This class will be an orientation discussion of ENERGY FLUIDITY. There is much information regarding energy. Before reading ~ or studying ~ the information we have given on energy, we feel it appropriate to have a frame of reference for your understandings.

All that are encased have a flow of energy and, although a bit different from kingdom to kingdom, nonetheless, there is a flow. The basic component that all on the plane are dealing with now is a flux in energy within Self and external to Self ~ that which is the Earth as a physical, the Earth as an abstract, the Earth as an energy ~ and, all the layers of the Earth.

Let us look, first, at the CURRENT FLOW OF ENERGY.

What does the word CHAKRA mean?

- ☀ Wheel or disk.
- ☀ Colors.
- ☀ States of Consciousness.

Yes, and what is the movement of Chakras?

☀ Up and down.

☀ Vertical.

Up and down and vertical are two ways to describe it and both descriptions needed, depending on the audience to whom you are speaking.

Chakras exist in a tunnel that runs North to South in the encasement. The flow of North to South is also the way in which the planet Earth currently exists on its axis.

Chakras are limited in their movement and that movement is determined by what is commonly known as the PYRAMID SHAPE. (Note: Please see Illustration A, below and refer to the pyramid shape.)

The three points of the pyramid shape are the parameters in which this tunnel operates ~ restrictive and specifically determined to be so for this current illusion.

In The New Illusion there will be a new flow of energy ~ a PEANUT SHAPE. (Note: Please see Illustration A, to the right and refer to the peanut shape.)

There is no top or bottom to the new flow in The New Illusion. However, we give frames of reference only so that that you will understand that Interdimensional Communication and Travel, as a learning mode, is the set up for The New Illusion.

We use the initials, IDC and IDT for top and bottom only for the frame of reference that communication is done at the head, if you will, and travel is down with the feet, if you will.

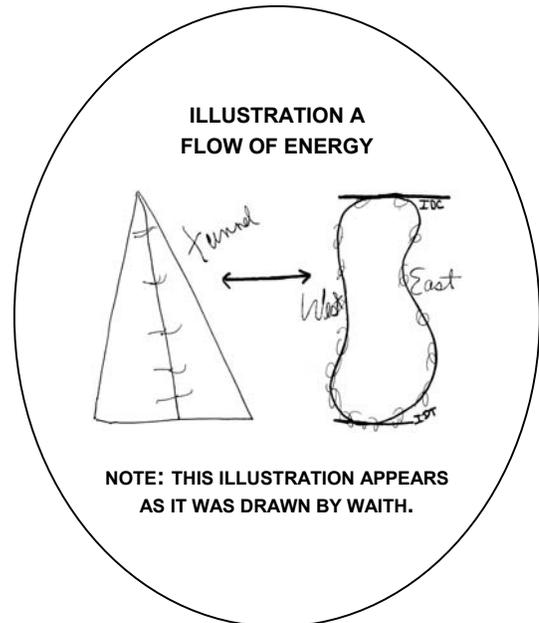

However, this flow of energy goes East to West and its Energy Centers are throughout ~ they flow completely around in this peanut shape.

Instead of the word CHAKRA, we use the words ENERGY CENTER ~ they both mean the same. An Energy Center is representative of the fluidity of energy that will begin with the planet itself as well as with all encased ~ not just human.

Currently on the earth plane, there are some who have switched in their polarities to this new flow of energy. There are some who are still very much using, to their benefit, the current flow and there are many who are flip flopping back and forth ~ just as the Earth is flip flopping on its axis as it prepares to move into the new flow of energy

Many people take the discussion of energy with such seriousness ~ it is something mysterious to them. They say, "It is something that only certain people know about ~ certainly not anything that I, lowly human being, would know about."

The purpose of this class is for us to emphasize the need to lighten up about your understanding of energy! ☺

There is nothing mystical about energy ~ it is not designated to the elite few. There are, however, those who can help you to learn more about the flow of your own being ~ your own Self ~ and to learn how to live within the levels of Self. That is the challenge ~ living within Self.

As you live within Self, you able to live outside of Self. You live within Self, you experiment outside of Self. You bring back what you learned outside of Self into Self, mix up the equation a bit, bring it back out for testing, do something, reflect and say, "Oh, I liked that, oh, I didn't like that." You bring it back into Self, evaluate it and bring it back out. This is energy ~ this is you!

Energy is fluid ~ energy moves all the time. Energy cannot be still, even when you think you are stalled in learning a lesson and think that your energy is blocked, blockage is a movement.

There is much to know about Self ~ remember that our definitive guidance is called the SEARCH FOR SELF. All of our dissemination of information and all that you would learn through Terra Lux revolve around the Search For Self ~ you cannot get away from it. No one else learns it except Self. And, so, it is important to understand your own energy ~ that is all that there is to it!

If the future is fluidity, what is the current state?

It is fluid ~ as is the past. Time is an illusion ~ time is linear for this particular earth plane training ground. However, even in its linear form, it is still nonlinear and thus, it is simultaneous.

And, so, yes, you would say that there is a past, a present and a future. And, indeed, while many attempt to bring that into some type of definitive moment along a scale ~ a beginning and an ending ~ it is not. In reality, it is completely fluid.

