Are Testings

And so the free will, therefore, gives to each energy form the right to go in whatever direction they choose, and as happens so often, energy forms begin to choose areas that are not for their growth, for you see, those areas are presented at all dimensions, not just the earth plane, but in every dimension, in every level.

Depending on what is defined for lessons in a particular level, the tests are given, so that the free will can be exercised, and therefore you choose to go ahead, to stay where you are, or to move backward, if that is the best way to describe it ~ becoming lighter, staying the same shade, or getting darker. And that remains until the next test is given, and each test that is given to you is an opportunity to make that same decision ~ lighter, same shade, darker. Easy. ☺

And you then begin to say to The Universal Forces at that level in which you are, how often you want your tests. If you are happy at a particular level of brightness for the time being you say, "Do not send me any tests. I do not even want to have to exercise my free will." And this is fine. And then when you are ready, you simply say, "All right. Send me a test." So the test is sent and you have the opportunity to make your decision. And so, you can move forward, back, stay the same. And you can move forward a few little tests, and then decide something comes along, and you decide, "Um", and you move back and you move forward and you rest. It is a continual thing.

Even the brightest of you when faced with a test will move back. ☺ It is all right. You see. It is all right. There is no pressure here. The only pressure is what you place upon your own soul, what your soul says, "Well, I have decided that I want to get back to The Creator in X amount of millennia". And so, decides to just take on all of these tests and move along and do all that, and actually those souls are rather boring because they just keep moving ahead and they just begin to take themselves so seriously. And they are no fun. ☺

We all like to play, you see, and all of the tests are brought on by each soul. It is a game that they have decided to play. And many souls choose to play the same games, and therefore they have many companions. So many of you are playing the game of ~ TEST MY PATIENCE ~ TEST MY SENSE OF WANTING CONTROL ~ TEST MY SENSE OF JUDGEMENTS TOWARD OTHERS. And so, many of you jump in to play the same game, and therefore can help each other, or you can choose not to help each other, and in fact not help and be a hindrance.

Laws Of The Universe ~ The Angelic Force Charged With Keeping The Order

Now, there are certain rules, however, and as many of you already know, the phrase that is so used on the earth plane is THE RULES OF THE UNIVERSE, THE LAWS OF THE UNIVERSE PREVAIL, and there are very SPECIFIC LAWS OF THE UNIVERSE. Now, the Laws of The Universe are meant to give some structure to the play time, to the playing that occurs, and to help keep things in order, for there is a very, very organized sense of order here in The Universe, and there are certain of us who are charged with keeping the order. When the children begin to get out of hand we are here to lend assistance, to guide, to serve as messengers.

The Angelic Force has as its sole mission to Be of Service and to make certain that the Laws of The Universe are understood and to help energy forms to abide by the Laws of The Universe, for it is in the ultimate interest that your free will be given to The Universe, for the ultimate control for each of you in your own lives is giving up control to The Universe and allowing those tests that you bring upon yourself to be met with whatever capabilities you have, rather than forcing and saying when a test presents itself, "Oh, this is a test. Now, what am I going to do? What does this mean?" and spending all of your time and energy analyzing it. ☺ Rather, simply, without even discussion, recognize that it is a test that you have asked for and that you will simply flow with the understanding of it and looking at your past behaviors to learn from.

All of these kinds of behaviors occur in every dimension that exist. The earth plane, since you are all in it now, will be easier for you to understand in my descriptions than for me to describe some other dimension that you would have no reference point of understanding, to visualize. So, you choose to enter the earth plane, and refer back to my other discussions on what comprises the earth plane. It is much more than just Planet Earth. When you come onto the earth plane, you begin a series of manifestations that can take as long as you want it to take, and can entail as many different manifestations, roles, as you want it to.

There Are Certain Rules For Entry Onto The Earth Plane

There are certain rules for entry onto the earth plane. Before you begin your first life manifestation on the earth plane, you are given the pros and cons of it. You do not have to come onto the earth plane. It is, as I have said before, an accelerated training ground and one that has its frustrations and has its joys, all part of the choice that you make. Once you have chosen to come onto the earth plane, there is no turning back. You cannot say after one or two, or one hundred or two hundred lives here, "I do not like this place anymore, and I am not going to come back." You can't do that. You can choose to have many, many years, hundreds, even thousands of earth plane-time years between manifestations. It simply means, though, that you are delaying the eventual, for the earth plane always has been. and always will be.

