

Waith Class Transcript

QUESTIONS RELATED TO THE TOPIC OF RELIGIONS AND CULTURES (1987-1996)

(Topics Include Amelius, Armageddon, Antichrist, Bible ~ Old and New Testaments, Catholic Splinters, Christ (The Term), Christian Theology, Christmas, Crucifixion, Damnation, Dogma, Dying for Your Belief, Easter, Electronic Evangelism, Evolution, Female Roles, Heaven, Hell, Jehovah Witnesses, Jesus, Judaism, Judgement Day, Krishna, Law of Grace, Moses Breast Plate, Noah and the Ark, Organized Religions, Prayer, Predestination, Resurrection, Saints, Sin, The Second Coming, Will of the Father)

- ∞ Marriage, Adultery, Organized Religion
- ∞ Is The Story Of Noah In The Bible Based On Fact?
- ∞ Will Jesus Return?
- ∞ Could You Explain How The Law Of Grace Works?
- ∞ Is Any Part Of Us God?
- ∞ Regarding Christian Theology And Signs Of The Last Days
- ∞ A Discussion Of Saints, And How They Fit Into The Picture
- ∞ A Question About Predestination
- ∞ A Question About Electing To Do The Will Of The Father
- ∞ A Discussion Of Organized Religion
- ∞ Misinterpreting The Bible Due To Translations From One Language Into Another
- ∞ Teaching Children A Spiritual Path ~ Organized Religion Versus Other Paths
- ∞ A Brief Mention Of The Easter Season
- ∞ Is It Possible For Jesus, Or Amelius, To Manifest Themselves To Someone?
- ∞ Praying For Those Who Pass Over
- ∞ Difficulties In Discussing All This With People In The Organized Religion
- ∞ Organized Religion And Dogma
- ∞ A Question From Someone Who Has Been Feeling The Presence Of Jesus
- ∞ Is The Cleansing The Equivalent Of The Second Coming? Will Amelius Be Closer?
- ∞ Waith Discusses In Detail The Issue Of Predestination Versus Free Will
- ∞ The Definition Of What Is Referred To As A "Sin"
- ∞ The Issue Of "Sin" ~ Where The Darkness Can Come In And Entrap You
- ∞ Discussion Of The Misinterpretation Of The Antichrist
- ∞ A Question About What Is Referred To As Judgement Day, in Organized Religion
- ∞ Be Careful Of Judging Others For Their Beliefs
- ∞ A Discussion Of Organized Religions
- ∞ Special Topic Session ~ Religions ~ Importance Of Religion In The Progress Of Souls
- ∞ Discussion Of The Religions Of Christianity And Judaism
- ∞ One Must Experience The Religion Of Judaism To Grow Toward The Oneness
- ∞ Strength Of Conviction ~ Part Of The Earth Plane Experience Is Dying For Your Religion

- ∞ Discussion Of The Holocaust ~ Issue Of Mass Departures ~ Learning And Teaching
- ∞ Waith Discusses A Period Of Reflection Of Life After Departing, And Judgment Of Souls
- ∞ One Cannot Incarnate Into Christianity Until They Have Incarnated Into Judaism
- ∞ Christianity Began With Jesus, Known As Catholic ~ Protestant Is A Splinter Of That
- ∞ A Question Of Female Versus Male, Relating To Religion And Spirituality
- ∞ The Old And New Testaments ~ Interpretation Of The Information Has Diluted Over Time
- ∞ Is It Accurate That There Are Twelve Tribes Of Israel Set Up By Twelve Elders From Atlantis?
- ∞ A Discussion Of The Life Of Jesus
- ∞ Is The Earth Plane The Only Plane That Has The Issue Of Religion?
- ∞ Electronic Evangelism ~ A Lesson In Ridicule As Well As Prejudice And Persecution
- ∞ A Discussion Of The Manifestations Of Jesus In His Teachings
- ∞ Will Jesus Return? And If So, When?
- ∞ Some Of The Jewish Religion Not Understanding Certain Levels Of Channelled Spirituality
- ∞ A Discussion Of Someone's Religious Belief That You Go From Here To Paradise
- ∞ I Have A Hard Time With The Jehovah Witnesses
- ∞ Again, Be Careful Of Judging Others For Their Beliefs
- ∞ Why Is The Resurrection Of The Body Such An Issue By Religion?
- ∞ Would You Comment On The Term Christ? Does That Relate To Jesus? Or Is It Generic?
- ∞ Krishna Is The Hindu Word For Christ. Is Krishna Part Of The Kingdom Of Amelius?
- ∞ A Discussion Of The Stones In The Breast Plate That Moses Wore
- ∞ Jesus And Healing
- ∞ A Question Of Why Waith References Amelius Instead Of The Name Jesus
- ∞ A Discussion Of The Undocumented Years Of Jesus ~ The Shroud Of Turin
- ∞ Each Must Follow Their Own Truth
- ∞ Prayer, The Bible And God
- ∞ Prayer Is A Technique That Was Given Through The Highest And Is Appropriate
- ∞ Mission Of Jesus ~ A Beginning Discussion
- ∞ Is Jesus' Energy Here Now?
- ∞ Does The Jesus Energy Manifest In The Same Body Or A Variety Of Different People?
- ∞ The Sai-Baba In India Claims To Be The Reincarnation Of Jesus
- ∞ Was Part Of Jesus' Mission The Creation Of Miracles ~ Like Raising Lazarus From The Dead?
- ∞ Was Jesus Actually Crucified?
- ∞ A Question Of The Of Jesus' Teaching Being Negative Rather Than Positive
- ∞ A Question About The Second Coming Of Christ As Talked About In The Bible
- ∞ Were Jesus And Mary Magdalene Married, Or Just Good Friends?
- ∞ A Discussion Of The Concept Of Eternal Damnation And The Circle Of Light
- ∞ Did Jesus Feel Pain In The Crucifixion?
- ∞ Waith Describes The Difference Between Terra Lux And What Would Be A Cult
- ∞ Can You Explain The Difference Between Waith Versus Organized Religion?
- ∞ A Question About Archangels And Their Affiliation With Any Of The Organized Religions

- ∞ Will You Describe The New Faith That Is To Be Created?
- ∞ A Question In Reference To The Pope Speaking Of The Holy Spirit, The Mother
- ∞ More Detail Will Be Given To Discuss Certain Components Of The Jesus Life
- ∞ A Discussion Of The Importance In The Evolution Of Religion And Spiritual Thought
- ∞ Open Discussion ~ Organized Religion
- ∞ Symbols Used In The Catholic Religion ~ Discussion Of Christianity And Jesus
- ∞ A Discussion Of The History Of Killing Others Who Do Not Follow Another's Religion
- ∞ Love And Hate Are Not Opposites Of Each Other
- ∞ Can One Combine Different Thoughts From Different Religions?
- ∞ Is There A Way To Know What Jesus Actually Said?
- ∞ Discussion Of Powerful Buildings, Like The Sistine Chapel And The Dome In Cologne
- ∞ Where Is Heaven? ~ Heaven Is In Your Hearts. Heaven Is The Love You Hold For Self
- ∞ Are The Five Who Run The Universe Currently Active On The Earth Plane?
- ∞ Do Other Civilizations In Other Galaxies Have Their Own Religion
- ∞ What Is The Holy Spirit?
- ∞ Could You Explain About Talking In Tongues?
- ∞ Discussion Of Saints
- ∞ Do The Other Four Kingdoms Send In Communicators Within Their Kingdom?
- ∞ A Discussion Of The Life, And Lifelines, Of Amelius
- ∞ What Is The Difference Between Spiritual Development And Faith Development?
- ∞ Could Amelius Be Conceived As The God Of The Old Testament?
- ∞ Will Organized Religion Change Closer To The Shift?
- ∞ Why Do Some Spiritual Leaders Resort To Fasting?
- ∞ A Discussion Of Jesus, Organized Religion, And Materialism
- ∞ What Will Religion Be Like After The Shift?
- ∞ Would You Comment On Armageddon, The Force Of It, And The Time?
- ∞ The Timing Of The Entry Of Jesus Two Thousand Years Ago
- ∞ I Am Curious How Scientists Came Up With The Idea Of Evolution
- ∞ Why Is Christianity So Hung Up On This Concept Of A Set Hierarchy?
- ∞ Meaning Of The Phrase "ETERNITY IS YOUNG" ~ Concept Of Heaven And Hell ~ The Dimensional Grid ~ Taking Responsibilities For The Stories Of Self
- ∞ More Discussion On The Concept Of Eternity, And Where Is Heaven And Where Is Hell?

Waith's words appear in this font style
If one from his Spirit Group speaks, they will be identified
 Questions and responses from those in the class appear in this font style

Information Given Interdimensionally By Waith Through Mushiba

A Publication of Terra Lux Media ~ 2023

For more information, please contact us ~ terralux.org | Email: Admin@terralux.org
Postal Mail: Community of Terra Lux, Inc. | Fox Hill Lane #121 | Enfield, CT 06082

Marriage, Adultery, Organized Religion (August 06, 1987)

In the New Testament, Jesus refers to adultery. I imagine the New Testament does not tell everything.

Ah-h-h. The New Testament has been colored unfortunately by those who are political in their orientation. There are many interpretations from a language that is not familiar to you. The idioms of the language ~ it is written in a language that does not translate well into your English, and there is much that is lost, as well as the organized religions that developed from the teachings of Jesus. It has not turned out at all to be what He started it to be. This is most distressful ~ also, one of the reasons for the cleansing.

Organized religion on the earth plane now has not followed the path that it was meant to, and the teachings have lost their meaning. The teaching of Unconditional Love has been lost. The teaching of not wanting material possessions, not surrounding oneself with excesses in materialism ~ rather, giving what one has ~ has been lost. These organized religions on the earth plane now are very, very wealthy in terms of earth plane money and that has become the most important thing, and these true teachings have been put aside.

The issue of what you call adultery has also been lost in translation. You see, all references to what you call reincarnation have been pulled out of organized religion, except for those that were started by Buddha and other groups of people who have a strong orientation ~ understanding ~ of the light and the Soul. The organized religions today ~ these so-called Christian religions ~ do not want to discuss the reincarnation because it is very complex, you see. It is very easy to say, "Thou shalt not commit adultery." And I am saying essentially the same thing. This is a Law of The Universe, that when you are bonded with someone, that there is a love commitment there. And adultery is defined very differently, you see, in reincarnation's Soul ~ life of the Soul.

Marriage, as presented to the earth plane, was intended in a very different way than it has turned out, and the bonding of souls is a very complex subject and it is not something that can be applied to the masses and expect that everyone will adhere to it, because each soul has its own path and has its own lessons to learn, and those lessons need to be learned many times with different souls. You start off learning lessons with one individual, and the lessons either become learned, or you realize that you are not going to be able to accomplish in this life what you had hoped with someone, and you must let it go ~ at least for this lifetime ~ and carry on with another lesson.

The issue of marriage has become very muddled ~ and is used against people now. Souls are using it as a weapon against each other rather than seeing the bonding. You see one does not need a legal person to bond you. Marriage in its purest form is simply a bonding of two souls and a love commitment. To be married in the eyes of The Universe does not mean that you need a piece of paper that says you are married. This is where the confusion comes in, and over the centuries, has become misunderstood. And again, because of political reasons and self-interest and all of this, it has become institutionalized when in fact it is not. It is a Universal Law.

It is a most complex issue to discuss because an understanding of it, at the level that it really is, in its purest form, is difficult to explain in earth terminology ~ in earth understanding. And perhaps as we become more adjusted to all of you, and you to us, we will be able to explain this in greater detail. Have I addressed your concern at all?

Yes. I understand. Can we be bonded to more than one person at a time?

Oh, yes. This is where it gets so complex, my dear, and it is not necessarily wrong, you see ~ it can be ~ although it is not necessarily wrong ~ and in fact can be quite beautiful ~ and needs to be addressed on an individual basis many times. You should not feel any guilt if you feel a bond with more than one person. You see this whole issue of possession comes into play here. If you truly are of The Universe, you will recognize that there is nothing to feel threatened about if you feel bonded to more than one individual at the same time. When that is used in a negative way, it becomes a problem. Have I created additional concerns for you, my dear?

No. What you say is very beautiful. There are a lot of interactions where people marry, who are not marrying with their souls, for political reasons ~ security, and so forth.

Yes. That is correct.

Is The Story Of Noah In The Bible Based On Fact? (September 03, 1987)

Yes. That is the reference that I made to the last cleansing of the Earth. It is a parable, as it is referred to, although it is based upon what actually happened. The concept of two of everything ~ all life forms ~ is correct. It was not quite as cut and dry as the story which is given for understanding by the masses.

Will Jesus Return? (September 03, 1987)

He has become One. He may choose to separate from The One. At this point there is no need for Him to return.

Could You Explain How The Law Of Grace Works?

(October 01, 1987)

The Law of Grace as has been identified by Cayce, and works with what is referred to as karma. Those are terms that are used to describe what we at this dimension refer to more commonly as balancing. The terms karma and grace have been given in an attempt to help people to understand a very complex process. One balances the other. We could say that there is a debt and that by performing deeds of benefit, and good deeds, the Law of Grace then erases debt. This is, again, what we call balancing.

We do not view an activity as bad. We do not view things as bad. We view things as opportunities for growth. Even those of the darkness, the Sons of Darkness, are working through opportunities to grow. Their balancing is of course way out of kilter. The more good that you do, the more this helps your soul in its lessons to be learned, so that the balancing occurs. Think of a board that is teetering ~ and the grace that you need ~ you have an imbalance such as this ~ and the lesson that you need to learn is weighing you down. And the grace that you have potentially available to you begins to work, so that there becomes a balance eventually, and that particular grace balances the lesson, and then enables you to then take on the next lesson. And again, an imbalance will occur. As you learn the lesson, and you accumulate the grace, it balances again. That is a very simple explanation for a process that can become quite complex. Does that clarify?

Somewhat. Does The Creative Force ever directly intervene in giving grace, although one may not have earned it with good works, by prayer from some other source, or from one's own prayers?

Prayer from others is a very powerful source and can help to, in many cases, free the shackles that surround an entity because of deeds performed by that entity that were of the darkness, and can, in fact, in the freeing of that individual, enable them to start fresh. It then becomes the responsibility of that entity with the fresh start to do things in the right way. This works sometimes, and sometimes it does not. If the entity has not truly earned the lessons, then very often the attitudes and the behaviors are still remaining, and they go back to eventually their negative behavior.

The Creator is in all of us and intervenes, as I have described, although is not the cure. The Creator is dealing with free will. We all must prove ourselves worthy to become One again with The Creator. So, the same issue is here, that the slate can be wiped clean. However, the attitudes and behaviors are still there. Whether it was wiped clean by direct intervention or by prayers from others, it is still up to the entity as to the direction taken at that point. This is why it is so important that we encourage you to seek out your lessons and to learn them, and to truly balance, because only in that way will real change be affected and become a permanent part of who you are. Does that make sense? Of course, it does.

Is Any Part Of Us God?

