A Discussion Of The Atlantean Time Frame

We would like to speak in this time to you of a subject that many of you seem to be fascinated with, and that is the time frame known as Atlantis, and we will address some questions from you. As we have indicated in the past, we are not going to focus a lot of our discussions on Atlantis, but rather, when we feel it is appropriate, to give out certain types of information that would be of benefit to what is now occurring in your own lives, for each of you in this gathering now has had time in Atlantis, some of you in that last time frame that we have spoken of that was on the earth plane time ten thousand years ago, and others of you who spent time before that, for the Atlantis time was on the earth plane, many, many thousands and thousands of years. And we know that there is a tremendous curiosity, and we plan, rather than to give you a dialogue of information, that we will address your questions about the Atlantean time and those issues that the Atlanteans had, as well as what occurred in that time.

Now, there has been much given out for information from our perspective, as well as individuals who are able to attune to their Higher Self and bring back their own soul memories regarding the Atlantean time. We will take this session, and there will be others to come where the questions can be addressed, and they will be appropriate ones, for those who would read the transcripts at a later time would also connect with those kinds of questions. And so, let us begin with the questions.

Experimentation With Atlanteans Merging The Human And Animal Kingdoms

I have read one of the abuses the Atlanteans had was attempting to create super-beings, and they created beings that were part animal and part human. We have a lot of mythology concerning creatures that were half human and half animal, and I was wondering if this was, in fact, an occurrence.

Yes. Part of the difficulty in the Atlantean experience was the length of time that this particular group had for manifesting. We are discussing perhaps fifty thousand earth plane years of a single culture, if you were to use that term. Put this in perspective of that which you call the American culture, being two hundred earth plane years or whatever it is, a very insignificant time, and you place this into perspective with fifty thousand years of accumulated knowledge.

The Atlanteans ~ and you must realize that during that time frame there were many multiple incarnations. So, for example, one energy form who would manifest at the very beginning of the Atlantean time could have manifested once again in the Atlantean time hundreds of times, you see, so that there is this particular time frame in which there was the opportunity for a soul to grow within a single culture, and not going into various types of cultures. And as a result of this, there was very advanced knowledge because of the accelerated type of growth. And the beings, then, who reached the point in Atlantis toward its final days had developed over these fifty thousand plus years tremendous abilities, and at the same time there was a misuse of these abilities.

Tremendous Mind Ability And Mind Power That The Atlanteans Had

Power, you understand, is good if used correctly, if used in a spiritual context. The Atlanteans, many of them, were not using their power in the spiritual context, and there was the tendency to think of themselves as immortal, and that they could, in fact, tamper with others. And it has been well-documented that there was mind power that the Atlanteans had toward this final time frame, and one of their abuses, and these would be those who were not necessarily of the Sons of Darkness but just simply those who had fallen into the temptation to abuse, that tremendous mind ability was generated toward experimentation. And in mind ability, there is the visualization, one of the powers being that you simply think something and it appears, or is destroyed, or is helped, you see.

So, the temptation to experiment with those who were of lesser developed abilities, who were not able to defend themselves from the powers of those who were of the higher levels, the temptations were very great. And what they began to do was, through their thoughts, redesign the physical encasement, and thought that it was great fun to merge an animal, one from The Animal Kingdom with one from The Human Kingdom, and thought of this as a game. They found themselves in great difficulty, for these manifestations, once they were completed, they were not able to change it. They thought, you see, that they would play this game, and they would bring together a human and an animal and combine them, and then, when they were finished laughing and playing with it, they would simply dissolve it and the human would go back to its normal form and the animal would go back to its normal form.

What happened, however, was that they were not able to change that, and there developed, then, a large number of energy forms that were of a combination. Many of them had a very, shall we say, hostile attitude, rightly so, for what had been done to them, and they began to attack those who had done this to them, and there broke out in that time ~ this began approximately, shall we say, twelve thousand years ago. So, it was in the very final part of Atlantis, for Atlantis was finished at about ten thousand years ago. So, we are looking at the final, very final time, and it continued up until the time of the final destruction.