As I have said earlier, every six to ten thousand of the earth plane years, there is a cleansing, and we start all over again, and the earth, of course, being of a higher vibration each time. And so, when deciding to come onto the earth plane there is almost what you would call a contract that is entered into with The Universe, and you understand. It is spelled out to you, that there are a whole series of lessons that the earth plane provides for you to learn. You see now these lessons. You can decide ahead of time. Each dimension has, as I said earlier, its own set of lessons to be learned that all will get you back to the One eventually, and so with your, figuratively speaking, eyes wide open, you enter into a contract.

The Analogy Of The Toy Box, Where All Your Lessons Are Placed

And if you will recall from my earlier times, I have described it, this process of lessons, as a giant Toy Box in which all the lessons are placed, and your goal is to empty the Toy Box. And so you know ahead of time, and you enter onto the earth plane, and it is then that some of the difficulties occur, for the earth plane is specifically set up to entrap, and that is known ahead of time. You know that.

I had a great battle with Mushiba about this about a million years ago. ☺ She knew that in order to achieve what we had in mind for her that she would have to go through the accelerated training grounds of the earth plane, and we had great debates. She did not want to come onto the earth plane. She has not liked any moment on the earth plane, and I am sure many of you would commiserate with her in this area. ☺ Nonetheless, knowing of the entrapments that usually occur, it is all part of the strengthening, you see. You are all very special and unique souls, for you have taken on the challenge of the earth plane. There are billions and billions who are doing things in other dimensions. They are not doing the earth plane.

So then what begins to happen, of course, as all of you know, is that you become trapped. You begin to become attached to those physical manifestations on the earth plane, the material. You begin to have interactions with other souls, other souls who have free will who may be responding to certain issues in one way that are different to the way you are responding. You begin to build up all of these behaviors, these responses, that occur only in the manifestation on the earth plane and that need then to be worked out from life to life with certain energy forms who you become connected with. Sometimes these energy forms are those who you have made connections with prior to entry onto the earth plane initially, and also energy forms who you become acquainted with once you have manifested.

Parallel Lives, Lifelines ~ The Ability To Manifest In Different Places At The Same Time

Now, I am going to give you one particular point here, then we will continue our discussion of it at another time, for I know that there are many questions that you have. It is important for you all to know that as energy forms, you have the ability to manifest in different places at the same time, and the more you are advanced, the greater the ability to disperse your energies and to do it in various ways.

There is a concept that has already been presented on your memory banks, if you will, and in the knowledge that is currently available on the earth plane. There are many who are beginning to discuss this, and it is what is referred to as parallel lives in which your own energy form is, in fact, manifesting in some other part of the earth plane, be it Planet Earth or another part of the earth plane simultaneously. Not all energy forms choose to do this. It is an opportunity for those who do choose to take this path to truly accelerate. It is acceleration on an already accelerated plane.

Now, when an energy form decides that they will do parallel lives, and a good estimate is perhaps twenty-five percent of all energy forms decide to take this path, the issue of multiple lives then becomes rather interesting, for you might think of it as two or three different kinds of lifelines, each having their own set of lessons being learned, and energy forms interacting with almost as if it were two or three or four different lives that have their own little stories, and each has their own set of manifestations, you see. And often, for this small number, twenty-five percent who choose to do this, the lives sometimes will overlap, and sometimes the same souls in one line are the exact same souls as in another life, and then there may be another lifeline where you have an entirely different group of souls who you are interacting with.

And so often, when we are asked by any of you about past lives, and you ask about a particular person who is in your life now, for example, right now in this consciousness that you are aware of, and we must then look at the total scheme of things. And so often there can be confusion, for if we are being asked a question like this by an entity who has many different lifelines, some of which may be crisscrossing and some of which may not be crisscrossing ~ you can be doing both, you see ~ then we may, in fact, sometimes get the lifelines a bit confused.

We might be looking at two intersections, two different lifelines, and there may appear then to be a confusion. While you said that this person did this, and this, and this, and now you are saying that this person did something else ~ while it is therefore the result of a crisscrossing depending on the kind of lifeline that is being followed. As more and more energy forms, all of you, reach a higher state of advancement, you are beginning to choose to do parallel lives. So to say reincarnation, really does not do the process justice, for yes, you do come back to the earth plane, and to many planes, but in far greater complexities than many would even want to think of.

We understand that many of you here, and many who would read the transcripts of this session and those to follow, will be utterly confused and frustrated, because just now you are beginning to understand coming back, so to speak, just beginning to feel comfortable with what you would perceive as one lifeline. And now, to present something that is far more complex, for many, will be almost a short-circuiting.