(October 29, 1987)

Oh, my dear! The Soul is a part of The Creative Force. Each energy is a part of The Universe and of The Creative Force. And each energy, regardless of where they are on the path toward Oneness, is connected. I had discussed this in a previous session that the connection is actually a physical manifestation of a very thin cord. It is the only way in which, on the earth plane, you can understand this. It is something that is so very, very thin that I cannot even adequately describe it. Every energy is connected, literally connected, to the Universal Force, the God, if you would want to call it that. And that each and every one of us, and I include myself and all of The Angelic Force, we are all a part. We have a part of us that comes from The Creator. This is our soul. This is what makes us the vibration that we are, and it is connected of course.

The Higher Self, remember, is the key to the Soul. Think of the Higher Self as only a key. You have been given so much information, I fear, from too many sources, that you are being confused. It is one of the problems in our eagerness to give information from this dimension that some of the entities get a bit carried away.

Regarding Christian Theology And Signs Of The Last Days (October 29, 1987)

Most of us have been raised on Christian theology, and we have been taught that during the last days there would be many signs. Is this the time of which those old prophecies, or whatever they were, spoke?

Yes. It does not mean the end. You must remember that the prophecies of which you speak refer to an event, not the end of the world. It simply means that there will be a calling of energy and vibrations to give an account of their own progress toward Oneness with The Creator. As has been described in other times, other sessions, that when the Earth shifts, the vibration of the Earth will increase and those energies now who are increasing their own spiritual vibration will be aligned with the new vibration of the earth plane and will be given the choice as to whether they want to remain on the earth plane or to leave. Those energies who have not aligned themselves spiritually with the new vibration will not be allowed to stay and they will be taken from the earth plane. They will fight it, many of them. However, we will not allow them to stay. They will have to leave. This is the element of the end that you perhaps relate to. The Earth will not be uninhabitable.

Part of my mission here is to help prepare, as I have said before, groups, to prepare at a physical level when The Shift occurs so that once the earth plane settles back into its axis and things calm down, the new age will in fact continue. It has begun already, new age, change in attitudes. Then we will have the actual physical changes, and all that has become so polluted will cease, and there will be a cleansing. There will be a significant number of entities left who will begin the rebuilding process. The signs of course are already evident, not only the physical signs of the earth changes, the very dramatic changes in attitude that are occurring. This stock market is a very clear and strong message of the changes. It is a signal to let go of those things that possess you.

A Discussion Of Saints, And How They Fit Into The Picture (November 05, 1987)

Where do Saints fit in the picture? Are there Saints in that plane, or just because we call them Saints?

Yes. It is an earth plane term, of course, as you well know. The Saint, as it is referred to, is a very Highly Evolved Energy. In some cases, they are Angels in Training who have chosen to return to the earth plane for very significant teachings. They do not need to learn anything on the earth plane. Their lives on the earth plane have ceased. They return of their own free will to, at critical times in earth plane history, teach and give certain concepts and ideas to The Collective Consciousness of the Earth. In all cases, those who you call Saints are very Highly Evolved. Whether they are of The Angelic Force, or whether they are just simply evolved. is not the issue. They are strong vibrations, and they have the ability to communicate with you.

Thus, in the behavior of praying to the Saints, you are indeed praying to the High Vibrations who, on this side, are charged with the responsibility of Being of Service, just as I. They choose to Be of Service in many different ways. They make themselves available to help you at times in your incarnation, to give an added boost to what your guides are doing.

I lost something this week, and someone told me to pray to Saint Anthony because he finds things. She said ask for help. Are those designations correct?

Yes, indeed they are. It is part of the vibration. They have their assignments, just like all of you have your assignments. You have a Soul's purpose on the earth plane and your soul has purposes when it is in other dimensions, so that Saints have a purpose at a particular time. The history of humankind will evolve to the point where there will be a forgetting of the Saints because it will cross into history, and others will take their place. This will happen over hundreds and thousands of earth plane years, so that Anthony has a particular time frame in which he is dealing, many of thousands of years that he will be known as the one to contact. He is doing quite an admirable job ~ do you not agree?

A Question About Predestination (November 19, 1987)

Are you saying that whatever circumstances we come across in our lives, we have created them ourselves? And we are almost predestined?

You must be careful of the word predestined as defined on your earth plane. All that you encounter in your life in this incarnation is a result of your own seeking. Your soul comes in with a particular mission. Now you as an entity may not consciously be aware of certain lessons that need to be learned. However, your soul has a specific reason. As you begin to open your Spiritual Centers and are able to meditate and communicate with your guides, you are then able to touch the Soul memories, and you are given the knowledge of what you are here to learn, if you so choose to want to have that knowledge. Everything that you encounter is something that you need to encounter in order to fulfill your mission, in order to learn lessons.

A Question About Electing To Do The Will Of The Father (November 15, 1987)

In this lifetime I have heard a lot of talk about electing to do the Will of the Father. Is this something we elect to do before we come into this life?

No.

And when the choice is made, how does an entity know that they are in fact doing the Will of the Father, and not following after their own ~

This is a most complex topic, of course, and I will simply address it in this way for now. We will return to this subject in another session. Learning to accept the Will of The Creator is something that comes during an incarnation on the earth plane. It is something that prior to entering the incarnation the entity may indicate that they may like to learn this. It is not guaranteed. It is most difficult. Once that has been done, it signals that the entity is on their last incarnation on the earth plane. Accepting the total Will of The Creator means going with The Flow of whatever is happening and observing things unfolding. It is not something that can be adequately described to you in general terms. It is something very personal that occurs, and in future sessions I will give you some examples.

As many of you know, Mushiba is in her last incarnation and she can, in some situations, give you examples from her own behavior, letting things go to The Creator. It actually makes your final stay on the earth plane enjoyable and much easier.

A Discussion Of Organized Religion (December 10, 1987)

In the church, using the Catholic Church as an example, they are not too happy about hearing about psychic abilities. Could you please enlighten me as to why they have this way of looking at it?

They are terrified. All organized religions have a built-in self-interest for their own dogma and their desires to control and manipulate their followers. This is the function. Organized religion has as its mission to give direction to the masses, for the masses need direction. What becomes threatening is that psychic ability is a part of the spiritual. The spiritual has no organized direction for the masses. Spiritual relates strictly to the individual and the individual's responsibility for his or her own actions and not to be accountable to a church. Rather, to be accountable to themselves and to The Creator.

So, the Catholic Church is not unique in their reaction. There is the danger of any belief, to become organized. When that occurs then, any outside influence that threatens the structure of that organization is condemned as the work of the so-called devil. This is what occurs. The danger is ever present that idolization begins to occur, and this is evident in the spiritual as well. What begins as a spiritual belief and concept and following, becomes an idolization and that must not be allowed.

It was a problem that occurred in Atlantis ten thousand years ago when Mushiba and I were just giving out information and discussing spiritual values, and it began to be organized. And this is not good, where you come to depend upon something or someone outside of your own self to give you the answers. This is what organized religion does, you see. It gives answers. It makes things neat and tidy. "If you do this, you will go to heaven." And, "If you do this, you will not. You will go to Hell," which, of course, does not exist as it is described in religions.

Thus, when there is a belief that you are accountable for your own behavior, and you must make your own decisions and accept responsibility for your own lessons, then this becomes a threat to the status quo. And you will find now, in this accelerated time as we approach The Shift, that the shaking up of the status quo will be more evident on a daily basis, and there will at the same time be an ever-increasing condemnation of those of you who are seeking the truth through your own path of spiritual enlightenment.

You will be targeted by those who are very frightened. You must be strong. You will be called many names. Many of you have already experienced this. Know that those who deride you are unenlightened. You may be able to diffuse the darkness that surrounds them, and you may not. However, you need only be concerned about being who you are and letting the light that surrounds you speak for itself. This will continue at an accelerated rate between now and The Shift, this condemnation. So, expect more and more of it as the dividing occurs between those who are spiritual and those who are not.

Each of the organized religions has someone who they hold pretty close to The Creative Force, or to God. Like in the Christian religion, you have Christ, and then you have Mohammed and Buddha. How do these people relate to one another and how do they relate to The Creative Force, which I assume is God?

The Creative Force is whatever you would like to give as a name ~ God, of course, being the most popular on the earth plane at this time. Each religion that is now established and organized began on a spiritual belief, a base of spiritualism. If you would look back at, let us say, Jesus and the beginnings of what is now called Christianity, you would see a very different beginning than what is in existence now. This is true of all the organized religions. The tendency for energies on the earth plane is to organize and control others and to form structures in which they can manipulate and gain power over others. This is what happens and this is why I have mentioned the danger that is evident.

Now there are basically, how shall I say this, three energy forms who are responsible for the beginnings of the various organized religions that are now existing on the earth plane. These three energies have come in at the appropriate times to implant the ideas. Each of the organized religions on the earth plane now, if one were to take away all of the dogma that has developed, would find that the basic belief is a phrase known as, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." This is a very basic Universal Belief. It is lost in most religions now. You must strip away all of the dogma, and that is the thread of commonality. And these religions have been established at the appropriate time for very specific reasons to address very specific concerns on the earth plane at the time that they were brought about. So, there have been three energies who have taken on this task of coming onto the earth plane, and they have done this for millennia.

During the time of Atlantis, for example, there were several organized religions that had names that would not be familiar to you all now, and in the process of cleansing the records of these were lost, and so we started again. It is done specifically for lessons to be learned by all so that in order to return to your spiritual heritage you must experience the religion and the dogma as part of lessons to be learned.

You mentioned three entities. You did not give them an earth name, so to speak. Perhaps that might help me understand what you just said. Your point of reference was not clear to me, or to perhaps others.

Indeed. The energies, the three energies, are those who are what you might refer to as the founders of those major organized religions now operating on the earth plane. The Catholic being Jesus, as the example ~ the Buddha, and these energies came in, in specific material form. You must realize that they are of The One, and that they separate from The Creator for this very specific purpose.

It is also true that they separate from The Creator and incarnate in lesser life forms for themselves so that they can experience creature life?

They have no need to do that, my dear, for they have done it. They come in for very specific teaching. They have no need for lessons to be learned. They have learned. They are One. They come in to teach.

Did they ever have to learn?

Yes. They had lessons to be learned at levels that were much higher than any you would understand. They did not ever have to come onto the earth plane.

When you say that they are One, do you mean that they are completely at One with The Creative Force?

They are One with The Creator, and they separate from, by choice, by mission. Their mission is of the very Highest. And if you will refer to the discussions that we gave to you during our last session, in understanding the role of Oneness, know that you all come in at separate levels, and it is a very complex issue. And I am now aware that this is something that we must talk about at greater length perhaps in one session. I am aware that my group, and all those with whom I gather my information now, realize the complexity, and we ourselves must regroup in order to present this to you at a more understandable level. This is our mission, and I cannot emphasize this enough to you. My concern is that we are able to give you the information that you will understand. Know that the complexities are tremendous. So, I will, at this moment, cease the discussion of this particular issue so that we will address this in the future now that we have, shall I say, plugged into your energies and your concerns. We will map out our strategy, if you will.

Misinterpreting The Bible Due To Translations From One Language Into Another (February 02, 1988)

it is obvious to me, from what I have been told ~ that the Bible has been written by dictation from those who speak with God's permission, written through mediumship. It is disconcerting having people praying for my soul, for my deliverance, based on this particular thing that I am going to read you. It is from the book of Leviticus. Chapter Twenty, "Should anyone turn to mediums or fortune tellers and follow their wanton ways, I will turn against such a one and cut him off from his people."

You must realize that the words that were given so many eons ago have been translated from the language that is difficult to translate into other languages. And that meaning has been misinterpreted in some cases, and in other cases, not understood. The meaning itself was interpreted differently than it was intended. There is, as I have mentioned so many times, much information bombarding the earth plane, not only now, but in the past. And there will be those who will take a certain sentence or two, or three, or entire passages, and feel that this is a message that needs to be given to others.

There are many, as we discussed earlier, who believe it is their duty to save others. You cannot avoid them. The more that you seek the answers from within yourself, the more you will be susceptible to those who feel that you need to be saved, you see. For when you find the answers within yourself, you do not need externals. And when you do not need externals, then these externals lose the power that they have. And therefore, their status quo is lost, or shaken, or threatened. And they would want to maintain their power in telling you what to do.

There are those who believe that they have all the truths that are. Know that there is no one source that has come onto the earth plane that has all of the truths. The Bible contains a portion of the truth. It does not contain the entire message. No one source could contain all that is true. There is too much. And it would be too overwhelming for the limited abilities of the earth plane dimension. There are Universal Truths that are understood only when you are at other dimensions and at certain levels of attunement. It would be too comprehensive. However, you know this, my dear.

You must all realize that you will have people that will come to you and feel that you need to be saved. You do not believe as they do, and theirs is the only truth. And therefore, if you do not believe as they do, then you are damned. It is a most difficult lesson. And it is a test for you, each of you, to develop your own strength and to develop the faith that you must have in the connectedness of you, as an entity, with The Universe and with The Creator. Each energy form is connected to The Creator. You must never lose sight of that. You must have faith in that. And when the tests come, it is a test of your own faith. It is not an easy path that many of you choose. For there will be many who will deride you and claim that you are evil.

Teaching Children A Spiritual Path ~ Organized Religion Versus Other Paths (February 02, 1988)

I have children. I am comfortable with following my own path ~ not being part of an organized group, a church, or a temple, I was raised Jewish and then left that. I haven't been able to deposit my children in the care of a religion because of my inability to find a religion that believes as I believe that we are all connected. So, I am left with raising my children spiritually and trying to interpret their lives in the manner I think is right. And every once in a while, I get my doubts, thinking that I wish I could send them to church like all the other little children in town, or synagogue. So that is my quandary.

Yes. However, you realize, my dear, that you are helping these souls who have come in through you to develop their spiritual paths, and that because of your beliefs, you could not send them to a church or synagogue or any organized religion, for religion within the context of your life is not appropriate. Remember that I say WITHIN THE CONTEXT OF YOUR PARTICULAR LIFE. Religion is appropriate where it is appropriate for those who have chosen it to help them. You are at a point in your own path. And the path that your children have, they have chosen to come in through you for many reasons, one of which is specifically to help them evolve spiritually. And you are doing a most difficult task, especially in the resistance of the pressure that comes to you for not bringing your children to church, that they will become heathens.

But they believe in so much beauty.

Yes. You see, these are the externals who levy this upon you. And that does not matter, for they are beautiful, and they are seeing the broader picture. And having the spiritual feelings will give, in this particular case, a much better orientation. They are here, by the way, these entities of yours, to help in The Shift of the axis. They are very advanced.

A Brief Mention Of The Easter Season (March 29, 1988)

We are aware of the time now on the earth plane that is in preparation for the celebration of the sacrifice that the entity Jesus gave. And we are most pleased at the attunement of so many souls currently on the earth plane who take this time to meditate and to pray for the uplifting of not only themselves but of those around them. Amelius, as is referred to in the information that has come through from other sources before I, is the beginnings of the condition known as human, and it is His Kingdom of which I am a part.

Is It Possible For Jesus, Or Amelius, To Manifest Themselves To Someone? (April 19, 1988)

Several people claim to have seen, or to have as guides Jesus, Amelius, and so on. Is this possible?