These combined beings found that their encasement could be perpetrated, meaning that they could mate and thus bring in an encasement of that mixture, and thus they began to do so. And it was all for lessons to be learned, for they were able, by bringing in this new form of physical encasement, energies coming into this form who had a very particular balancing with those energies who had begun to ~ had been the perpetrators of this. And thus, mythology as you refer to it, is accurate. It is not a myth.

There were many different combinations, and many of them were very gentle and very loving and served a great purpose and were of service. When Mushiba and I were in the temple during the final days of Atlantis, and we were doing our mission then, we had several of these energies in this encasement who worked with us, and that is another ~ time for another story at another time. They were of great service, and their energy form has returned and will soon be in the community.

Waith, some weeks ago I had asked concerning my soul memories, creatures called dinosaurs, and you had answered saying that during Atlantean times there were gentle manifestations of creatures who were dinosaur-like. Can you talk a little more about these creatures? These were not part of the mutations that were experimented with. Were these a separate evolutionary line?

Yes. Yes, they are part of The Animal Kingdom ~ They were part of The Animal Kingdom and not part of the combinations. And what you refer to as a dinosaur is not really accurate as it is defined by the earth plane now, that they were flesh eating, many of them, and that they were dangerous. And this did exist during a particular time on the earth plane but not during the Atlantean time.

The Large Stature Of Animals During The Atlantean Time And Their Mission

During the Atlantean time, the creatures were of a very large, large stature - perhaps standing fifteen to twenty feet. Remember that in Atlantis, the physical encasements were large also. I, for example, during that time took on an encasement of seven feet, as it is called, and that was considered normal. So that these creatures were, at a minimum, about fifteen feet, many of them much larger. And they had what you might call a reptile appearance, as you might reference on the plane as it exists today. They were what you would call vegetarians. They ate plant food. And they had a lifeline that was necessary in an encasement to learn particular lessons, just as each of you goes into different encasements to learn different lessons.

Many of energies from that time frame in The Animal Kingdom, just like all of you in this gathering now, have returned. And you will find that many in The Animal Kingdom, one of their lives or several of their lives, were in the encasement of these rather large animals. They lived on the land but were able to live in the water also. They had breathing abilities in their skin that enabled them to function under the water when needed.

And when the final destruction of Atlantis occurred, it was these animals that served as the transporters of those from Atlantis who were to survive the cataclysm and move into other parts of the Planet Earth. Because of the water and its tremendous pressure at that time, these animals were able to move through this heavy swirling water with dozens and dozens of Atlanteans attached to them, holding onto them. And thus, they were the savers, if you will, of those from Atlantis.

Once their mission was completed and all from Atlantis were transported into the various parts of the earth plane, it was over for them. That was it. Their line, if you will, had come to an end, and as each one left the encasement that was the finalization. No remains have been allowed to be found. They were taken. Their encasements were taken and dissolved, if you will.

The bones that paleontologists are now discovering are not these.

No, they are not of those. No, that is from another time on the plane. It is a time before the Atlantean experience.

Was it where they had been part of the Lemurian continent?

No, it is not part of that continent. No. It is another cultural time on the earth plane which does not relate at this point now, as we speak of Atlantis. And thus, we will keep this particular session devoted to Atlantis. And there is plenty of time, as you would say, to discuss other earth plane periods and the eventual connection that each of them has had with each other.

What Brought About This Minor Cataclysm Of Ten Thousand Years Ago In Atlantis?

The ultimate catastrophe was brought about in combination, and it is the same combination that brings about the coming shift of the axis.

Like we have now?

That is correct. There was an abuse of the planet itself, and the planet, the earth itself, had to clean itself. And then, those who were on the plane were becoming so spiritually imbalanced that the vibrations that were being transmitted from these imbalanced entities just created turmoil. And cleansings need to occur periodically in order for vibrations to increase, and thus, the cataclysm of ten thousand years ago, as I have indicated before, was a minor cataclysm.