However, we know that there are many who are not only ready for this but are anxious for this knowledge ~ for it means their ability to advance even greater. There are several of you in the vibration during this session now who have become rather stymied in your growth, needing to have some greater awarenesses presented to you so that you could then begin to examine yourself in a far more in-depth manner ~ knowing for many of you, that there is much more to all of this than was being discussed ~ and that now you have the opportunity when stretching to reach your Higher Self, knowing that you have at least another lifeline, perhaps three or four more. Some of you here ~ there are two in particular ~ who have five lifelines. Ooh! Much to explore, get to know the total energy that you are.

I promised Mushiba that I will not discuss her lifelines. She gets very upset with me when I start discussing it, and I would encourage you all to not talk to her about it. Do us all that favor.

Now, with that bit of information as a finale to PART I, we have some time for possible questions. We understand that some of you may not even know what it is you do not even know, but you want to ask. We understand that. There are also some of you who may ask a question that we feel will be far too complex in its answer to provide to you at this point. We will try to keep this first session as simple as we can so that those of you who are hearing it can digest it, and those who will be reading this in the future can also digest it, step by step. So let the questions begin.

Relating To Parallel Lives ~ How Can You Describe Individual Energy Forms?

Could you give us a more graphic description of individual energy forms so that we can visualize better how there can be parallel lives?

Each of you is an energy form. That means individual. Barnabus (the dog) is an energy form. He is an individual energy form in and of itself. The fish here (in the fish tank) are individual energy forms. They are contained within themselves. We have not, and we have not done this purposely, discussed twin flames and their separation. That will come at another time. So each energy form, a rock on the earth plane is an energy form, everything has life in some form and therefore has its own level of energy, and depending on what that level of energy is determines where you fall within the scheme of life. You see? Does this answer your question? We are confused as to what you are confused about.

How can we be in two places at once? Is that what you mean?

Ah, yes, indeed. This is an area that we know will be confusing and not understood by many of you, for it is the process of energy itself that allows splits, the energy itself. Think of yourselves as a piece of dough for bread, a little ball, and if you are a little ball and the yeast is in it and you keep that ball as it is, it will expand. It will grow. Bigger and bigger. If you take that piece of dough and you divide it, it does not harm the dough, and each piece then becomes its own little piece and it grows. And if it is kept close together it can fuse back. And you can cut that dough again and again and again. It is still a part of the whole. It has come from the whole and at any point can be brought back into the whole, so that the ball becomes one again, for it is all from the same ingredients, you see. And it can go its separate ways, knowing that it can come back.

So, too, is energy able to be split. Each individual energy is a ball. Think of it as a ball. I have described to you so often that you are all little Lights, little flashing balls of brightness in varying degrees, and that can split, you see, and go and form a particular manifestation. The difference, of course, between you and a piece of dough is that when your energy form splits, the thread of which we all know connects us to the One is not severed. It is simply spread out so that there is this connection. The thread connects so that there is never the danger of the energy splitting and being severed from its main source, and this enables the energy to take on different manifestations. Does that make it any clearer?

Yes. I guess I was thinking, too, about connectedness of consciousness, but of course that would always have to be there, too.

The thread is what keeps the connectedness to The Universal Consciousness.

One Of The Conditions Of The Earth Plane Is Time, Which Is An Illusion

Is it safe to say that there really is not any time because that is our invention? There is only eternity. So these coexistences that we might have, could we say we are living one life in 1988, and one life in 1066, or another lifetime in the future, all simultaneously because time is really an invention of ~

That is correct. And it is an area that many will be unable to grasp. You have a basic understanding of it for you know what question to even pose, you see, or that it does in fact exist. There is no time, you see. One of the conditions of the earth plane is time. It is part of everything set up for this particular dimension, so that there are, for example, different lifelines that you can be living in ~ let me see, I will give you some dates just as a reference point. Let us say you have a particular life in which you live until 1900, and you have another life in which you were coexisting in 1900, and you left one manifestation in 1900, and the other manifestation you left in 1920, and you may have started that manifestation while ~ let us say you started one manifestation in 1900 and ended it in 1950, and another simultaneous manifestation began in 1920 and ended in 1930 or 1960, or began in 1890 and ended in 1920, you see.

It does not mean that your parallel lives run exactly according to the time frames that you have on the earth plane. It is simply that there are certain manifestations that need to be worked out. Also, the whole issue of past, present, and future on the earth plane is of a very limited scope, but we will not go into that at this point. However, your question, your observation rather, is correct as posed.

Along the same line, I would like to question a little further on that. We know we have had, let us say, times that existed thousands of years ago. Now what you are saying is that even though we say we existed thousands of years ago in the different form, our same soul had a continuity through all of this. You are saying that thousands of years ago could be happening simultaneously with the life we have right now, which is two thousand years in the future.