Amelius on occasion manifests himself to energy forms for whatever reasons He might have. It is not necessarily because a person is of a very high vibration or even of a very low vibration. I have learned not to question Amelius. He, however, does not serve as a guide to any particular person. The role of guide is given out to all of what you might call the underlings, including myself, you see. Amelius is what you might call the Supreme Commander of this Kingdom which I am charged with, taking care of, and reporting to Amelius. However, He does on occasion enter the vibration of energy forms. There are of course impostors attempting to represent Amelius, just as there are those attempting to represent me.

Praying For Those Who Pass Over (May 03, 1988)

The organized religion, the church, has always said to pray for people when they pass over. Now after this discussion, I kind of got the idea that our souls do a great job, or try to do a great job, before they pass over, and come back. How does that tie in?

You must understand that from the beginning we have indicated the issue of free will. And that many times the manifestations that occur, and the free will that enters in, regresses a soul, or even if it does not regress, and in fact does help, and the entity moves ahead, all of us need the prayers of each other. And so regardless of the situation, when there is a moving about from dimension to dimension, there is an increased need for prayer, for assistance, especially moving out of the earth plane into whatever dimension is necessary to go. It is a tremendous shock to the energy form.

There are certain conditions that surround the earth plane that create this, which we will not enter into discussing at this point, but it does mean that because of the conditions that create entrapment on the earth plane, there are situations when an energy form, when leaving the earth plane, runs into difficulty. Even if they do not run into difficulty, it can be a very traumatic transition. For some it is not, but for most it is. And prayer not only helps other energy forms but it also helps you who do the praying. And if a particular energy is undergoing simultaneous lives, it means that one part of the energy has left the earth plane and one part is still on the earth plane, and this creates a whole set of situations in itself which we won't get into at this point. However, to basically answer your question, prayer is of the utmost importance. It is a Universal condition for life. It is the affirmation of love for each other.

Difficulties In Discussing All This With People In The Organized Religion (May 31, 1988)

This is the difficulty that I have in telling people in the organized religions, because they say there is heaven, hell, and purgatory, and that is it. And I am telling them there is more than that and they say, "Please do not change my ideas."

Then do not try. People will hear only what they are ready to hear and need to hear. Do not try to save the world, for the world will not be saved unless it wants to be. And you must not try to force yourself upon others, and force your beliefs. Unless they are ready to hear, they will not, and especially if they ask you not to, then back off, by all means.

Organized Religion And Dogma (July 05, 1988)

Regarding a church bulletin that I have. There is an item in it that I really do not agree with. It is in reference to the reception of Christ's body in the Eucharist. And it basically is saying if you are not a Catholic, then you cannot receive communion in their particular church because even though you may be of the Christian religion, we are not one. And that is exactly the opposite of my beliefs.

Indeed. As we have indicated so often before, the organized religions are designed with certain types of dogma to appeal to the masses and to set a certain perspective to the masses, to in essence answer the questions of behavior. And in their original form, each of these religions come from the Light, they come from the pure, and the message that comes from the origins of each of these religions is the same, that being the phrase "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." This is a Universal concept.

What occurs, however, is that ~ and this is a predictable type of situation ~ is that the dogma begins to overtake the origin and, shall we say, the politics and all of those entrapments that are common to the earth plane, the power struggles, the control issues, all of these particular things begin to root themselves, and gradually the essence of the origin of the religion dilutes and gets, shall we say, shrouded within the environment of the day. And in this particular situation, as the time of the cleansing approaches, there is a stronger need for control by those who have what is called the organized religions.

They are feeling threatened by the fact that so many question now what they say, and so many are seeing that there are many answers that are found within the Self, and that God, as it is defined on the earth plane, is available to all, for each of us is a part of the God, and that it is not, in fact, restricted to those who run these religions, and that it is in fact not restricted to one particular religion, that if you do not belong to a particular group, you cannot be saved, you will be doomed if you do not adhere to being of a particular religion.

All of their controls and their powers are being shaken by so many now who have taken onto themselves the belief that the One, that the God, as it is referred to, is available to each of you simply by going within yourself and connecting to The Universal Consciousness which is the God, The Universal One. And so, what begins to happen now, my dear, as you are feeling, and is being felt by so many, is when you read or hear this type of information it triggers in you something that says, "No. This does not agree with what I believe in."

Recognize, however, that there will be many who adhere to that philosophy, who will take that and say, "Yes. This is true. I belong to this religion, and therefore I am privileged, I am chosen." There is a tendency to be a part of an elite group, to be the chosen ones, and there is no such thing. All are chosen. All are part of the chosen. We are all One, eventually. We are all part of the God. There is no one energy form any better than another energy form, just different attunements and different levels of advancement and different missions. We, as I have said before, of The Angelic Force are no better than anyone else. We simply have different goals, shall we say, and we are all here for the same purpose, and that is to grow, to learn, and to become part of The Creative Force once again.

I think it is so much more beautiful to think of it in your way than it is to think of it in the closed organized religion, although I am not going to say anything about organized religion because without that I would not be here.

Know that organized religion serves a very distinct purpose. It is not to be said that it is evil, for it is not. As everything that exists on the earth plane, there is purpose and reason and order to it for lessons to be learned, and religion reaches a great number of people who need it, who are at particular levels of advancement where that is what helps them. And so be it. It serves its purpose.

A Question From Someone Who Has Been Feeling The Presence Of Jesus (July 26, 1988)

The entity Jesus, known as many names, will very frequently come into the vibration of particular entities who have called upon him for particular assistance and with whom he also has a connection with from other incarnations, for he has incarnated many, many, many, many times. In this particular case, you have a very particular connection with the entity and at the Soul Level you know that you can call upon this entity in times of need, and that is what has occurred. The entity has, therefore, come in response to your distress call at your Soul Level which has been sent out. So, yes, the entity will stay with you until that issue that brought him into your vibration is resolved. He is able to be in any place at any time for he is part of The Creator.

Is The Cleansing The Equivalent Of The Second Coming? Will Amelius Be Closer? (September 13, 1988)

The mythology that has been presented over time since the last cleansing makes reference to what is referred to as a second coming. There have been many comings. This will not be the second one. There have been hundreds and hundreds of them. And yes, at the time of each cleansing, the Master, the Super Master Souls, as we might call them, Amelius and those others who are at his Level, enter onto the earth plane vibration at a much closer level.

My coming at this time is paving the way, shall we say. I am a special emissary to Amelius, and as many of you have experienced, Amelius has sent his energy through me and through Mushiba. This will be felt more frequently as the time approaches for the cleansing, and Amelius will present his energy form at the time that it is necessary.

The mythology that you hear of where there will be the lining up of souls to be judged is in fact already occurring and will, as we have indicated before, at the time of The Shift there will be those who will be allowed to stay and those who will not be allowed to stay.

This is, in fact, the manifestation of that which has been passed on from the last cleansing. And that which was referred to in the information known as the Bible, that is channelled information and presented in a way that would be understandable to the masses, presented in, as Amelius did when he took on the form of Jesus, that in parable form, stories that would be understandable to the masses, and so that which has been presented will be as has been written. It just will not be in quite the way that it is perceived. There will not be a throne where someone sits down with a crown on his head and says, "You come ~ you go ~ you stay ~ you leave."

And the trumpets playing by the angels.

The trumpets playing by the angels. We refer to wings, for this is the symbolism that was necessary to present an image. Our energy forms do not have these things you think of as wings. We simply have a high attunement which differentiates us, those of us of The Angelic Force, from those who are not. It does not mean we are any different, for we are all energy forms. It is simply that we are here to serve. We in this kingdom are here to serve Amelius. In any other kingdoms they, The Angelic Force, serve their Masters.

Waith Discusses In Detail The Issue of Predestination Versus Free Will (September 13, 1988)

Are events in our life predetermined and premeditated? As an example, a cassette tape that contains music. It is already recorded and as the tape is being played the audience learns more about the music. Another example is a playwright has already written a drama and the drama is staged. Every event is already predetermined because the playwright already wrote it. As far as the audience is concerned, they do not know what lies ahead. For them it is like a new experience because they do not know what is still to come. Therefore, everything is a wonderful experience. Is that similarly the case in our life in that all events are preordained, predetermined, and everything is fixed, and that it is unfolding itself at a slow pace, and that we have no free hand in this?

Not really. What occurs is those who are at higher vibrations are able to plug into The Universal Consciousness and see that which has already happened. There is free will. This is a very basic issue. All energy forms have their own free will. There is no other energy form that is controlling what is done, so each of you has a mission, and that which you will do will be determined by you.

However, because of The Universe, and the fact that all mingles, and there is no beginning and no end, if you are at a certain level, you are able to see the past, the present and the future, much as you would see on, perhaps, a movie screen. And so therefore, for example, I am able to know exactly what is occurring, what is going to occur with each and every one of you. I am not allowed to tell you this information, for it would infringe upon that which must be and that which you must do in order to learn your lessons.

It is not that it is predetermined, for it is not. It is simply that you will do certain things, that because we are able to see the future, we know will be done. It is very complex issue and one in which many have difficulty in understanding. Many of you understand this without any problem. Many of you will have difficulty in understanding it. We allowed it to come onto the record so that we could present a basic information.

Predestination, as it is referred to, is really not what it is, but rather an ability to know what will happen simply because we are at a level, you see. I know everything that is going to happen to all of you. I can give you only information that is relating to that which will not interfere with your free will. It is why I will not be, as you might say, a fortune teller. You must be cautious of those who would tell you the future.

There seems to be a contradiction. The contradiction is you say you know as to what is to happen in the future, but that means to say it is all predetermined.

No, no.

On the other hand, you say there is free will, and that things are under our control. In our lives we see many a time we have no control, we are helpless, many times we desire one thing and exactly the opposite will happen. In other words, had it been free will it would take shape according to what we want.

No, not at all, my son, for if you work with The Universe then that which must be will be. It is when you work against the ~ that problems develop, for that which you feel you must have, may not in fact be what your soul determines for you to have. And it is through meditation that you come in touch with your soul and what the Soul wants and not what the physical manifestation wants, and that is where the working of free will enters in. It is not predetermined. It is simply that we are able to see that which has happened from this vantage point. If we were working at the present, we would not know.

There are many who would come through from this dimension and channel, as you would say, who do not have access to the higher levels of The Universal Consciousness and are not able to see completely that which is to unfold. Because of the level of where I am, I have this ability. You must learn to work with The Universe and the free will then become a working with The Universal Consciousness and there is a flow. We do not determine ahead of time what you will do, but we know what you will do. This is the difficulty in understanding.

You can only say as to what is to happen, provided it is bound to follow that path, and then what is the meaning of free will? The word free will denotes there is an option or a change. The change can be a new way from before, and to take a new path altogether. And if that be the case, no one could predict as to what is to happen because of so many variables involved. If there are no variables, and if there is one straight path, then there is only one path and therefore prediction becomes easy. Because of the free will and because of so many ties and variations, and combinations, and permutations possible, it looks like an impossible task. And since you say the future is already known, it gives the impression that you go a straight path and no one can play with it, it is all fixed, it is all predetermined, and no force on earth can change it.

No, my son. Our being able to know the future does not mean that we control. It simply means that we know what you end up doing. We do not transgress upon your soul. We do not say to you this is what you must do. We do not control that. We simply are able to see that which you end up doing. We in no way influence that which you do. You do this yourself.

There is a great difference between being able to see the future and controlling that which will occur. It is something that many will not be able to understand and to comprehend. It is a Universal complexity. A way in which you can begin to understand it is through your Higher Self. Your soul understands this concept, and by going to your Higher Self and unlocking the secrets of your own soul, you will begin to be given the wisdom of this and the understanding of it.

It is very positive that you have raised the question, for it is an issue that many need to deal with and to come to grips with, shall we say, come to terms with, for there is much misunderstanding about this that is called predetermination and much misunderstanding where free will is concerned.

Many feel that by working with The Universe that one is simply giving into that which is being controlled by some external force. Remember that each of you is connected to The Universal Consciousness ~ we all are ~ and that you are, in fact, when connecting with your Higher Self, connecting with The Universal Consciousness and that which will guide you in making your decisions.

It will be difficult for many of you to understand this, but not impossible. And it supports again what we say so often about your own meditations and finding the answers within yourself. You see, we are not here to give you the answers. We are here to guide and to give certain kinds of information.

We are allowed from the higher sources to give out information, for example, concerning the cleansing, but only a certain amount. There is much that we are not able to give out for it would be an interference upon free will. We know what is going to happen, you see. That is part of our frustration, for we know what is going to happen and we want to say to you, "This is what you need to do," but we are not able to do that. You must learn this yourself for it gives you the lessons and the testing. We know if you are going to pass a test, for example, and we sit here, as you might say, and observe it, and we are here to help you through the test and to be of comfort to you as you seek your own answers, for that is the only way each of us grows is by seeking answers.

Farena has asked me to tell you, dear one, that she would be most honored if you would call upon her in your meditations for assistance in unraveling this mystery that you find difficult to understand. She would be most honored to help you in seeking the answers from your soul.

I would be grateful for this because in spite of your long explanation in clear language, easy language, some of it is still not quite clear.

We are aware of this. Remember we have said from the very beginning that we are here to present what is very, very complex information in as simple a way as possible. There are simply some Universal Concepts and information that is so very difficult to present, to translate into understanding. Some of you in this gathering understand this without any difficulty. Others will have some questioning now and will seek an understanding of it. Others may not be able to fully understand it in this particular lifetime, but have begun the search for the understanding. Remember that if you understood all, then you would not be here.

The Definition Of What Is Referred To As A “Sin” (October 11, 1988)

Waith, Amelius is on record as saying that the only unthinkable sin is a sin against the Holy Spirit. I take that in the context, that whatever one does to prevent oneself from receiving the Holy Spirit, because of harboring ill will or an unforgiving attitude ~ am I close to being on track?

Indeed. To sin, the use of the word is given as symbolism for that which relates to the Soul itself. If you deliberately and consciously impede your own growth in a way that you say that you want to be away from the Light, you want to be dark, then that creates what might be called SIN. Remember that there ~ while it might be said it would be unforgivable, it is not, for all have the opportunity to return to the One, for The Creative Force is all forgiving, but if one were to sin against themselves, this is the ultimate.

The Issue Of “Sin” ~ Where The Darkness Can Come In And Entrap You (October 11, 1988)

There is always the ability to return, but the journey will never be completed, for there has been such deliberate affiliation with the dark. And this is where discussion of the darkness would enter, for there are those many entities who are of the dark, who attempt to convince you of the benefits of being of the dark, the illusions of great things. This is very common. They make it appear for some entities, for they do become trapped in a sense, and they are trapped by their own attitudes, for they feel that they are of the dark and that they must stay there, and there is ever more enticement for the strong of the dark to keep those who are newly initiated into the intense darkness.

When we discuss the issue of the forces of dark and Light, know that the dark tries to destroy the Light, for as the Light tries to diffuse the dark and tries to bring Light into the dark and to bring the dark into the Light, there is no attempt to destroy the dark but rather to help. And thus, the battles occur, as it might appear to be a battle. The Light views it simply as a challenge and as part of the mission to help all entities, each other, to reach Oneness. And so it is, as you learn Unconditional Love, the way in which you interact with the dark changes and it becomes a different way in which you interact. But as you change it will become clear to you the way in which you interact with the dark changes.