The Shift Of The Axis Coming Is A Major Cataclysm

The one coming, that we are here to help you all prepare for, is a major cataclysm, meaning simply that it is going to be a major rebirth, and it ~ as in Atlantis, there needed to be a realignment of vibrations. There needed to be a mass taking of entities, if you will. There are very specific time frames in which The Universe allows those of us of The Angelics to take energies. It is the rare exception that we are allowed to take an energy out of its encasement until it is ready to depart. During these cataclysms, it is simply that the energies who are not vibrationally attuned must leave so that the cleansing and the clean-up can occur, and many will resist, as they did in Atlantis. There was tremendous resistance in Atlantis, and it simply means that we gently, literally pull them out.

Atlantean Space Travel

During the Atlantean time, was there space travel? Were those from other planets visiting Planet Earth and were we in communication with them?

Remember, that the other planets that make up the earth plane experience are many and that each of you has manifested on these other planets, and what seems to be difficult for you all to understand, is that when you refer to beings on another planet, you think of them as something separate from yourselves, and that they are some other group of energies.

You must realize that all energies are part of the same One. And thus, the beings on another planet are beings like each of you. They simply are, first of all, in different physical encasements. Secondly, there are different levels of advancement and learning and, like Planet Earth, they have an illusion that has been set up to work through. There are Water Planets, for example, as we have discussed. There is, unfortunately, though, not a Candy Planet, Limera. ☺ ☺

No!?

Indeed. The beings on another planet are simply others, other energy forms like yourselves who are learning particular lessons as they are staged on those planets, and just as there are beings on Planet Earth who fall along The Spectrum of Light and dark, so too on these other planets. Now, some of these planets have the illusion to work through for the energy form that allows them to travel to other planets. And just as cleansings occur on Planet Earth, so too do cleansings occur on the other planets. Thus, the advancement of technology, for example, as it progresses in the Planet Earth and then cleansing occurs and it starts over again, so too does it occur on other planets. And, yes, there is the visiting of other planets.

Now, in Atlantis, understand that during the final days the advancement level was extremely high ~ much, much higher technologically than exists now, and Atlanteans were able to travel to other planets with spacecraft and they were considered beings from another planet. At the same time, there were entities coming from other planets to visit Planet Earth. There was no hostility involved. There was nothing thought of as unusual. There was simply, "Oh, you are coming from another place," this type of thing. And there were those who were positive and those who were negative, and they all dealt with each other in the way that you all deal now with positive and negative entities.

The fascination, as it seems to be now on Planet Earth, is this tendency to think that everything revolves around Planet Earth, and that that which manifests here is the only form of life and the only form of intelligence. Understand that in comparison to the history of cultures on Planet Earth, you all are at a very low level, actually, and that has been purposeful. For, as most of you understand, you are from that time frame in Atlantis where the abuses occurred, and there has been a great purpose of keeping growth, technologically and metaphysically, at a slower level, for you all are attempting to balance from that time when the abuses occurred.

Many Now Are From The Atlantean Time And Are Attempting To Balance The Abuses

And many of you in this gathering were a part of the abuses. Many were a part of those who tried to help to balance the abuses. And you will meet, now, around you, more and more Atlanteans who were at various stages of their own advancement. And while it is not looked at as a negative, as you might all say, "Oh, this is very bad, these people from another time now coming in and being ~ trying to be something that they wanted to be in Atlantis but are fighting the manifestations of their own powers," you are attempting to balance.

You are attempting to understand that the power can be very good, that the abilities can be very good, and you are here specifically to go through another cleansing, for many, many, many of you are destined to go through the cleansing and to help with what remains after the cleansing. And you do this so that you can truly learn the spiritual context in which you must use your abilities.

Many of you will begin to have your abilities open up and you will see that you have a particular power, and you will recognize at the Soul Level that this was something that was developed ten thousand years ago, and for many of you, it will be the first time in ten thousand years that you have acknowledged it. You have come through in other manifestations and have blocked all knowledge of that time, and for many of you now, you are opening up that knowledge deliberately. It is the time to do so. It is the time of balancing from Atlantis.

A Question About Teleportation And Decorporation By The Atlanteans

During the Atlantean civilization they had developed teleportation and decorporation. Is that strictly abilities of the mind or was it a technical process where, electronically, a machine vaporized the atoms and then converted it to some other place?

