A Lesson Learned With A New Bird In One's Environment

Waith, did we have a lesson to learn this weekend with our new bird?

Ah. We know of your disappointment. It was meant that the animal spirit was to depart. It had a very, very traumatic life, and in order for it to ascend into a spirit dimension properly, it needed to be in the right vibration when it was ready to depart from the physical encasement. Thus, it was brought into your environment to receive preparation for departure. This will occur frequently. There will be many of The Animal Kingdom that will find their way into your environment, in your vibration. There was a balancing that needed to occur between this vibration and that known as Fluffy, the cat.

Fluffy, the cat.

Yes. Fluffy, the cat. Fluffy was brutalized in a prior incarnation by the entity that was in the bird vibration, and it is knowledge for all of you that the vibrations of the kingdoms must also balance just as all of you do in The Human Kingdom, and thus it is balanced now.

In the short two days we were able to help the bird?

Indeed, you were. And so, young ones, do not feel distressed, for the vibration is being helped through the electromagnetic field that surrounds the earth plane and being brought back into spirit where it also will evaluate its incarnation and be prepared for the next phase of its own growth.

Is that why I felt on the verge of tears all day Sunday? Recognizing that its soul was leaving.

That is correct.

I understand that today, but when I got home and heard the bird had died, my first thought was maybe that is why I was sad all day.

Indeed. It was a sadness, as you would call it, at the physical level. And now that you have an understanding of a part of the mission that you have, you will connect better with your soul, which was not sad.

My soul knew what was coming.

Indeed.

A Discussion Of The Stones In The Breast Plate That Moses Wore

About the breast plate that Moses wore ~ the types and weights of the stones that were used, how they were placed in relation to each other, and their vibrational significance. Would you comment on this?

As weight is measured in your reality now, the stones were two point three eight seven ounces. They were of a purpose, for, of course, Moses, being the energy that is Amelius, had a purpose, and this armor of which you refer had a vibrational significance to it. It was meant at the plane level to appear to be of a defense mechanism. However, these stones were placed in a way that were harmonious with the pyramids, and they had a direct vibrational connection with the pyramids. They served to energize the vibration of Moses for the work that needed to be accomplished and to keep the physical encasement strong and long lasting, for that incarnation on the earth plane time frame was very, very long.

He then would be able, by touching particular stones, to draw upon the energies that were connected with the pyramid, the pivotal pyramid, not only in that geographic area in which he had incarnated, but with the prime pivotal period. This enabled him to maintain an electromagnetic balance, for there were many during that time frame who were being trained for future plane incarnations to help in the spiritual attunements of the masses, and in actuality it was a preparation for this major cleansing that is about to occur, for there were many who were trained and guided during this time frame by Moses who are back on the plane now. Many are already a part of Terra Lux. Many will come into the community. It was a very, very important time frame for the illusion that you all have taken on for this time between cleansings and served a significant role in the evolution of that which is known as Judaism. That is what we will say about it for now.

Comments About Sedona, Arizona

I am trying to decide where to go on a vacation and would like your input.

Indeed. We would suggest for your vibration that you go to that which is called Sedona.

Sedona. In Arizona?

Indeed. For that is where there is a hidden pyramid, and the vibration of that particular geographic area is quite complimentary to your own. The vibrations currently manifesting in Sedona are going to be a part of the transfer to this geographic area for the new structure that will be constructed in this area at the time of the cleansing.

Seeing A Particular Color Around The Moon And The Issue Of Energy Transfer

Why do I see red around the moon most of the time, a red collar? I have asked, and others do not see it.

This is a very common occurrence for many vibrations, to see color around that which is called the moon. For some, the color red will manifest. For others, the color purple, and the other most common color is orange. These are indicators of vibrational transferences. Remember that some energy forms have come into this lifetime to learn certain lessons that others are not concerned about, and one of the lessons is one of energy transference with other physical bodies that are a part of the earth plane. This moon is one of those.

There are other energies who, if able to look at the other planets, would also see color surrounding them. This indicates a learning mode of the energy. Energy transference simply means that you are learning to draw energy and to give energy to other modes of energy other than human. It is a very important skill to develop in the search for vibrational height.

And thus, you have begun your training in this area. Red is a very powerful color vibration and signifies vibrance and power, and it is that which you have chosen in this manifestation to work on. Others who see different colors work on different types of energy transference. You will feel its effects upon your own abilities after The Shift. You will see the effects of the work that you do now. You do this at what is called the unconscious level, the Soul Level, also.

Do I do any of it at the conscious level?

Not as of yet, for you must first develop this at Soul Level which will then have the implantation into the total energy that will allow you at some other incarnation to develop this and be aware of this at the conscious level. You have just begun. Thus, you have a road ahead of you.

Comments On A Member's Plight With Job Hunting, And Their Issue With Patience

Waith, you told me that this period of not being employed in a full-time position, I was trying to redefine my spiritual mission. Does it have anything to do with being in a position where I would Be of Service to Others?

You need me to answer that question? ☺ ☺

Not really. I just want you to confirm it.

Indeed, my dearest.

Am I close to getting one, because I ~

Oh. You are working on an issue of patience in this lifetime.

Yeah, I know that!

Very strongly.

I know. Every time I stop at a red light or come out of my driveway, ten cars come by, and I have to laugh because I know somebody is doing something.

That is correct, and you will, in your discussions with others, hear that for the most part they never have red lights, as they are called.

That is true.

Nor do they need to wait, for they have given to The Universe the lesson. This is one for you and also one for many, many others. It is a common one. Your mission is unfolding now. Your path is clearing its way. You will know as it is appropriate, and as you begin to open yourself to your own Higher Self through your meditations, you will know the answers. They will be given to you. We will confirm that that which you have heard in your meditations are correct.