So yes, you are correct. The use of the word sin is appropriate for understanding on the earth plane, for if you feel that you are doing wrong and continue to do it, then it is sin. If you do wrong, as you perceive it, and attempt to change, then it is not sin, and you progress. If you do wrong, as you perceive it, and continue, then you regress, and that is where you can slip into the hands of the darkness. And so it is not in the fact that you would do wrong, as you perceive it, but rather in the way that you would respond to that, for there is no wrong, only the way in which you respond. If you feel it is and continue then it truly is ~ the more that you do this, the more you sin against yourself, and the further away from The Oneness you become.

On the other hand, the bright side of it is that as you have your awarenesses of issues being presented to you for challenge, and if you may not meet that challenge in a way that you would perceive the best way, that as you recognize that you had this opportunity presented to you and that you will try to do better the next time, you will indeed progress and grow ever so slight ~ slightly in your Lightness.

Discussion Of The Misinterpretation Of The Antichrist (October 11, 1988)

That which has been described as the antichrist in the vernacular is rather misinterpreted and a bit misunderstood, for it will not be one entity in physical embodiment as has been believed, but rather it is better explained as a representation of the forces of dark and Light at the time of the cleansing and representative of the darkness and the force that that darkness can, in fact, have.

There is much misunderstanding now on the earth plane about this that is called the antichrist, and it would perhaps be a very interesting Special Topics for us to address at some time in the near future, for there are many who would not care to hear what we would have to say about this, and therefore, as in all Special Topics Sessions, those who would want to hear it and are ready to hear it would have the opportunity. How does that strike you? Then you could address some specific questions.

A Question About What Is Referred To As Judgement Day, in Organized Religion (November 15, 1988)

I have a question from one of my acquaintances that belongs to a fundamental religion. The quote is, "At the Great Judgement, what will happen to those whose names are missing from God's Book of Life?" This is the question, and Revelation states that, "And whosoever was not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire." And then it continues ~ "And shall be tormented day and night, forever and forever." Now, I say the Great Judgement would be the referral to The Shift, I assume.

Well, you must realize that much information that comes through is given in a way, as we said before, that would be understood by particular groups of people, that would be appropriate for a particular group of people. What does happen over time is that it gets misinterpreted, and references to the GREAT JUDGEMENT could in some perspectives indicate the DAY OF JUDGEMENT. There is no Day of Judgement, per se, not as it is being interpreted on the earth plane, for that would imply that there is a beginning and an end, and that when that particular day of judgement came, if you were not UP-TO-SNUFF, then that was it, you were doomed for eternity.

This is simply not the case. There is hope always. It is eternal. And there are simply certain points on the earth plane, and this is strictly an earth plane phenomenon, where an accounting is taken, much like a simple evaluation to see where everybody is in their development and where they might need to go to develop in other levels. And simply to say that you are not vibrationally attuned, for the new earth plane does not indicate a negative by any means, it simply indicates that the earth plane has increased in its vibration and you are not ready for that vibration, you are not harmonious with it, and so you must go someplace else for the time being until you can become vibrationally attuned to the earth plane, and then you can return.

There is no damnation as these types of proclamations imply. There will be a meeting with The Creative Force of all entities, and it will be done very quickly, in an instant. It is not as you might envision where you would need to stand in line and go up to someone who has a book in front of him and has your good deeds, and your not-so-good deeds. This is just not what occurs. It is an instantaneous evaluation of where everybody is on their path back to The Creative Force. This includes those of the very, very darkest Spectrum, for they are on their path back, just it may take them much, much longer. There is eternity.

Be Careful Of Judging Others For Their Beliefs (November 15, 1988)

You are telling me something that I have heard you say before, Waith. I just think that the best thing for me is to repeat this and let the people go, because the fundamentalists are very difficult. They feel that if you do not read the Bible and interpret it that hell and damnation awaits us.

They are free to believe this, for they are at, these individuals, they are at a particular point in their path, in their own development, and they have certain lessons to learn in this particular manifestation that they have chosen, lessons to learn that they will in fact reach certain people who may in fact grow spiritually from their teachings. You must realize that there is a time and place and purpose for all, and you must learn not to be judgemental but simply to accept each person's views as their views, and that it is perfectly fine, and if it does not agree with yours, then that is just fine also.

Each of you, each of all of us, are at a certain level in our own growth, and that is what we need to be concerned about, the progression of our own soul, knowing that the progression of our own soul is intimately and directly related to the way in which we think of others and interact with others.

We are all One. I have said this many, many times. We are all connected, not just the energy forms known as humans, but in The Spirit and in The Animal Kingdom, and in The Mineral Kingdom, and in everything there is a consciousness, and all are connected, and whatever you do affects someone or some other energy at some other point in the scheme of things, and that is what we all try to achieve in our growth and that is Unconditional Love and the ability to accept any and all, for who they are, and where they are, and what they do. Nothing should threaten you if you feel secure in yourself.

A Discussion of Organized Religions (December 06, 1988)

I just finished a book about The Fatima Prophecies ~ and that perhaps the Blessed Virgin was attempting to tell people that there will be a shift, ~ however, using different words. And at the same time, the church has withheld the third secret, as they say. Now, would this be that The Shift would be occurring but perhaps using their word chastisement or tribulation as those two words are interchangeably used?

Yes, indeed. Remember that the organized religions are feeling very threatened by this occurrence, for the party line for organized religions has been the so-called day of judgement and they have indicated that it is an end, and it is not, of course, as we have been discussing. It is only a beginning of a new phase and taken in the context of religion serves to be very limiting, serves to be that which all will end, and it is a contradiction in their own statements that there is no beginning and there is no end. Eternity is forever. And yet, organized religion would tout that there is an end. This simply is not so, of course, and because of the political structures that have developed in the organized religions, as we have talked about in detail before, this whole idea of a shift of the earth's axis frightens their power structure. They feel that they lose control over the masses and that they will be found out, so to speak.

Mary has been giving information over thousands of years. This is part of the mission of this particular lifeline preparing for The Shift and giving it again in ways appropriate to the audience, just as all others who are charged with the responsibilities of giving out information have certain audiences. This is all determined by Amelius. It is Amelius who determines who of us give out information and what it is that we give out, and if it appears to be of confusion or conflict it is meant for reasons known to Amelius and some others who are charged with this.

All information given out is identical in its end result for it will be perceived accordingly by the audiences who have received it and will be appropriate for their own paths and their learning point along that path so that it will prepare them for the coming shift in the way that is appropriate for them. Some will stay and some will not.

Those of organized religion will say, "Well, the church will not give it out because it would scare too many people."

Yes, it is one more device in which they try to control the masses and keep the masses thinking that they are incapable of handling information and that they ~ the leaders ~ are The Protectors and they will take care, you see. It is all part of their own power structure.

This is an organized religion question. There is a woman at work who I gave a reading to, and she noticed that it addressed Easter. And she wanted to know if you had anything to say about Chanukah.

Actually, there is a great deal that we would say regarding the issue of Judaism within the Christian experience, as Amelius when he incarnated as Jesus had very specific lessons to teach in forming what is called the new religion, and we feel that this topic would be better served, for it is very lengthy in its discussion, that it would be a very good special-topic session.

There are some very interesting and intriguing topics here that relate far more than just the formation of a new organized religion, rather an entire issue of lessons. Each period of time between cleansings has its own set of organized religions, call it Christianity, Judaism, Buddhism, any of those that are currently manifesting, and we think this would be a very interesting topic for special discussion.

Special Topic Session ~ Religions ~ Importance Of Religion In The Progress Of Souls (March 05, 1989)

Once again, we gather for discussion of a very particular topic that has been presented as of interest that we would devote some more elaborate information than has been given out. The issue of religion is always one that is of interest, and on the earth plane the formation of what you know as religion is very important for the progress of your souls from cleansing to cleansing, and that in between each of the cleansings there occurs major religions.

You find now on the plane a number of major religions, Judaism, Christianity, being the what might be called the dominant religions from which the others gain their base. The religion, as you would call it, founded by the entity known as Buddha is not in the same classification of the religions that you are acquainted with, for it has a very, very metaphysical base to it, and is available for learning at the spiritual level by any who choose to come into the environment, into the culture that would foster this way of thinking and this belief. It will not enter into our discussions during this session, for it was brought onto the earth plane by a very high entity, the entity Buddha being from one of the other Kingdoms, and his charge being very specific on the earth plane for presentation of lessons and growth opportunities.

Discussion Of The Religions Of Christianity And Judaism (March 05, 1989)

We will discuss Judaism and Christianity as a beginning to give you a base of understanding, for this comes from The Kingdom of Amelius and it was given to him as a charge to implement on the plane. He began with Judaism, or that which you know as Judaism, and He entered in, Amelius, during many time frames to move along the philosophies. It was meant vibrationally for this time of between the cleansings, from one to the other, to serve appropriate energy forms and for very specific lessons, lessons related to what you know as prejudice, tolerance, and very, very strong issues of group cohesion.

Judaism was established in such a way that those who would in their incarnations come in and be a part of the culture of Judaism, would in fact have a certain type of strength of soul developed and would learn a certain degree of prophecy. There is the belief that has come through the ages that those in the religion, and also it is a culture, of Judaism are chosen. That has been a bit misinterpreted, since all are chosen, and it is the energy who chooses the opportunity, and the opportunity of this particular religion enables energies to learn strength of character.

One Must Experience The Religion Of Judaism To Grow Toward The Oneness (March 05, 1989)

The issues of understanding The One, The God as it is called, are very ingrained in this philosophy of Judaism, and it is with this ingrainment that comes the Soul's reaching ability toward The Oneness. It is a religion that in order for an entity to grow toward The Oneness in a proper way, must experience. It cannot be bypassed. Those who would want to bypass the experience will find themselves having to experience another type of situation once the cleansing has occurred. It cannot be escaped. One cannot complete the earth plane sojourn without the experience that goes with Judaism, be it in this illusion that you all understand or the new that will be presented after the cleansing. Approximately five hundred to eight hundred years after the cleansing the counterpart of what is now Judaism will be presented.

Now, the Christianity that you all understand as being founded by the entity Jesus, know that Christianity and Judaism were both presented by Amelius. They come from the same source. They are complimentary. And Christianity is meant to serve as a catalyst for the Judaism experience and that many, many lessons are learned as a result of the interaction of the two, for there is much prejudice that exists on the earth plane. It is one of the major lessons that is on the earth plane. It is part of the experience.

And judgement, as we have talked about so often, works hand in hand with prejudice, this feeling and belief that one is better than the other. And those in Judaism and those in Christianity now incarnated are both equally responsible for the issues of prejudice. Each hold it toward each other. This is as it has been set up for you as energies to enter in to learn.

Christianity believes that they are One, that they are the answer to the problems, that they are indeed the chosen ones, and like all religions that have been formed, much has been lost from the original information given. This is predictable, and this is all part of the earth plane experience. It is all part of an energy coming in at a particular time in the evolution of the religion.

Many came in at the onset of the religion and found a very different experience than when they came in during the middle of the evolutionary process of the religion. And as it nears completion for this phase, it is very different, and there are many entities who have chosen for their own growth to come in at various points of the evolution for each of the religions, finding for themselves a very different perspective and giving them opportunities to work on the prejudice and the judgement that is part of the earth plane set-up of lessons.

Amelius, when he entered in as Jesus, had a very specific scenario that needed to be played out in order for certain points to be made, as we might say, and it was serving as the catalyst for the final two thousand years before the next shift. Remember that this shift that comes now is a major shift. There has been another shift in between Atlantis of ten thousand years ago and now, and that was a minor one. It was a minor cleansing. This, in the scheme of the earth plane, is major, and therefore takes on certain vibrational dimensions that require events to move in a certain direction for lessons to be learned. The folklore that surrounds Jesus and what he did is meant to be part of the illusion, and we find it from this end to be very interesting, just as any information that comes through from a higher source over time begins to erode somewhat in its interpretation.

Know that just as those in Judaism have been tortured and killed, so too in Christianity has this occurred. There are occurrences that have not gone on the public record at points in time that none of you are aware of and that masses, killings of both Judaism and Christianity, have occurred over the past eight thousand years, for Judaism began much far ago than is given credit and is understood. Christianity is the tail end of it. It is really the catalyst for the entire experience of prejudice.

In terms of those who have lost what you would call their lives as a result of affiliation with a particular religion, Judaism, Christianity, it is equal. One has balanced out the other. This has occurred through millennia. It is part of the experience of standing up for what you believe in, gaining strength of soul, having beliefs that are spiritual in their base, beliefs in the God, the One, and saying to the world that you will die for your beliefs.

Strength of Conviction ~ Part Of The Earth Plane Experience Is Dying For Your Religion (March 05, 1989)

It is a part of the experience and all energy forms ~ and hear this well ~ all energy forms, in order to be released from the earth plane sojourn, must have experienced at least once, a dying for their religion. If this does not occur for some of you before this shift, then you simply will wait until the religions have established themselves once again for you to come in and experience it.

This concept, understandably, will not be accepted by a great many entities, will not understand the reason for what is called mass death. There are very specific reasons for mass death, which we will discuss at another time. To have mass amounts of entities leaving at the same time, in the same time frame, is critical for lessons of the Soul. It is not to be viewed as negative but rather as positive and not to be thought of as occurring only for a particular group of energies, and that because they did it, they were part of the mass leaving departure, that something is wrong with them, with their souls, that perhaps they have not progressed as they need to. Quite the contrary. All must experience it in order to finish the earth plane.

Some choose to go through this experience several times for their own path's growth. You will see many around you who have a strength of what you would call conviction. You can rest assured that they have gone through this at least once. Those who have a very strong sense of belief in their own values have experienced the departure through religion.

Religion is very, very, very important for the attainment of spiritual growth, for once you have understood the purpose of religion and how it helps you to move toward Oneness, you then are able to integrate that and bring it into a higher spiritual context. For many, they will leave behind their spiritual ~ their religious orientation to take on the spiritual. Others will integrate and continue to practice, as you would say, their religion while also seeking truths from other sources, and that eventually they will come into an incarnation where religion plays no part in their life and they simply will work at the spiritual.

Discussion Of The Holocaust ~ Issue Of Mass Departures ~ Learning And Teaching (March 05, 1989)

Did I understand you to say that the Holocaust may have been a mass departure of people of Jewish religion?

Indeed, it was. It ~ remember that in, during its time frame, it is part of the cleansing, and that it was necessary just as there have been other mass departures since then due to natural, what would appear to be natural, earth occurrences ~ earthquakes, for example, where hundreds and hundreds depart. It was simply an opportunity presented to many, depending upon their stage of development in their path. Some simply knew that given the time frame on the earth plane that they would indeed physically, age wise, be able to still be on the earth plane when the cleansing came. They knew that at the Soul Level that they would not be spiritually, vibrationally attuned at that time, and made the decision that they would take the experience and the growth that would go along with it to become part of the mass departure.

Many, many of those individuals now await the cleansing from this end and are prepared to enter in when the new vibration has settled, for they, in choosing to go through that experience, raised themselves vibrationally to the point where they now would be acceptable on the earth plane. Others who chose this experience did so for teaching. They were highly evolved, and remember that a great deal of teaching occurred.