You are here, in this concreteness, yet you are also everywhere else. It is not just the Archangels who can be in different places at the same time ~ it is no trick or something that has been given out as some type of gift or high end ability. ☺ It is the ability that all of you have ~ it is simply whether or not you have developed the skill. And, certain training grounds are meant to help you develop the skill of becoming more fluid.

The New Illusion will have a new definition of Time ~ it will be more fluid. And, there will be a greater understanding of Interdimensional Travel and Communication. And, yes, the earth plane is set up to have linear time ~ The Mass Consciousness demands it of the earth plane because of the training ground rules. However, that is simply an illusion.

You are all living, right now, simultaneously in the past, the present and the future and not just on the grander scale of things as yesterday, today and tomorrow as all together ~ for your brain on the earth plane cannot usually comprehend that concept.

Think of this ~ as you are right now, here, this nanosecond, you have moved into a nanosecond past, present, future.

Energy exists ~ past, present and future. It is all the same and yet, from a linear perspective, it is not.

The current flow of energy is, by definition and design, very fixed and limited and does not take into account Interdimensional Travel and Communication because this current illusion was not designed to do a great deal of adventuring into Interdimensional Travel and Communication ~ as a normal process of living.

The New Illusion is set up for just that and therefore the flow of energy must be more conducive to flexible movement, which is what Interdimensional is about ~ very flexible.

In this illustration we place the peanut shape in this particular position, (Note: Waith refers to the peanut shape. Please see Illustration A on Page 2.) so that it is a companion piece to the pyramid shape. It does not have to stand up for it can be on its side, tilted ~ it can be any way that you want it to be.

How fast does energy go?

It actually goes in two different ways. It goes in the speed in which your own encased energy is moving ~ and that varies from individual to individual as well as within Self. And, it moves within an energy flow outside of Self that may or may not be in the same harmony or in the same speed with which Self is flowing.

Therein lies some of the challenges ~ Self is flowing from an energy perspective in a different way than the flow of energy external to Self. And while that does happen a bit with the current Energy Centers, because of the rigidity factor of the pyramid shape, it is not felt quite as much and the challenge is less than it will be in The New Illusion.

Can we lose some of our energy?

No, actually not, my love. When all energy comes out of The One they are given the same amount of energy ~ it is equal, which is why we have emphasized over the years that ALL ENERGY IS EQUAL.

No particular energy is better than another ~ no energy has more than another has. You may feel as if you have lost some of your energy, yet you have not ~ it may be hiding or resting, perhaps.

The differences among energies is simply LEVELS OF UNDERSTANDING and that still does not make any energy better or less than anyone else ~ simply different levels of understanding, of awareness.

So, energy can't die?

No. Energy does not die ~ ever. When energy leaves an encasement, it goes into another encasement. You may not see that encasement for it may not be in your physical dimension ~ it is in another dimension. Energy never dies ~ however, it does come back to haunt you!! 😊😊

Is the peanut shape multidimensional as opposed to the Chakras that are two or maybe three dimensional?

Yes, multidimensional

So, energy will flow multidimensional and not linear?

All around --there will be no set entry points as there are now in the tunnel where you go into a particular Chakra ~ the Middle Chakra and the Crown Chakra being the two favorite. The new flow will have ANY point of entry.

Is energy everywhere?

Energy is everywhere! You are sitting on energy ~ you are wearing energy! Within your body are lots of different energies ~ your blood, your bones, your skin, your hair, your toenails. You just sent us energy when you did that my love. (Note: the person raised his hands and waved to Waith.)

Energy is everything and everything is energy. Once you understand that everything is energy, a greater respect begins to develop. The chair is an energy ~ you sit on energy now ~ it is being of service ~ respect it. Everything is energy.

Are we made of energy?

Yes, Angelics, Humans, Animals, Minerals, Chairs all have consciousness ~ life that while different from kingdom to kingdom, is nonetheless, consciousness.

Ability to learn ~ that is what consciousness is about. The chair, which encompasses many, many kingdoms of energy, has much to learn and much to give in service ~ different from what a human has to learn and give of service.

When it comes time for you to be part of a kingdom that makes up a chair, you will have the knowledge of what you have to learn.

Do we breathe energy?

Yes, the Air is an encasement for energy. Energy takes on encasements. Nothing can BE without energy ~ you are all surrounded by energy. Everything is an encasement for energy for without it, there is nothing. Once you grasp that simple concept, it becomes much easier to understand the flow.

When we come out of The One, there is only one, call it a mound, for sake of another word ~ a mound of energy. And, as we evolve, as we expand, does that energy grow or does it just expand, keeping the same substance?

Energy does not expand ~ energy illuminates. As you learn your lessons, you become lighter and your energy, then, illuminates more. It is the illumination of energy that creates the sense of expansion. We have already discussed, at a beginning point, when we talked of our Spectrum of Light in our class of Spiritual Leadership. (Note: For a discussion of the Spectrum of Light, please see the Waith Manuscript, SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP.)

On that note we bring closure to our orientation discussion on Energy Fluidity.

We send to you all the very highest of the white light from the very highest of The Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.

Bye and thank you, Waith.