It begins with the physical technology, and that was developed, perhaps thirty thousand years ago during the mid-life of Atlantis, as we might say. And thus, they developed the technology first in physical form, they were able to do the process with the help of physical means. As they began to evolve in their own understanding of Self, they realized that the physical manifestation was simply an aid, or a tool, to help in what the Soul and the spirit could do with the mind, and, gradually, they were able to eliminate the physical aid and simply, with the mind, perform the process that was done with the machine.

Thus, it is with all. You see, all abilities come from the mind, and yet, most entities do not believe this, and thus, need the help of an aid, a symbol perhaps. And it is not until there has been the acknowledgement that the aid is simply not needed, but serves as a conductor, initially, of energy into the brain, into the mind, into the spirit, to help it to understand its own powers ~ once that has been acknowledged, then the aid is no longer needed.

Is this process going to be rediscovered before this shift occurs again?

No. It is a process that the Atlantean energies are very much concerned about not having brought about. It will occur after The Shift when the vibrations are attuned. And you will find that after The Shift, there will be much that will be coming through from those who remain, simply because they will, themselves, be able to spiritually maintain the power. And also, after The Shift, there will be those of high vibration, and there will not be an abuse of that particular power.

There was tremendous abuse of that power, tremendous abuse, and there are many Atlanteans who are not able to return to Planet Earth, and any of the earth plane dimensions, for unlimited time. We would not say eternity, for this would mean that they would never return, but it is the ~ the abuse was so tremendous that they have chosen to be in Work Planets and Rest Stations to recover from that which was done at their hands. Thus, there is tremendous hesitation by many of you here in this gathering who were not necessarily a part of that particular abuse, but saw the abuse, saw others using it, and know that you have the power and do not want to use it as yet until it can be properly channelled.

Earlier, you mentioned the mutants. Is this related to the ability for decorporation? Is that how the process started? And did it teleport oneself into an animal?

Oh, indeed. Indeed. This was the beginnings of their realizing that the mind could do anything, and that machinery was not really needed. Realize that it was not all in Atlantis who had this ability, but a very select group. And it was this select group that has given Atlantis the reputation that it has of mind-control.

Was this select group the Elders?

No, it was ~ It included many, many. It was not simply that which is referred to as the Elders.

A Question About The Philadelphia Experiment Discussed In A Book

This Philadelphia experiment ~ is this possibly ~ without having read the book yet, but the idea of a ship moving from one port to another, and so on and so forth ~ is that maybe Atlanteans that were trying something ~ the experiments that they had tried before?

To best explain that phenomena, we will place it into the context of Atlantis, approximately twelve to eleven thousand years ago when the ability to construct was achieved with the mind by many individuals, which we have discussed already, and the Atlanteans, also able to move themselves, dematerialize, as you might call it, and then materialize in other places, they were experimenting with doing this process with the material things. So, they would take, for example, something that had been constructed, a vehicle of sorts, and with their mind they would dematerialize it and they would move it through space into another spot, and have it materialize.

There are currently on the earth plane, as we have said, many of these Atlanteans who are not all balancing. There are many Atlanteans now manifesting who have not learned anything in the last ten thousand years, either because they have not manifested again on the earth plane and thus, worked on their issue, or they simply have not learned, and they bring with them their powers, and they attempt to use them in the illusion that has been set up now. You see, the illusion on the earth plane now, as compared to Atlantis, is different and it would be difficult to explain at this point. At some future time, you will all be ready for us to explain this to you, but at this time it is not. It would be more frustrating to you.

And thus, we have the situation of a number of entities manifested now who are playing around with this process once again, and you will ~ it will not be successful. There may be indications that it will be successful, but it will not be.

So, this still goes back to the Atlanteans?

Yes, indeed, it does. Yes.

Were There Other Civilizations, Other Than Atlantis And Lemuria, On This Earth Plane?

At that, during those fifty thousand years, were there other civilizations, other than Atlantis and Lemuria, on this earth plane?