Much was learned as a result of this. Much was gained at the Soul Level. And there were many, many entities who, being of a high advancement, came into particular families, and they were the one out of the family who became part of the mass departure, leaving behind others. They taught those who were left behind. In many, many different ways there was high teaching of, as we have said before, the sense of conviction, a belief in the truth that you have chosen. It becomes very important that you each have a strong sense of the truth as you see it, as you know it. There are many truths. There are many, many truths.

Waith Discusses A Period Of Reflection Of Life After Departing, And Judgment Of Souls (March 05, 1989)

On the other hand, the people who do this, which to us is certainly a horrible act ~ how are they judged at the time, or is that left along their soul's path?

Judgement, remember, if you were to use that term at the spirit level, is done by Amelius and his crew. There are five at the level of Amelius, and it is they who, if you were to use this word JUDGE, do this. No other. What occurs is that each entity, when departing, always needs to then go into a period of reflection on what was accomplished in the life and is then what you might call a discussion ensuing. Those of us at the Highest of The Angelics are on occasion brought into these evaluations. Generally, it is done by Amelius and other ~ the other four. It is done rather quickly. It is not what you might think of as taking days and days, going into an office with a table. ☺ ☺ It is done at spirit in a very rapid manner.

When there are mass departures it takes a little bit longer, and that is when we are allowed to come in and help in the evaluations. We do not make the final decision. That is left only at the Highest of the Kingdom. We simply give our recommendations based upon all of the information that comes from the entire line of command, recognizing that each energy has a guide and that guide reports to their boss who reports to their boss and so on and so on until it comes up to Amelius. This is done very, very rapidly. In your time frame it would be a matter of seconds that this is accomplished. Some then go onto Work Planets. Others go into other dimensions. Depending upon what we would call the trauma that the Soul has experienced as a result of its life will determine the next step.

Remember that we do not judge by way of Light or dark, for Light and dark, as we have said before, is a matter of perspective in comparison to others. It is simply an evaluation of the effect upon the growth of the energy. If it has had a positive effect, certain things happen. If it has had a less than positive effect, other things will happen.

One Cannot Incarnate Into Christianity Until They Have Incarnated Into Judaism (March 05, 1989)

The religions of Judaism and Christianity serve as very strong vehicles for lessons, and one cannot incarnate into that of Christianity until they have incarnated into Judaism. It is a progression, but once that has occurred there is switching back and forth, you see. So, it starts with Judaism and goes to Christianity and then it can go back and forth. Know that once the entity has given up, as you might say, the life for the belief, then that lesson is learned and other lessons can then be taken on by going into other religions such as that which is called Protestant, you see. This is ~ one must have gone through Christianity before being able to go into this particular belief system.

Christianity Began With Jesus, Known As Catholic ~ Protestant Is A Splinter Of That (March 05, 1989)

Isn't Protestant Christian?

It is a separate learning experience. Christianity, as we refer to it, is that which began with Jesus, known as Catholic, and then there was a splitting of the belief systems. One must go through this Catholic experience and then go into the other. There are many, many splinters that come from the original philosophy that was given down by Amelius. There are so many that it is ~ we would not have time to express it.

Judaism, on the other hand, has remained very pure, unlike Christianity, which was done purposely to create what is called a schism in the belief in Christianity. There is much disharmony in this philosophy. There is not cohesiveness. One learns cohesiveness in Judaism more strongly than in the entire philosophy of Christianity. One is not any better than the other, remember. Simply lessons presented.

A Question Of Female Versus Male, Relating To Religion And Spirituality (March 05, 1989)

During these religions, I find the role of the women extremely side stepped. When we are entering into higher vibration ~ I mean, seeing the occurrences now that the women will be more active and more part of what is going on?

This is another issue completely, for as we had discussed in the last special topic relating to women, there are very specific issues women are undergoing, and the female vibrations who become, as you would call, activists within their religions, remember that they have already undergone the basic issue needed from the religion. They have given their life. They now are able to come back in and help in those issues of the male/female perceptions. Know that the religions did not start out with male dominance.

Way back it was the Goddess ~ the woman, who was the Goddess.

It has been ~ because of all the other reasons why the imbalance has occurred, as we discussed in the last session, the situation has now developed where the imbalance has simply carried itself through into all of the other areas. And thus, it is that there will be many like yourself who will, as part of your mission, attempt to teach and bring greater awareness to the world around you. Others will choose not to have this as their issue.

Are you saying that Amelius and his crew are there to help those who believe in that context? Or every soul on this planet?

Every soul. Know that Amelius is part of a Five Energy Form. Each controls, as we would call it, a Kingdom, a very large Kingdom, each designed to give certain lessons, each designed to help the energies assigned to that particular Kingdom to learn certain issues, and thus they all are concerned about all of the energies. The earth plane is just one of so many different dimensions that they oversee. The earth plane is a part of ~ goes into all five of the Kingdoms, you see, so that you may in fact meet another energy who is under the domain of another Kingdom. It does not mean that you cannot talk to that energy, ☺ ☺ and that you can have no relationships with that energy. It simply means that they are being directed and guided by a whole other group, all designed for the same purpose in the end, and that Amelius and the other four, when it comes to evaluation, work as a team.

It just seems rather simplistic to me.

Know that the way in which we present things needs to be simplistic. If we were to attempt to give you the complexities of it you would not be able to understand it.

The Old And New Testaments ~ Interpretation Of The Information Has Diluted Over Time (March 05, 1989)

In reading the Old Testament, which is really all we have to go on to get any real history of the evolution of Judaism, there seem to be stages that they went through in their belief system. I do not know if this is just illusion or because there are so many different authors, and it was, you know, so many different times in which the books were put together, but there seemed to be a point where the early Hebrews acknowledged that there were other Gods. They did not say that there was just one up until ~ well, from what we were taught, up until they were leveled or something by the Assyrians. Then their philosophy changed and they became more monotheistic. How do you account for the changes in their philosophy, and are they accurate? How accurate are the documents?

The information coming from what you call the Old Testament has over time diluted in its interpretation. Remember that part of the experience is in what you would call the politics of religion, and information that is given through originally, when it is found to not suit the politics of the time, is changed. And thus, it is with that which is known as the Old Testament and that which is known as the New Testament. It is all information that was channelled through just as we give this information, and as it was time, the times and the emotions and the attitudes, so too was that reflected in the way it was translated. The original language that this information came through is no longer spoken on the earth plane.

We tell you that it was approximately eight thousand earth plane years ago that Judaism was first implanted, and thus it has been interpreted in different ways. It is the reason why there are periodic cleansings and that there are periodic major cleansings, for the information needs to be updated once again and put into proper perspective, and it starts all over again. There is nothing here written in stone, as you might say, that once it is presented to the earth plane, that is it. You see, remember that I have given the information that there have been many, many, many cleansings. This is just one in a series, and this whole process will start once again. Many of you will find yourselves at the next major cleansing and you will be discussing with whoever at that time this very topic. The name of the religion will simply be different, that is all.

Is It Accurate That There Are Twelve Tribes Of Israel Set Up By Twelve Elders From Atlantis?
(March 05, 1989)

Twelve times the twelve that we have discussed in the session of pyramids and crystals. Indeed.

And this will happen ~ something similar will be happening again?

Twelve times twelve will always happen. That is a given in The Universe for the earth plane.

In the Book of Revelations, when it talks about the final days, which I assume they are speaking about this cleansing, they refer to a hundred a forty-four thousand. I thought that was a very interesting figure.

And given what we have said over time, you still find this to be interesting?

It is amazing to me how it is all coming together.

Amazing how it is all coming together. Indeed.

A Discussion Of The Life Of Jesus (March 05, 1989)

The books like The Aquarian Gospel or The Lost Years of Jesus, is there truth to that? I heard also from another level the entity Jesus, in his incarnation, was actually indeed a very wealthy person and thus also could travel abroad for his learning and teaching.

You must understand that there are many who want to ascribe the definition of wealth from a materialistic stand. Know that the entity Jesus was given what he needed in order to do what he needed to do, and there is an exaggeration at both ends that he was living in abject poverty and that he was living in splendor, as you would define it on the earth plane. Know that he simply was given what he needed. He had a mission and it was provided for him. There was neither extreme poverty nor was there extreme wealth.

So, what you refer to as the folklore, the straw and the stable, that is the folklore around the story.

The folklore, as you would call it that has come down over the past two thousand years in very interesting interpretations and needed very, very much for the continuance of the philosophy, the understanding at a particular level of energies on the earth plane. There are many who have never, as you would say, bought into that story, who understand the mission at a higher level and understand that the physical incarnation was different from that which the folklore gives.

There are many of you here who have been a part of that experience, that time frame, and if you were to go truly to your Higher Self to open up the Soul memories, you would indeed receive a very different picture than that which has been handed down. The accuracy is that Jesus spread the word. He did this not in just a short period of time as it is given, three years earth plane time, but rather from the moment of entry on the plane. All that so called preparation was teaching, for he needed no preparation as it is referred to. He was already prepared. However, those on the plane need to have a frame of reference in order to fully understand the mission of Jesus, and thus it is that certain illusions were presented.

Is The Earth Plane The Only Plane That Has The Issue Of Religion? (March 05, 1989)

Yes, it is.

When The Witches Were Burned At The Stake, Was That Them Standing Up For Their Belief?

They were standing up for their belief, but it was not within a religion. It was another issue. Standing up for spiritual beliefs has been a common thread throughout eternity, and one is not able to stand up for spiritual beliefs until they have stood up for religious beliefs. It gives the entity the strength. Just as we indicated earlier, it is necessary to go through Judaism, Christianity, first.

Electronic Evangelism ~ A Lesson In Ridicule As Well As Prejudice And Persecution (March 05, 1989)

Would you comment on Electronic Evangelism and Christianity?

Indeed. We have been aware of the great interest that you have all had on the earth plane regarding this particular segment of religion. It is religion, regardless of what you might think of it.

Are we then doing the persecution, so to speak?

Indeed. Very insightful. Know that all entities have their own truth, their interpretation of the truth, and that that which you call Electronic Evangelism serves its purpose and that there are many who have incarnated into this experience as leaders and as followers just as energies incarnate into the other religions, to learn and to teach. This is one of the offshoots that I had spoken of ~ presents issues of tolerance that are different from the issue of tolerance if you were to, say, be in the mainstream, as it is called, religion. It is difficult for many who are in this experience to withstand the ridicule of those around them.

It is a lesson in ridicule as well as prejudice and persecution, for no one has the right to judge another, and to determine that the truth that is sought by one, while it is different from your own truth, is any less than what your truth is. It does not matter on the earth plane's illusion of truth whether that truth is in accordance with the Universal Truth, for eventually everybody reaches the same truth when the One is achieved. It is in the path reaching toward all of the available truths that you come to understand the truth, the one truth as it is in the merging at the time of Oneness. Until that time, it is all seeking, and thus you need only look at others as taking, in this particular incarnation, a path of seeking, no better, no worse than yours, and to simply express tolerance for their right to seek that truth which they feel is right for them.

That which we give out as information is a truth that is agreeable and understandable by certain entities and not by others. We would never impose what we say upon others as having to be accepted, but rather it is simply information that if you seek particular truths, whatever your soul has determined it is available to you for synthesis. What works for you may not work for another. So do not deride the Jimmy Swaggerts of the plane, for they serve a purpose. You do not have to take on their beliefs. You do not have to contribute to their cause. But you do not need to deride them or condemn them, for then they would have the right to do that to you.

A Discussion Of The Manifestations Of Jesus In His Teachings (March 05, 1989)

You had mentioned that Amelius began ~ well, Christianity and Judaism. Can you elaborate, since you said Judaism goes back eight thousand years, on some of the times that he had come in?

He came onto the plane as what might be called an elder, and he was ~ he brought with him at that time, me. It was very interesting, and Mushiba and Abalma were also a part of this for very specific lessons in teaching. There was a very, what you might call, insignificant role that we all played. We were what you might refer to as scribes, and it was at a time when the culture on the plane was at a very low level. It had only been two thousand years since Atlantis had been cleansed and the development was at a low level. There was not, shall we say, any religion on the plane at that time.

He came in and, in a very dramatic way, for he had permission from The Universe to use certain powers, powers of creating the illusion that he was indeed a God, and there was the dissemination of information regarding cohesiveness. There were tribes of individuals scattered throughout the plane geographically. There were perhaps, by a count, oh, five million total on the plane. Because of his powers he was able to appear anywhere he wanted to. He could simply manifest, and thus he was able to go to all of the tribes and implant the information with preachings, and they would see him manifest, you see, and they would say, "Well, we have something unusual occurring here." This is simplifying it, of course.

Did you also manifest with him when traveling?

Yes, I did.

You were able to zip around like he did?

I was. I was.

You still are, aren't you?

Yes, indeed. Indeed.

When did everybody stop being able to do that manifesting on the earth plane?

People have not, my dearest. There are energies who are able to do this. They just do it very quietly.

There was a time though, I think, when everybody realized that potential. Right? On the earth plane?

There have been varying degrees of awareness of that. During the Atlantean time there was a higher degree of awareness and use of that, but as happens, and is predictable, there becomes a misuse of that power, and when the misuse occurs it is taken away until the entity can learn to use it within a spiritual context, and thus you will find throughout millennia various time frames where there is more use of it than others.

During this time frame there is not much use of it. This is primarily because those manifesting now are primarily from Atlantis, and the misuse was so dramatic in Atlantis that there is a fear on the part of many entities to use their powers, even though they are free to do so, and there is also the direction given from Amelius that they cannot use their powers, certain individuals.

So, thus, Amelius began in this manner and he was able to then give out tremendous amounts of information in a very short period of time. He was on the plane for approximately forty years. What occurred, then, when he would go into the various areas and give the information, he would find an energy or two who would be what you might call a Disciple, who would have the training and the understanding. They were advanced entities primarily on the plane to help.

Once Amelius had planted the seed, so to speak, they were then directed to confer on a rather consistent basis with what was called the central area. It was a land mass that you currently know as Africa. This is where those who had been very specifically trained by Amelius were gathered, and periodically those from the different tribes would journey to the central point and receive updates, if you will, receive other information and also bring to the, what you might call, conclave, the information from their tribes concerning the development of their understanding.

Would he choose the same physical form manifesting, or would he go along with tribes' looks as to not be different, so that it might have occurred that he appeared to be a different entity at a different place?

No, he took on the same form. He was consistent in that so that they would all have the same frame of reference and understand that this was information coming from one source and not many sources. This was done to implant this issue of cohesiveness that has remained a basis for the religion. He would then periodically come in to check up on things, and he took the form of many who you know from that which is called the Old Testament. He was the entity known as Moses, for example.

Will Jesus Return? And If So, When?

(March 05, 1989)

We tend to say that history repeats itself. Is there a chance that we could experience this again for those that go through The Shift?

He will return but it will be sometime after The Shift, so that those of you who are in physical incarnation now will not experience him. However, many of you will be in that time frame when he once again comes in, and you will be having the Soul memories and perhaps be sitting around as you do now, and instead of discussing the coming shift, we would be discussing the fact that Amelius has incarnated, and there will be other issues, you see.

He has not been on the plane since the Jesus incarnation and will not return for approximately ~ oh, he is looking at about another eight hundred years, earth plane time.