That is correct.

Do We Have One Soul Or Does That Soul Get Split Up Between All These Lives?

Ah, good question. No, you have one soul. The consciousness of the Soul is imbedded into the thin cord. This is the constant. The energy itself that surrounds the cord is what has the ability to split. It is not the Soul that splits, so that the Soul remains constant in whatever manifestation one takes on. You are not separate souls. This is true of the twin flame phenomenon. The Souls are one. So that whatever the Soul has mapped out for itself for lessons, it decides then how it is going to meet those lessons, and if it means manifesting on the earth plane in one lifeline and taking two thousand lifetimes to do it, to get through a few lessons, and then knowing that it might take another ten thousand lifetimes, that is up to the Soul.

The Soul can, however, decide that it will take four different lifetimes, or two different lifelines I should say, lifelines, and split up these manifestations so that rather than following one lifeline and having to take ten thousand manifestations, for example, I just pick a figure, some are less and some are more, it in fact could only take five thousand because you are doing it simultaneously with a plan of action. "While in this particular lifeline I will learn certain lessons," and "In this other lifeline I will learn other lessons." Do you understand?

It becomes much easier to understand if you look at it like ~ Well, I guess no one has trouble understanding that we have lifelines connected to the Universal God, or The Creative Force. Now, since we are One and are just like The Creative Force really, in a separate location, there is no reason why we cannot have five to ten lifelines, almost like connecting our own little Creative Force down here.

Oh, absolutely.

And I guess the question I had was, how do you keep all these records together so that they are being written in one soul? ☺

Ah, indeed. We would expect from you that kind of concern. ☺ You have a strong imprint upon your soul for record keeping, keeping it all in order. This is why your manifestation, what you are conscious of right now, is in this field of computers. It is all very natural to you. You do have several lifelines, my son, that you are dealing with, but you already know that. We wish you luck. ☺ ☺

I need it. ☺

And the games will begin now with your Higher Self as you begin to sort through them. Yes, there are many ~ when you view a particular energy as being a powerful soul, being advanced and having great enlightenment, the chances are quite good that that entity has several lifelines. You should not view these individuals with trepidation or fear or jealousy ~ jealousy being, of course, an earth plane test. Rather, you should view these individuals as helpers, for if you are an entity who at this point does not have multiple lifelines, it does not mean that you will not have them. It just means that you have chosen until this point not to. You are free at any time to embark upon that particular avenue.

Do Each Of Our Lifelines Have Basically The Same Characteristics?

Yes. You are looking perhaps for ~ characteristics being probably the best earth plane word to describe it, similarities of philosophy and similarities of mission. There is a common ground since the Soul, of course, is the same, that each lifeline takes on a certain characteristic, certain principles that the Soul adheres to. There are, however, differences, and these are necessary so that the full scope of the plan can be implemented for the advancement and the learning process, so that if you were to, for example, take two or three lifelines of the same energy form and spread it out on the table, you would see commonalities within each lifeline of the personality of the Soul, which is what is manifested on the earth plane. It is a part of that manifestation. You would then see others that were dissimilar but, when put together, make the whole.

Lifelines Can Choose From A Portfolio Of Skills And Talents Available, With Percentages

Let us say being able to sing, or not being able to sing. Is that something that you come in with?

It is a decision that is made by the Soul. It is one of those areas that is a common one that energy forms have available to them, to develop. There is a whole portfolio of skills and talents that are available, and you can pick and choose from them.

And so, certain energy forms will decide that they want to develop singing, for example. So they will map out a strategy for developing that. And it might entail development through two lifelines, or one lifeline, for singing, and another lifeline for dancing, or percentages of both, perhaps placing a greater emphasis in one lifeline on singing, and a little bit of an emphasis on dancing, but not too much. And in another lifeline, having a greater emphasis on dancing and a lesser influence on singing, or in any other skills, in developing the psychic abilities, and in being able to heal with the hands, being able to use crystals.

All of these skills and talents are those that The Universe provides, and you can pick from as many as you want. You have an unlimited choice. Some souls choose many, many and others choose a few. It is entirely up to the energy form. It then becomes, the more you choose, the greater the tests that will come with each talent and ability that is chosen.

Discovering Other Lifelines Through Meditation

If we are an energy manifesting here today, can we get glimpses of our lifelines that are occurring in other times? If we have an affinity for a specific period in history perhaps, is that like a soul memory attached to this lifeline?