Yes, there were. There were three other major land masses, five in all. The other three were not populated very much. There were animals on these other land masses, and there were the beginnings of a new civilization. There were human encasements, and there were ~ of a lower advancement. They were primarily there to prepare for the cleansing which was to occur. The major activity on Planet Earth during this fifty thousand plus years occurred on these two land masses. The other three that remained after The Shift, and they were remaining ~ the other two, Atlantis and Lemuria, were destroyed ~ they served as the new breeding ground. There were encasements on that, on those land masses that were necessary for what we would call seeding, for those who came from the two land masses were limited in numbers, and as with any of the cleansings that occur, there is a new beginning.

It will occur with this shift coming, though in a very different way. And thus, the limited number of Atlanteans, for example, went into these other land masses and began to intermingle with those who were currently existing, and for a brief time, they were able to bring their technology into play and construct many, many artifacts that are still to be found.

And knowing that once they were ready to leave the earth plane that the new civilization would have to grow again, and that the entities coming in for a period of time would be those who had been forced to leave at the time of the cleansing and would have new issues now to deal with, that the illusion was set once again for the progress to occur for those of lower vibrations to develop a civilization. This is the scheme of things on the earth plane, to go from cleansing to cleansing, and build a civilization and then cleanse it, and then start over and build another one. And, you know, it keeps things interesting.

Terra Lux Is A Warrior Community Whose Mission Is To Protect And Defend

I am of the opinion, hearing you speak, that many of us have been through a series of cleansings and this will be simply the next in that series. So, why are we worried?

Yes, indeed. Yes, indeed. This is correct. Many of you have been through many, many cleansings. Some of you have been through one or two, and there will be some who will come into the community and into the protective environment who have not been through a cleansing. Each of you in this gathering now has been through at least two cleansings, and it is really nothing to get excited about. It simply is just another cleansing.

It is just another day! ☺ ☺

Yes, indeed, my dear, it is. Just another day.

That is why we have ten years of preparation!

Ten years of preparation is not an awful lot of time. It just appears that ~ and remember that this community is, as I have indicated in the past, the Community of Terra Lux is a Warrior Community, meaning, of course, that you are all protectors and defenders. And thus, you have all been through cleansings and it is no big deal for you, and you are here to help those who have not and to help them to understand how to get through it, you see.

A Discussion Of The Shelters Currently In Formation

Dear one, you must relax about the building of the shelters. ☺ ☺ You see, we have it all under control.

I am sure, Waith. I have a question about that. Is this going to be just like a series of thought forms that are going to be solidified, or are we going to actually contract a construction crew to come down and start digging? And how is this going to happen?

We will give you that information when it is time. It is not time for that. Understand that the shelters are currently in form and they are beneath this land mass that you find yourselves now, and that the Community of the Underground, who some of you have begun to meet in your spirit travels, has begun the construction. And when it is time for those above the ground to get involved, then we will be instructing.

There is not a rush. You need not compare with other communities around the Planet Earth that are also constructing shelters, for they each serve their own purpose, and the purposes served by this community are unique. Each of the twelve pivotal points has its own particular purpose, and this being one of the pivotal points, will have its own. The other shelters being constructed around the Planet Earth are not ~ there are many, many, that are not at pivotal points, simply at other points that serve as sub pivotal and will Be of Service in many different ways. This ~ each of the pivotal points has a very high purpose and tremendous responsibility to the new vibration that will be present when the axis shifts.

A Question About Atlantean Dialect

What did the Atlanteans call The Universal Consciousness ~ as we do now, God?

Understand it ~ what I need to do is search through the language banks here for you to understand, and I may not be accurate in what I do here. This is a most difficult area of translation for us. One language to another, type of thing. It is enough for me to deal with this language you have here. It is so limiting, so limiting for us to explain what we want to explain with the language.

The Atlanteans utilized several languages during their time, and thus, they had several words for what you would call The Universal Consciousness, or The Creator, or God, as you might refer. I will reference that which was ten thousand years ago at the time of the ending, for it is that which most of you now return from and create the scenarios that occurred in that time.

I will spell this word as I do for vibrational names and then pronounce it. There may be a bit of difficulty in pronouncing it. We may need to do some adjustment of the vocal cords of Mushiba for it to come out, and you may not be able to pronounce it, but let' us give it a shot: U-K-R-A-M, (Waith pronounces this several times). U-kram.