Some Of The Jewish Religion Not Understanding Certain Levels Of Channelled Spirituality (March 05, 1989)

A friend where I work is Jewish, and she read a transcript where you were talking about Easter and Passover at the same time and was wondering why Waith wished everybody a Happy Easter but not a Happy Passover. I was born Jewish but religion does not seem to be important to me. How can I help people who are of other than Christian religion, particularly of the Jewish religion, feel comfortable with what we do?

There will be a level of difficulty, my dear, in many who are of the Jewish religion to understand certain levels of spirituality that are being channelled through at this time on the plane. Unless they have gone through the experience of giving their life, there will be difficulties in understanding, you see. You have gone through this experience, and you are therefore looking at other issues. You have chosen Judaism to be your culture and your religion for reasons relating to the entities known as your parents, your sister, in this short time that she was on the plane. Others will have difficulty in understanding.

The orientation that is felt toward the Christian end relates to the fact that Christianity is the tail of Judaism, and as we had said before, one must go through Judaism first in order to go into Christianity and that the group of entities who we, as our mission are geared toward, are those who have gone through Judaism, and are now in Christianity, for these are the ones who will be vibrationally correct. There are many who are in Judaism now who have gone through Christianity, and thus they will be vibrationally correct, possibly, you see.

So, the individual, for example, of whom you speak has a level of understanding that may not be that which you would be able to approach. That was a very long roundabout way of getting to that. ☺ ☺

A Discussion Of Someone's Religious Belief That You Go From Here To Paradise (March 05, 1989)

Someone said something to me recently, someone who follows a fundamentalist religion that we must go from here straight to paradise because when Christ was on the cross, He said to one of the people next to Him, "You will come to paradise with me today." Therefore, that is truth that you go from here to paradise. Could you comment on that a little bit, please?

Paradise is an illusion. Paradise as many on ~ in a particular value system on the plane now would look at that as heaven. What occurred with this particular entity who was next to Amelius on the cross was that he was at the end of his earth plane years, his lives, and he was ready then to go into some higher dimensions. And so, paradise was ~ has been misinterpreted over the two thousand years. Paradise simply meant that he was finished with his earth plane sojourn, you see. To many, that is paradise, to have been able to finish, and thus he would be guided through the earth plane energy fields by the entity Jesus and his captains, if you will, so that this energy would not have any delays or difficulties in returning into spirit.

It is appropriate, of course, to respect those who would have this belief, just as we have indicated earlier that you respect the truths that another has. What occurs, of course, is when they have finished this incarnation, they go into spirit and review that which they learned as truth, you see. So, respect their beliefs so that you can then expect the same from them, and if they do not give you the respect that you give them, then there is no problem, but if you do not give them respect then you deserve none yourself.

I Have A Hard Time With The Jehovah Witnesses (March 05, 1989)

Why?

Because as a young adult, when I first started out on my own, Jehovah Witnesses came to my door and frightened me. I tried to not let them in, and they put their foot in the door so I could not close it. I try to have respect for their beliefs, but I cannot understand soliciting religion. I have a hard time with that.

It is no different than any other seekers of the truth. They have their way of doing this. It does not mean that it has to be imposed upon you. You simply matter-of-factly say to them, "I am not interested." And you stand up for this.

Well, I understand that now, but at a younger age it was hard.

You learn, you see.

Yeah, and I just hope they do not come to the door.

If they come, you will be respectful to them and understand that just as you have a truth that you have embraced and want to tell the world about, so too do they, and it is just that each has their own way of wanting to give the truth to others.

If you do stand up and say you are not interested in sitting and reading their Bible, they are very persistent.

You learn how to, shall we say, fend them off. Speak with other entities. Speak with Mushiba. She will tell you how to get rid of them. There are very gentle ways of doing this without offending, and yet without compromising yourself, for those who may try to impose their beliefs upon you. For some, they would allow them to speak, for it poses no threat to your own belief system, you see.

Again, Be Careful Of Judging Others For Their Beliefs (March 05, 1989)

How many religions are we going to have after The Shift?

That is not really for discussion at this time. It is not significant. It is not necessary to know at this time, for it will be quite clear and very obvious once The Shift has occurred as to what will occur.

My belief is that it does not matter our religious beliefs. It does not mean that we are not going to be vibrationally attuned.

That is correct.

Or that we will all have to be into metaphysics.

No, indeed not. Quite emphatically not. We would not by any means say that you must not be a part of a religion, that you will be vibrationally incorrect. This is not the issue at all.

Right. One does not have anything to do with the other.

No, one does not have anything to do with the other. There will be many who have chosen to incarnate and to teach in certain religions, and there will appear to be a, shall we say, lack of appreciation for spirituality, and yet these are very highly advanced souls whose mission it is, is to help many to reach a level of vibration, while it may not be correct for The Shift, at least, it is helping them to increase their vibration. Many of these advanced entities will stay after The Shift. Many will leave, for they will have accomplished their mission.

Remember what I have said so often, that is to not judge when you see any entity, where they are or how vibrationally correct they are. Do not be concerned about that. Be concerned with your own evolvment, and as you evolve you send out the Light to those around you, and those who need your help will be brought to you. Do not impose yourself upon others. Do not be judgemental of other religions or those who would have a firm alignment with a religion.

Why Is The Resurrection Of The Body Such An Issue By Religion? (March 05, 1989)

It, again, is a part of the folklore that has come down over the time, referring to what is called the Judgement Day. It refers to what we call the cleansing, and there will be the rising up of many souls from the incarnation of the plane. There has been a misinterpretation that those who have died, that their bodies will come back, implying that their soul was within their body all this time. This is not correct. It is a misunderstanding on the part of those who have brought the information from a language from one political system to another in the religions. It simply means that there will be many souls who will rise out of their bodies and return into spirit.

Just the opposite of what ~

It is given as the body only for simplicity for those to understand that there will be many who will leave the plane and go into spirit.

Would You Comment On The Term Christ? Does That Relate To Jesus? Or Is It Generic? (March 05, 1989)

It is generic, as you would refer to it. It refers to The Oneness, The Universal Consciousness. Again, the Christian orientation is strong in this respect, but it truly relates only to The Universal Consciousness.

Krishna Is The Hindu Word For Christ. Is Krishna Part Of The Kingdom Of Amelius? (March 05, 1989)

Part of The Kingdom of Amelius. Yes.

A Discussion Of The Stones In The Breast Plate That Moses Wore

(March 07, 1989)

About the breast plate that Moses wore ~ the types and weights of the stones that were used, how they were placed in relation to each other, and their vibrational significance. Would you comment on this?

As weight is measured in your reality now, the stones were two point three eight seven ounces. They were of a purpose, for, of course, Moses, being the energy that is Amelius, had a purpose, and this armor of which you refer had a vibrational significance to it. It was meant at the plane level to appear to be of a defense mechanism. However, these stones were placed in a way that were harmonious with the pyramids, and they had a direct vibrational connection with the pyramids. They served to energize the vibration of Moses for the work that needed to be accomplished and to keep the physical encasement strong and long lasting, for that incarnation on the earth plane time frame was very, very long.

He then would be able, by touching particular stones, to draw upon the energies that were connected with the pyramid, the pivotal pyramid, not only in that geographic area in which he had incarnated, but with the prime pivotal period. This enabled him to maintain an electromagnetic balance, for there were many during that time frame who were being trained for future plane incarnations to help in the spiritual attunements of the masses, and in actuality it was a preparation for this major cleansing that is about to occur, for there were many who were trained and guided during this time frame by Moses who are back on the plane now. Many are already a part of Terra Lux. Many will come into the community. It was a very, very important time frame for the illusion that you all have taken on for this time between cleansings and served a significant role in the evolution of that which is known as Judaism. That is what we will say about it for now.

Jesus And Healing
(April 02, 1989)

Waith, I want to ask you about how ~ that were mentioned in the Bible ~ (Some words are inaudible on the tape)

The response to that would be as we have discussed. There were many who were ready to be healed and they simply allowed Amelius to use them as instruments of example. All of the healings that occurred through Amelius, while he was on the plane as Jesus, were to teach and to show that that which he did also could be done by Self. They were of varying levels of depth, as your question asks. Some were of complete healings. Some, in fact, were pseudo, as you might call them, pseudo healings, meant to, in agreement with the other entity, to show that this is what is possible.

Understand that the level of understanding at that time was such that these parables, as you would refer to them, were needed in order to have people at that time understand certain precepts. It is done continually. When we give out information, it is given in a way that will reach the levels of understanding currently existing on the plane, for if we were to give you explanations of precepts as they truly are, you would not understand them. You understand at higher levels, as you yourself reach higher levels. And thus, remember, that Amelius was charged with the responsibility of reaching the masses, then and now, with the knowledge of what the levels of understanding would be during this past time frame.

A Question Of Why Waith References Amelius Instead Of The Name Jesus (August 01, 1989)

If you were to read the information coming from the Special Topics Session on Parallel Lives, it answers that question, for Jesus is an extension of Amelius. It is not the total energy. Amelius is the Lead Energy in which Jesus is an Ambassador. It is explained quite nicely. And if there are still questions then feel free at another session to ask based upon the information in that session.

A Discussion Of The Undocumented Years Of Jesus ~ The Shroud Of Turin (August 08, 1989)

There is recorded history of Jesus up until about age twelve and then skips several years. Edgar Cayce filled in some of it, and there have been other sources that have said he was in Egypt and India and America. Could you fill that in?

He was in The Underground Community ~ the majority of the time, learning and teaching. That will be all that we can make comment on at this time. It is not meant for widespread discussion of the life of Jesus. It is specifically spotted and for very good reasons which we are not allowed to discuss, but that information we can give to you.

Was it deliberate that we have nothing recorded of Jesus 'many teachings?

That is correct. It is deliberate that there is nothing directly from Jesus.

So, the Shroud of Turin is not from Jesus then?

No, we did not say that. There is nothing of his teachings direct. It is all from those who have followed him and this was deliberately orchestrated. There are artifacts of his presence on the plane. That which you refer to is as it has been stated to be.

Does that mean that the shroud is genuine? I have heard that they carbon-dated it and it cannot be from the time of Jesus.

They are incorrect. It has been deliberately presented as an illusion that the scientists think they have broken down the authenticity of it and it was for purposes of faith as well as other issues that this illusion was presented.

Who presented the illusion, the scientists?

The Universe. It is The Universe that presents all illusion. Scientists are mere specks in the scheme of things. ☺

Each Must Follow Their Own Truth (August 22, 1989)

In church on Sunday, the priest was talking about the Vietnam War, and he said each person in a war act according to their own conscience. And I drew this to myself and said each person I encounter acts according to their own conscience, but it may not be what I would choose.

That is accurate, for each must ultimately respond to their own words from within. This is what makes for difficulties, for many who would act in a certain way are acting according to their conscience, which may not be the same as another. And as we have said before, as the path towards Oneness is presented, areas of reality present themselves to entities. And the issues of morality, you see, begin to rear their ugly little heads here, for what might be moral for one entity may not be for another, and that while every entity is working in their own area of growth back to The One, Universal One, there will be varying interpretations of The Universal Consciousness, and it will not ever be that there would be one consciousness on the earth plane. The one consciousness occurs only at spirit and The Oneness occurs only at The One.

So that even in spirit there are varying levels of consciousness and attitudes, as you might call them, toward that which is appropriate for the entity, and it is in The Spectrum of judgement that you now find yourselves again, for in its ultimate, while there is concern that an individual, for example, may find that to take the life, shall we say, of an entity on the earth plane and not feel any guilt for doing that, felt that this was appropriate, that that individual, that entity, has all the right in The Universe to exhibit that behavior, you see, for it is to be in the scheme of things, just as any other entity has the right to behave in any other way that they would want to.

And it is all set up for issues of growth and understanding and in attempting to help those entities who may be struggling with the precepts of Universal Consciousness, the Flow of the Consciousness, and would exhibit, shall we say, the negativity aspects of The Universal Consciousness such as the taking of life or whatever, and it is up to the entity who has the greater connection to the consciousness of The Universe to attempt to help another entity in whatever way that entity would call upon the other entity, you see.

It is not quite as easy in its application, for there is this imposition of Self upon others and the ideal is that no one imposes themselves upon anyone, and yet there will be those who would say, "I do not impose my beliefs on others in certain areas but in other areas I would say that you should not be doing that, that that is wrong. This is right. This is the right way and this is the wrong way." What is right for you and what is wrong for you is all that matters. But it is taken by the masses as a mass morality that "This is right and this is not right," by this definition, except The Universe.

Prayer, The Bible And God (August 29, 1989)

I hate to throw conventional questions in because some of what I hear is so unconventional and hard for me to comprehend a lot of it. I know what I feel, and I know what my sister has experienced as far as different levels that we come across, spiritual levels, or whatever. I hate to blow everybody's mind with conventionalism but I believe in a Holy Spirit just like you believe in a soul, and I believe it is all connected with God. I believe in individualism. I still believe there are rules you must live by, and I like to believe in the Bible and pray before I read the Bible. And a lot of times the Holy Spirit works in me when I do read. How come you approach it so differently and as far as ~ (Word inaudible) to make you happy by praying, that makes me happy.

Indeed. The approach that we have is really no different than the approach that you have, my love, for you understand that The Universe is The Creative Force and that the name of God as it has been given on the plane is simply another name for The Universal Consciousness, and that there are many vehicles that are provided on the earth plane for entities to gain access to the knowledge that is contained in The Universal Consciousness.

Now, one of those vehicles is that which you refer to as the Bible. And that information, understand, was channelled through from The Universal Consciousness to certain entities who were entrusted with that information, and it was meant that that vehicle be available for entities at whatever point in the path they happen to be, and that the use of prayer, as we have said time and time again, is a very, very beneficial means of obtaining a centering within the Soul and that there are many ways in which one can maintain a level of gaiety and happiness ~ many techniques. And we have presented through time, as we have been giving information, many different techniques and suggestions, and we give them not as definitive edicts but rather, "Here is another technique that you can place into your portfolio," shall we say, that depending upon the conditions of your mind and your spirit at any point in time, you would have then to call upon different techniques to assist you.

Remember that each of you as spirits call upon the Higher Self, that being the spirit of Self, to reach The Universal Consciousness which is, as you would want to call, God, The Creator, whatever name would want to be given to that which is The Universal Consciousness, and that by connecting in your own way is the goal that we are here for, to assist all to find their Higher Self, and that which will give each of you your own answers and not answers from us, but rather guidance from us.

And thus, what you present is really not out of the realm at all of what we present. And while you may think that it is conventional in earth plane definition, it is actually rather unconventional, for there are a significant number of entities who would disavow prayer, saying that prayer is hocus pocus and there are significant numbers of individuals on the earth plane now who would have nothing to do with anything that is not concrete, faith, as you would have faith in reading the Bible, you would have faith in prayer.

You see, prayer is an act of faith and that is spiritual, the Universal component, and there are, in fact, very, very defined rules from The Universe. It is not all helter-skelter, and in fact, your sister might assist you in the readings where we have presented the structure of The Universe and how it is all managed and that there are very definite conditions set up.

You are saying that this is the way for me.

Yes. Yes indeed. Whatever makes you center yourself and whatever helps you in dealing with the issues that confront you is what is important, and each individual has their own way, and we are here to help give various techniques that can be drawn upon when appropriate and that which feels right for you. There is no one way that is appropriate for any entity. It is that which you determine. And that which you do is quite appropriate for the development of your soul at the point in which you find yourself. Do not ever make excuses for yourself, my love, and that which you do.