To answer the first part of it, you can begin to develop an understanding of lifelines that pertain to you by your meditations. You will find the answers from within by seeking the connection with your Higher Self. And if you, in fact, do have multiple lives, parallel lives, then you will begin to be given that knowledge. The first step will be if you are ready to know this in your current consciousness. Then it will be given to you for information. It is like everything else. When you are ready to know something then it will be shown to you. Once you begin the search for understanding what might be other lives, other lifelines, you will then be given the information as you are ready to accept it on what those lifelines are and how they connect and what they mean to your soul.

For the most part, this knowledge is kept at a minimum while you are manifesting on the earth plane, for it would be so very overwhelming to the majority manifesting in a particular form now to comprehend the enormity of the lifeline, and in fact, it may not even be necessary to be consciously aware, for it may interfere with your conscious manifestation. You see? There is a difference between conscious manifestations and unconscious manifestations.

So those parallel lives that many have are unconscious manifestations. So when I refer to conscious manifestation to you all, it means the one in which you are aware right now, what you are, who you are, right now sitting in this environment with your friends, with your acknowledged mission, your work that you do. It means that for some, while you are sitting here you may be out in another manifestation and doing something else. That is an unconscious manifestation, and for the most part a soul allows only one conscious manifestation.

To have awareness of an unconscious manifestation comes only with a level of advancement that is able to take it on, for it could interfere, and many times if you are having one or two or three unconscious manifestations simultaneously with your conscious manifestation, they will, in fact, be affecting how you behave in the conscious manifestation.

There are connections, you see, of course, so that if you get particular thoughts that you do not know where they came from, it could be that you are receiving a message at some level from one of your unconscious manifestations. If you are feeling unexpectedly unhappy, for example, or unexpectedly happy, it could be that one of your unconscious manifestations is having that emotion, and at some level it is being transferred to you.

Praying For Those Who Pass Over

The organized religion, the church, has always said to pray for people when they pass over. Now after this discussion, I kind of got the idea that our souls do a great job, or try to do a great job, before they pass over, and come back. How does that tie in?

You must understand that from the beginning we have indicated the issue of free will. And that many times the manifestations that occur, and the free will that enters in, regresses a soul, or even if it does not regress, and in fact does help, and the entity moves ahead, all of us need the prayers of each other. And so regardless of the situation, when there is a moving about from dimension to dimension, there is an increased need for prayer, for assistance, especially moving out of the earth plane into whatever dimension is necessary to go. It is a tremendous shock to the energy form.

There are certain conditions that surround the earth plane that create this, which we will not enter into discussing at this point, but it does mean that because of the conditions that create entrapment on the earth plane, there are situations when an energy form, when leaving the earth plane, runs into difficulty. Even if they do not run into difficulty, it can be a very traumatic transition. For some it is not, but for most it is. And prayer not only helps other energy forms but it also helps you who do the praying. And if a particular energy is undergoing simultaneous lives, it means that one part of the energy has left the earth plane and one part is still on the earth plane, and this creates a whole set of situations in itself which we won't get into at this point. However, to basically answer your question, prayer is of the utmost importance. It is a Universal condition for life. It is the affirmation of love for each other.

Can One Part Of You Be More Advanced Than Another?

In discovering what is going on in parallel lives, does this mean that when segments of ourselves are in other dimensions, and manifesting themselves, do they in their own way, are they vibrating at a different level or a different advancement than other segments? And do we become whole with the combination of vibrations?

The vibration is common to the Soul. It is connected to the Soul and not the energy itself. There is a difference between the energy form and the vibration. An energy form has a vibration. The vibration remains the same. The energy form may split, but the vibration is the same, so that if the energy form is in various dimensions, it is connected. The thin thread that connects the Soul, as I have said the Soul is the cord, that vibration remains the same. We have not really given you a discussion of vibration. There is again a misunderstanding of what that is all about, but that is for another time. So, yes, your level of advancement, if I am understanding this, you are wondering if one part of you can be more advanced than another.

Correct.

That is not possible. Advancement is vibration and that remains constant regardless of where a part of the energy form happens to be manifesting, and as the parts begin to increase so too does the whole.

Well, it is time now to depart. We are most appreciative to all of you for the prayers that you have been sending to Mushiba and the Light that you have been sending to her. It has helped her in the lessons that she has taken on and the test that has been given to her. As always, prayer means the union of other souls to helping each other in the accomplishment and the meeting of tests, the accomplishment of lessons. And what you do for Mushiba, you do for yourself and for those around you. It is the interconnectedness, and you have helped very much in her attempts to deal with this, and we are all very pleased at the efforts on many of your parts and we thank you, for it brings her closer to us.