The language that was used was a very interesting one, and you will find remnants of this language in other cultures currently on the earth plane, but not in any one particular. It is a remnant, and that language that is spoken in what is now the Mediterranean is most closely aligned with that which was spoken in Atlantis, very much coming from deep within. Also, understand, that there were what you would call dialects, and that those in particular social classes in Atlantis spoke a different dialect of the language just as exists now, and this particular word for The Creator was from the higher-class dialects. There was another word used for The Creative Force that was Z-A-M-U (Waith pronounces this). Yes. Za-moo'

Was the word Zurur Toorah, Zooroo Toorah ~ was that in the same time frame?

Zu-rah-tam-rah, Zuratamrah ~ it was from the time frame of perhaps twenty-five to thirty thousand years ago. It then evolved so that by the time of the final time on Atlantis, it had changed in its pronunciation. We search for a moment ~ it was ~ getting this through the vocal cords will be an interesting ~ it was much softer by then. Za-rah'-tur-rah'. We are not going to attempt to spell this at this time. It would take too much time, and we are about to depart. Yes, this is most interesting. It presents quite a challenge to us to go into this aspect, you see, of the language and the pronunciation of the language.

You think it would help some of us to trigger some more soul memories?

Yes, indeed. Yes, indeed, and at another time we will be doing this. Once we have done the next series of cell changes with Mushiba, there will be some differences in what we are able to bring through.

A Question Of How Easy, Or Difficult, It Is To Learn And Talk In A Different Language

So many people speak with different accents. Like, I could not speak French with a guttural. I never could to it. And Italians have a different way, and so forth. Now, if you are born in a country, you seem to be able to talk that language ~ not just talk it, but with the voice intonations. Why is that? Is it because it is a learned experience or is there something in our genes that helps us to speak correctly?

It is primarily a learned experience, but you must remember that the definition of LEARNED needs to be expanded. It simply means that you have more than likely been in the experience of that language at a prior time, if there is an easy adjustment to the learning of the language. You will find that there is, for many, a very difficult adjustment in the learning of the language. If you were to look at those around you who are not able to speak well, who are not able to write English, who are not able to read, understand that, for many of these entities, it is their first time coming into this experience of that which is called the English language, and that as they go through this manifestation and come into it again, the next time around, it will be easier for them to learn. And thus it is with any language.

It does not have to do with the IQ then.

No, no, no.

Does All Knowledge Come From Experience Through Reincarnation?

So, based on the light of reincarnation, then, is it safe to say that all knowledge comes from experience?

It is a simplification, but yes. For what you need to know at this point, yes, it is.

How Are We Currently In Our Development From The Atlantean Time?

Waith, on a scale of one to ten, as far as our comparative developments here as compared to other areas, are we about a two? Like in Atlantis.

I would not be quite as hard as two. Three, perhaps. ☺ ☺ No. Actually, you are all at about, on that kind of a scale, about a five, and that has been purposeful. That has been what was required between that cleansing and this cleansing. It will be different with the next cleansing ~ between the cleansings, the kind of development that will occur.

It is not to be looked at in a negative way. It is simply that the time that is set up between cleansings is for very specific series of lessons that are set up on the plane to be learned, and thus, situations must exist in order for certain lessons to learn ~ to be learned. During the Atlantean time it was necessary for this abuse to take place, if you can understand that, and then this last time frame between the cleansings has been necessary to step back from that abuse and look at it and develop at a spiritual level the understanding of how to use the power.

I am thinking of where we are at right now. I cannot imagine the growth taking place. We are so backward.

Yes, you would each have that perception of not understanding that the growth could occur, for you have blocked it by necessity so that it would not occur and that other lessons could be learned. Those who will survive The Shift will then be able to unblock, and you will experience an accelerated growth that can only be compared to situations now where you have accelerated growth ~ where you go through periods of your time where you suddenly find yourself with great insight that you did not have before. Multiply that a hundredfold, that experience, and that is what will occur.

We are ready to depart now, and we will have other sessions in which we will discuss Atlantis. We will discuss other time frames to help you to understand better why you are here and how your energies are being utilized and what many of you will find, the awakening of soul memories that will help you in your soul's purpose in this incarnation, for many of you have very specific purposes that do relate to Atlantis.