Prayer Is A Technique That Was Given Through The Highest And Is Appropriate (January 30, 1990)

Someone was asking me if everybody has attacks from the darkness. I said yes and that they must learn levels of protection. She was wondering if that happens to her, and I told her it happens to a lot of people, but they don't necessarily recognize it.

That is correct, my love. That is correct, for we have addressed this issue in the past and responded that many times when individuals who would not give credence to what is called the spiritual and refer to themselves as religious, send out prayer when they feel distressed, and prayer is just as appropriate for a calling of the Higher, even though the entity might want to deny that. Prayer is a technique, you understand, that was given through the Highest. All that is of that which is called religion has been channelled through even though it would be denied by those of what is called the established religions. They gained their information from the original source, which was The Universe, you see, so what you have said is correct, and as you begin to look through the material again for greater depth, you will also find additional information that will guide you in responding to such questions.

Mission Of Jesus ~ A Beginning Discussion (April 10, 1990)

We, in this session, will speak to you a bit about the mission that was given to the entity known as Jesus, for there is confusion now on the plane, for, as is the usual case with information that has been given through from other dimensions, it dilutes itself over time. And we are, of course, aware that the time frame, as measured in the illusion currently on the plane, is such that the emphasis is upon that who was known as Jesus.

This energy form was sent out from that who we refer to as Amelius, who is the leader of this particular kingdom. Amelius is one of the five, each who head up a particular kingdom, and on occasion, as is needed, the leaders of the kingdom will send out what is referred to as an ambassador. The energy transmission is quite different than that which has been described to you as lifelines. We will not go into the technicalities of that at this time, but understand that this particular situation in which an ambassador, as you would give it in a frame of reference on the plane, is a very powerful energy and has a very specific mission and a very diverse amount of power and flexibility in using that power.

The mission of this entity, Jesus, was to place into action, if you will, a particular scenario of lessons and balancing. This particular illusion on the plane has as part of its illusion what is called religion. Other illusions in the portfolio of the earth plane do not have what you would call now religion, and for the reasons determined by The Universe for these various illusions, certain lessons need to be taken on for learning and growth and strengthening.

At the time of the entry of Jesus, the illusion had reached the point of what you might refer to as a homogeneity, in that there was no diversity in that which is religion. There were only a small number of variations in religious thought, and in order for the illusion to continue in its progression, there needed then to be an infiltration of a new thought, controversy, if you will, prejudice, if you will, all part of the scenario for learning and growth and being able to take on a situation that will enable an entity to eventually work through that and find Unconditional Love. And thus it was that Jesus came in for that very specific purpose, to found, if you will, as it is referred to, a new religion. However, it was simply the planting of a seed that would enable discussion, diversity and controversy, and as you know, brings out that which you would refer to on the plane as the ugliness that many entities might possess, but it is only in the bringing out of this dark side, as you may refer to it, that it can be recognized, dealt with, and be rid of.

And thus, Jesus came in knowing exactly what the scenario would be. There were players, if you will, specially selected entities, who agreed to take on certain roles. And we, of course, are not able to go into that in a specific way, for it would then reveal the path of other entities, which is not appropriate, but understand that all were given the choice in this particular scenario, and there were a number of outcomes possible based upon certain behaviors. Jesus knew the eventual outcome before entry. However, those who were a part of the play, if you will, only knew that they had a particular role, and they were given various scripts, and they were allowed to choose the script that they felt most comfortable with. One entity did not know what the other entity had chosen as a script. And thus it was that only Jesus knew what each had chosen, and, therefore, directed in his own way that which needed to occur. It was in anticipation, also, of the ending of this particular illusion, for the illusion had already been in existence for approximately eight of your earth plane years. That is rather long time.

Eight-thousand, Waith?

Eight thousand. It is a rather long time for an illusion to already have been going on. And thus, knowing that the illusion would be coming to an end, it needed a bit of acceleration, for the timing was a bit out of balance, and thus, Jesus was a pivotal accelerator to get the illusion moving along. His mission was, of course, one of love. His mission was to place into the writings of the time, which many, of course, have not really seen or heard in its proper context, that all energies are equal, and that all energies have the same abilities as Jesus was showing.

What is not known is that, while Jesus was in the physical encasement in one particular geographic area, he was in many different geographic areas simultaneously and was able to simply, as you would call it, dematerialize, and he did this. There were periods of the time frame where he spent more of his time in other areas than in that which has been chronologed in the scriptures, as it is called.

He also spent much effort with those energies in the Underground Communities, for they, too, needed to have the same type of acceleration, for, as we have described in other sessions, the Underground Community has its own functions, its own, as you would call it, political structure and economic structures and religions. And thus, they too have a tradition similar to that which you all refer to as Easter on the plane.

The symbolism of all that Jesus presented was critical at that particular time of development on the plane for the mental capabilities of what was incarnating at that time in physical form, understand, having nothing to do with spiritual advancement. It all becomes rather complicated and complex. In order to fully understand, there must be the beginnings of an acceptance by each energy currently incarnating that all is a part of a grander scheme, plan, play, and that you each take a particular role. You each select that which you want to do.

Jesus was highlighting that each energy must take responsibility for their own life, and at the same time, God, as it was referred to then for a reference point, or The Universal Consciousness as it truly is, would be available all the time, at all moments for help, for guidance, for protection, and that faith and trust needed to be greatly absorbed within the energy of each. And it was shown that if these particular attributes were less than perfect in an entity, that they would still be loved by The Creator. And thus, he who took on the role of that known as Peter was showing very concretely that he faltered and, at the same time, was still loved and forgiven. And Jesus showed that forgiveness of others was very simple.

And thus, the message is very strong that is given, and very simple, and yet not understood. And that message, the mission of Jesus, was to say to all, "It is all right to disagree, it is all right to be less than perfect, for it is in the striving for perfection that one grows and strengthens. The strength does not occur in the achievement. The strength occurs in the striving for the achievement, for the achievement is the end result. And once there has been achievement, you have strengthened, but nonetheless, you must continue to strengthen. And, thus, you strive once again. And you must forgive. You must forgive yourselves and you must forgive others, for you will be renewed over and over and over again. There is no death as you call it. There is simply renewal. And all of you are here to serve a purpose for Self, as well as for others. All are interconnected." This was the message of Jesus, so simple and yet so misunderstood.

And thus, the time now approaches where the illusion is about to complete itself for this time around. And the energy known as Jesus, on occasion, comes back onto the plane. He spot checks. He comes into a situation where there is a need for the energy for that which may be able to be of assistance throughout that which is the Planet Earth, above and below. And as he did during that time frame as Jesus, he walks among you where you would least expect it, just as many of you have had the experiences of having some of those in Waith and Company incarnate ~ Bathusela, for example. Not only Bathusela, for all in The Company have done their share of popping in and out.

And thus, as is needed in this particular illusion, traditions of celebration are essential so that the message can be remembered, and it is not for only those who you would call Christian. It is for all, for all, for it is symbolic of a process, and no religion is any better or any worse than the other. All serve a purpose. All have the same message in its rootings. The only difference among the religions is the way in which its leaders and members have taken it as the one word, the one truth, and the one truth revolves around Unconditional Love which is at the root of every religion.

However, what occurs is that dogma is then attached. That is earth plane. That comes from the earth plane and not from The Universal Consciousness. And that is where all the fun takes place, you see, in the bickering that occurs among the religions. It is the learning process, the growth process, for as you would refer to it on the plane, it is the holding on of turf. "My religion is better than your religion. My religion is the only one that goes to heaven," you see.

And the symbolism of that which is called Baptism is simply a recognition that all can be renewed through Self Love. And the symbolism of the water indicates life, for the physical encasement on the plane now is composed primarily of water, and without water the encasement shrivels, and you take the water yourself and renew yourself daily. That is its symbolism, my dear ones.

And thus it is, that all is achievable by Self. All energies, each of you, are capable of the highest powers, the very highest powers, and it is in each of your struggles along the path that enable you to gain back that which you left behind when you departed from The Universal Consciousness. You each have always had the powers, the abilities, the awareness, of The Universe. But, you see, in order to join the game and to play, when you came out of The Universal Consciousness, you left it behind, and as you were able to gain it back, The Universe sent it back, a little bit here and a little bit there. It is there waiting for you. It is in your little treasure chest. You just need to recognize that it is there. You must simply say, "I know that it is mine. I know I have this." This was the message of Jesus. So simple.

We have given you what we wanted for this session. We would entertain perhaps a question or two.

Is Jesus' Energy Here Now? (April 10, 1990)

No. His energy is not in the vibration currently. It is a situation where you would not know specifically that it was the energy, for he enters with, shall we say, he hides himself, for if it were known that it were his energy ~ and we use the male gender only as a frame of reference, for it is genderless, this energy form ~ if it were revealed that it were the Jesus energy, it would not accomplish that which it needed to accomplish, for as the Jesus energy lived simple and humbly, so too does the energy manifest in that way.

Does The Jesus Energy Manifest In The Same Body Or A Variety Of Different People? (April 10, 1990)

Not always people.

The Sai-Baba In India Claims To Be The Reincarnation Of Jesus (April 10, 1990)

He is incorrect.

Krishna?

There was a part of the energy in the entity known as Krishna. You must understand that the energy known as Jesus was a part of a particular effect that occurs with leaders of a kingdom, a topic which we will discuss in greater detail at some other session.

Was Part Of Jesus' Mission The Creation Of Miracles ~ Like Raising Lazarus From The Dead? (April 10, 1990)

That, my love, was simply to show that all could do this and that life is eternal, and that it is only a physical encasement that surrounds an energy. And as he had indicated at the time, and at the time of other so-called miracles, that each could do as he did, they simply had blocked the knowledge of the ability to do what he did. And the raising of Lazarus was simply an elaborate showing of a very simple concept but was needed for its, as you would say, shock value to deliver the point and to gain people's attention.

Was Jesus Actually Crucified? (April 10, 1990)

As you would refer to it in the illusion, the physical encasement indeed was placed into a position where there was a hanging effect. Understand that this entity felt no pain ~ felt no pain, as you would refer to it, and all was needed to set the stage for the ultimate message that came about after.

A Question Of The Of Jesus' Teaching Being Negative Rather Than Positive (April 10, 1990)

If we were to summarize the last two thousand years, I would say the ordinary person would come to a negative conclusion, because of all the things which happened under Jesus' names. We had religious wars. We had dogmas all over the world ~ when you look at the fifteenth and sixteenth century, in Europe in particular, where a lot of cruelty had been done under Jesus. You can easily say that was all part of the plan, this was being done on purpose. But if Jesus was reincarnated with the goal of teaching mankind how to tolerate other, how to love each other, if you would measure what happened after this, you could come to the conclusion. This I would not say was a failure, but the results were not very encouraging. Even in our time, nowadays, when you look around ~

Measured by what standards, my son? You measure by earth plane standards, achievement and success.

It is the only thing I can do. I have no other method.

Indeed. But, as we have said so often, there is far more to it than the earth plane, you see, and it is necessary for certain interpretations and understandings at the earth plane level, for that in itself is a lesson, and that in itself is a means of growth and striving for that achievement. Understand that all that matters in terms of measuring is done at The Universal Consciousness level, and what appears to be something of a negative on the earth plane is simply the stage that is set for the learning process, and that what matters is not as it appears on the earth plane, but rather what has occurred at spirit. And thus, it was very necessary that what you call religious wars occurred, for it is only in the extremes of what is apparently negative that the understanding grows out of it. And yes, it was all determined that this was necessary for the continuation of the particular illusion.

Now, you must understand that this illusion you find yourselves in is only one of many, many, many on the earth plane portfolio. This makes it easy to accept if you accept that premise. It then becomes easy to see it all as a grand play. If you see this as a limited, this earth plane, and that this is the only illusion, and that all that has ever existed is what you know of, then you will indeed have difficulty in accepting what has been spoken in this session, but that is all right, for what you believe is what you believe, and we impose no other belief structure upon you. We simply present information, and for those entities who are ready to absorb the information and infiltrate it and assimilate it into their belief system, then so be it. If it is another ten years, another one hundred years, another thousand years before the words are understood, so be it.

A Question About The Second Coming Of Christ As Talked About In The Bible (April 10, 1990)

The Bible talks about the Second Coming of Christ. Is that going to happen in connection with the cleansing ~ will Jesus be here or come back at the time of the cleansing?

That particular frame of reference known as the Second Coming simply is used to give individual entities who are having difficulty in understanding the concept of The Universe something concrete, something to work toward in terms of their own growth. "Well, we must do such and such, or else when the Second Coming arrives, we will not be accepted, we will be damned," you see. And so, it serves as a rather strong motivator for many.

What will occur is that when the cleansing is completed, and the axis of the planet shifts, this will be the beginning of a New Illusion, and in this particular illusion, at the very beginning of it, the energy known as Jesus will be present for the guiding and the transition of the illusion from one to the next, you see. You will not, however, have this white robed figure descending upon the earth with arms outstretched saying, "YOU COME WITH ME, AND YOU STAY OVER HERE BECAUSE YOU WERE BAD, AND YOU WERE GOOD." That will not occur. But this is the image that was presented at the time for the understanding of those who were on the plane at the time, and the knowledge of those who would be incarnating on the plane from that point until the cleansing, the masses, who would need this information because of the roles they had taken on in their incarnations over the past two thousand earth plane years.

particular incarnation, you see, and thus it is, that the Soul has determined the path.

Were Jesus And Mary Magdalene Married, Or Just Good Friends?

(April 10, 1990)

The entity Jesus did not, as you would call it on the plane, marry, nor did this energy have the capability of that which is called sexual activity. And the role of Mary Magdalene was to highlight certain prejudices that entities have geared toward that of the female gender, and that those of the male gender exhibit certain behaviors, attitudes and prejudices toward those of the female, as well as vice versa, of course. It was a very specific role that was taken on by the entity Mary Magdalene, and at spirit level, of course, it was understood between this entity and that of the Jesus energy that there was a particular role being played out. Yes, they were great friends.

A Discussion Of The Concept Of Eternal Damnation And The Circle Of Light

(May 01, 1990)

And thus, this concept of eternal damnation is really not correct, you see. I would describe to you a particular situation that may help you to understand better, this concept of what you would refer to as damnation, you see. There is, in the Flow of Energy from The Universal Consciousness, something that can only be referred to in your ability to understand on the plane called the Circle of Light. This Circle of Light surrounds a particular, what you might call tunnel. This is the tunnel of progression. This tunnel of progression means that as an entity moves from one dimension to another, it goes through this tunnel. Now, there are many, many, many tunnels depending upon the various dimensions from which you are able to move, you see. Surrounding each of these tunnels is this Circle of Light. The Circle of Light is taken care of by those of The Angelics. This is one of the JOBS, if you would call it that, of The Angelics.

Absorption And Accountability For When That Happens

(May 01, 1990)

This is a protective Circle of Light, and we have alluded in the past to a situation where there would be occasion when an entity enters into another dimension being absorbed by the dark, and that if that occurs then it is part of The Angelic's responsibility to keep track of that, and to do all that is possible to bring the absorption back into a particular dimension where the absorption could be neutralized, and the entity that was absorbed would begin to be, as we would call it, free again.

Now, there are occasions, you see, when the Circle of Light is not able to protect. This results from situations where the dark, and the very powerful dark, those that are of the same vibration and strength as of The Angelics, for we also have our opposites, you see ~ the best way to describe it is that they trick us, you see. They get our attention away from a particular entity perhaps coming through the tunnel, and they grab that entity, you see. Now, understand that while we may make light of this, we are very serious in our responsibilities that this happens, and if it does, then we then must take on the task of finding that entity and bringing that entity back into the situation that it found itself before absorption.

Now, this could take, as you would measure on the earth plane, an eternity, you see. The Angelic who allowed this to happen, whichever one it happened to be ~ for all it takes, you see, is one of the Circle of Light to have their attention distracted, and that breaks the protection, you see ~ so that if that one Angelic whose attention was diverted, then is not able to return to the One until the job has been finished, you see.

Did Jesus Feel Pain In The Crucifixion? (May 29, 1990)

When you were speaking about Jesus, you said that he did not experience pain during the crucifixion. Was it just an illusion that was seen?

He was ~ the spirit was out of the body but the illusion was presented for suffering. Understand that highly advanced entities are able to be out of the physical encasement if they are on the earth plane and using the encasement, while simultaneously appearing to be in the encasement, you see. There was no pain as you would refer to it, for the entity Jesus was Amelius, and Amelius being the Highest of Entity with The Oneness, thus, is capable of things that are beyond the understanding of many, many entities.

Waith Describes The Difference Between Terra Lux And What Would Be A Cult (July 10, 1990)

Waith, describe what makes this different than a cult would be. Why is this different, would you say, than a run of the mill cult?

This is not, as you would call it, a cult, for in a cult the leaders give out what is called dogmatic information that requires its followers to adhere to the information as it is given. It is given as a one and only truth, and in order to be a part of that group you must follow the dogma. There is extreme mind control that is evident in that which is called a cult. Now, on the earth plane, any grouping of people now is very often looked at as a cult, for when groupings of entities gather, they usually have a common purpose and that is very often referred to as a cult.

Now, what we present for information is not dogmatic, nor is it given with the intention that you must believe it, you must follow it, you must adhere to it ~ but rather, it is given as information to be used freely by Self in a way that feels proper for Self ~ and, as many of you know, we do not give you the answers. In fact, we must work rather diligently, for you ask us to give you the answers, and for the most part, this is not what occurs, but rather, we are here to guide and to give you the information that will assist you in reaching your Higher Self and in reaching the answers yourself.

There is no requirement for membership in the grouping. One of the reasons from the beginning that we indicated through Mushiba that there would be no monetary charge for access to our information, was to send a message that the purpose is not for monetary gain, for gain of possession, but rather, the purpose is for dissemination of information so that any who would need the information would have it available to them. And, thus, the information that we provide is given freely and is given in a way that is not expected to be followed dogmatically in any way. We are here only to Be of Service, and The Community of Terra Lux members are here to assist in the furtherance of that information, and any entity is welcome to come and go as they please within the vibration.

And we are not adverse at all to being challenged with the information that we present, for we present information that comes from The Universal Consciousness that for some is understood, and for others is not so understood ~ and as awareness is gained with an entity, so too, does the Truth of The Universe begin to change, and there is a greater understanding of the Universal Truth. And thus, the information that we give to you, as many of you have found from the beginning time, where you did not understand, now you understand. You have read back and information now is clearer to you, for you have gained in your awarenesses.

We do not force anything upon any entity, nor is there any commitment financially to the Community of Terra Lux, that you must give up your possessions and turn over your bank account to the community. Quite the contrary. We see struggling, and this too is part of the lesson, for as we indicated to you quite some time ago, no one here is going to win the lottery. ☺ Thus it is that the Community of Terra Lux serves as an example of the struggle between the spirit and the earth plane and that by working together as a community, much can be achieved in all dimensions, both at physical and at spirit, and that one does not take over in the other area, that attention is given equally to both sides of the ~ of this teeter-totter, so to speak.

Can You Explain The Difference Between Waith Versus Organized Religion?

(July 24, 1990)

How appropriate. ☺ (The person asking the question is a minister) That which we give as information is harmonious with all information that has been given through from The Universal Consciousness, and that which is referred to as organized religion is simply another vehicle by which information is given to entities. We do not consider ourselves in a position of them against us. Unfortunately, many of them consider us against them. This is not the case, for information that is given from us carries the same common theme as is at the root of all that is organized religion. If you were to look at the beginnings of any religion that is now known as organized, you would find the same common theme, that being Unconditional Love and a seeking of a higher life, if you will, a better life ~ you will find the common theme.

What occurs over time is that the theme begins to lose its meaning because of that which is called bureaucracy, that which is called self-interest and, of course, the power struggle. This is all a natural occurrence. This is what must be, for entities find themselves at any point on their own path back to The Universal Consciousness, and as a result of that, there is a requirement for certain types of lessons and experiences which can, in fact, be obtained by becoming a member of a particular organized religion. Remember that all the organized religions had their beginnings in unorganized groupings, you see, and that that which comes through from us, after the cleansing has occurred, will in the eyes of many be an organized religion.

Now, the difference at this point, however ~ and this is true of any grouping of entities who share common beliefs ~ the difference now is that we do not give out what you would call dogma. We simply give out information to aid you in your own growth. We do not tell you that you must do this, and you must do that. We do not give you what so often could be referred to as the one truth. We aid you in finding your own truth as it is best for Self ~ and by finding one's own truth, you then are of service to other entities and your quest toward achievement of Unconditional Love strengthens.

Now, not all organized religion is to be scorned at, for we would not scorn at any group who would attempt to aid an entity in their path back to The One. We are a part of that total process ~ and thus, it is important that you receive your information from many sources so that you are then enabled to reach the truth that is your truth. And you will find, as is the bright entity who asked the question, many who are a part of organized religion who are spiritual seekers and spiritual healers, and they also make their attempts within the organized structure to bring people, such as are gathered here, to their own truth.

There is the understanding that dogma is necessary for some entities, for that is what they must have at that particular point in their path as a way of direction ~ and it is also very complex, for one is also balancing from other times when they are involved in what you might call very dogmatic situations. Understand that there is nothing wrong with dogma if it is appropriate for the entity. What occurs, however, with entities who are of this thinking, where there is only one truth, is that those who would not be in agreement with their one truth are considered evil, that there is something wrong with that person ~ they are not good.

All entities are good ~ each has their own truth, and the more that you broaden your own awarenesses of that which cannot be seen and touched and felt and heard on the earth plane, the greater will be your ability to love unconditionally and the greater will be your ability then to not judge. For we judge not what your beliefs are ~ they are your beliefs, and we are not here to change your beliefs. We are here to assist you in your own awarenesses.

Describe What Makes The Difference From A Cult

(July 24, 1990)

Well, you know the definition of cult, as it is currently on the earth plane, has a negativity about it, meaning that entities would gather and be controlled by a leader and that they would give up their worldly possessions. They would give their money, as you would call it, to this group, and that there is mind control evident. Given that definition, the Community of Terra Lux and the groupings of entities certainly would not qualify as a cult, for we have been most clear from the beginning that, for example, there would be no money charged for our disseminated information.

What occurs with groupings of entities ~ and understand that by the earth plane definition a cult could be any two or more entities who gather on a regular basis to share common beliefs, you see. You all gather out of common interests. You are searching for spiritual growth and awareness. However, as we had mentioned earlier, entry into our grouping has no requirements ~ and the purpose of Mushiba's twin flame, Abalma, is to help in the understanding at the illusionary level that physical and spiritual need to work together, and that one does not need to be, let us say, a vegetarian in order to attain spiritual growth.

We are here to help dispel, in fact, the attitude that the only way to gain spiritually is to behave in very specific ways, that if you have any earth addictions ~ chocolate, caffeine, oh, all of these things that are a part of the earth plane experience ~ that if you have these that there must be something wrong with you and you cannot grow spiritually. You see, this is ridiculous, as you would say on the plane. And, thus, the Community of Terra Lux does not make it a requirement that you adhere to certain principles, certain tenets, if you will, certain requirements. It is not a cult, then, for we do not require you to behave in a certain way in order to be a part of the group, nor do you need to believe in a certain way. You can challenge anything that we give you for information, and we will not throw you away and say, "How dare you challenge us?" It is important to question, for in the questioning you gain in your awarenesses. Nor is anyone in the community going to win the lottery. ☺

And, thus, a part of the mission is to show that by combining spiritual with the physical, the material needs that are required by an entity can be achieved through a common goal, and through working together as a community to achieve what is needed for Self as well as the community, and that it is in this spirit of cooperation that the growth will occur. And thus, if anyone were to ask you if you were a member of a cult, you would, as has done so often, say "Well, look at my bank account. I have not emptied it out yet." This does seem to be one of the issues of the subject of cult as it is known on the earth plane.

A Question About Archangels And Their Affiliation With Any Of The Organized Religions (August 18, 1991)

What about the established churches that ~ you are an Archangel. Do you go with Catholicism? Do you go with Judaism?

An appropriate question, for we have given this term Archangel only as a frame of reference for understanding that ~ on the earth plane now, there is an acceptance of all who believe in higher beings of that which is referred to as angels. We have put on the record a number of times our position where organized religion is concerned, and if you would want to have that information you could see one of the members of the Community of Terra Lux who have journeyed here with Mushiba, and Limera would assist you in having that information, for we do not align ourselves with any, as you would say, organized religion. We speak of higher truths.

Will You Describe The New Faith That Is To Be Created? (August 18, 1991)

To answer that, there must be a belief that there is a higher source of information that does not rely on dogma. Faith, by definition on the plane now, has certain parameters that, "This is the faith, and this is what it will be. This is the belief." We are here to help you to transcend that particular philosophy, and rather, to understand that there are truths that each energy works with, and that each of you have your truths, and that your truth may be different from another, and that you have a belief, therefore, in your own truth and not that which someone else would impose upon you. Faith has, as a definition on the plane currently, a degree of imposition from another onto you, "You must have faith in this, because I do. I have faith in this particular situation." You must understand that it is far better to say, and to relate to, what an energy's truth is to themselves.

A Question In Reference To The Pope Speaking Of The Holy Spirit, The Mother (August 17, 1993)

I was watching the Pope on television the other day, and twice he made a reference ~ and I think it is the first time I have ever heard the Catholic Church make a reference to the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit, the Mother. Is that not new for the pope to come out and call the Holy Spirit, the Mother?

Actually, he was giving reference to four separate components, the Mother being a reference to The Mary Energy. You know, he says what he is supposed to be saying. He has information to give to particular levels of awareness, and he does what he has been assigned to do, and while many would not agree with what he says and what that grouping of thought has for its thoughts, neither do others agree with what we would give for information. And the respect is always given to anyone who is on their path and anyone, especially, who is charged with the responsibility of information dissemination to large masses of entities. His references to four different energy components is going to be part of our discussion when we talk of spiritual evolution, the evolution of spiritual thought.

There is, shall we say, on the earth plane now, more pressure coming from the female energies for recognition of the significance and the role that is played by the female energies, and that it is not just male energies, but females that bring the balance and that there must be a realization and an acceptance of that role of the female energy. And for the purposes that were used in the planning of the Jesus incarnation that brought about the what you now know as the Catholic thought, The Mary Energy was a very deliberately planned persona that would assist in certain lessons to be learned during the evolution of the spiritual thought that came from the teachings of Jesus. So, this entity, now, who heads this Catholic thought is being, now, pressured by advanced entities on the plane who say that it is time now to give more recognition to the female component of that which was the foundation of what is Christianity.

More Detail Will Be Given To Discuss Certain Components Of The Jesus Life (August 17, 1993)

You have mentioned that some of the Apostles were married and that that was used as an argument for priests to marry. Traditionally, they have not allowed that. There seems to be more pressure coming for that type of balance.

Well, you know, we will give you some very interesting information about what you call the early days. It is quite easy to excise information from the written record, and that has been done with Christianity. The issue of sexuality in Christianity has been one of the components built into the game plan, if you will, of the evolution of this particular projection of spiritual thought. There is much misunderstanding about the life that Jesus, as an earthbound entity, led, but we have alluded to that. But we will go into more detail, for Amelius has given the permission to discuss certain components of the Jesus life and also components of, and components only, of other incarnations that have come out of the Amelius energy, as was requested by someone of us.

A Discussion Of The Importance In The Evolution Of Religion And Spiritual Thought (August 17, 1993)

I was at a conference this weekend with a group of people who had done a lot of these past life regression therapies with others, and it was reported that everybody who had a lifetime on the earth during that period, reported that Jesus had many female Apostles and devotees, and things that seem to have gotten wiped out of reports from the Bible.

Yes, we appreciate your adding to the possibilities, my son, of what we will be presenting to you for information, for you have asked and the permission has been given, that we give out some, shall we say, raw material. ☺ Perhaps we should say unedited. ☺

And, you know, many on the earth plane will take great offense to what we will give as information, for there is so much seriousness, just as there will be, perhaps, at a similar time frame in the future when the material that we have given through is disseminated in a similar way ~ for, you know, all spiritual thought, if it is destined to be as a grouping such as what we are giving, such as what Jesus gave, Mohammed, all of them have given, eventually, becomes organized. It is an inevitable part of the earth plane experience to organize, and it is part of a Universal Law that order must be made out of chaos.

But, you know, there is great fun in chaos, and as order is achieved, much of the fun can be lost. But it is the path, you see, of order/chaos, chaos/ order, and when the ~ when Jesus began his mission, it entailed the bringing together of many, many, many entities, both male and female encasements. However, because of the path of this spiritual thought, as we mentioned earlier, the role of the female was denied.

And, you know, just as Mushiba has been categorizing all of the information we have been presenting, she has these what you call, these scissors, and she goes through and she cuts out references to certain things that are truly not needed for the base of the information. It brings to point how easy it is to excise from information so that suddenly there is no record. Even though it is in The Universal Consciousness, at an earth plane level, there is no record, or it is hidden in some obscure archive in a language that is not able to be interpreted in current illusion abilities.

Why is that done?

Why is that done? Why not? You know, we have all these illusions to play with. We go from one illusion to the next, and the way in which spiritual thought is disseminated from illusion to illusion, changes, for as we indicate so often, we get bored, and so, we design a scenario and a play, and we say this is how it will be, and it is all in conjunction with all the energies who will incarnate. There is almost what you would call a group meeting in The Universal Consciousness where there is an immediate kind of interaction as illusions are being put together, shall we say, by Amelius and the other four who are charged with that responsibility.

In other illusions it is not quite the same as it is in this illusion, but in understanding the purpose of the earth plane as a training ground, that levels of awareness are so varied, and that to understand what you call spiritual thought or information of a higher source that is not directly connected to the earth plane or to the concrete, requires that there be an evolution of behavior for certain large groups of entities. If you go into another religion, as you call it, there are other groups of entities who have levels of awareness that that particular spiritual thought evolution reaches, you see.

And thus, this is why it is done. It would be, you see, if you think this through ~ very boring if there was no diversity of spiritual thought. And if there was no diversity of what you call the organized component of spiritual thought, everyone would have essentially the same information, and then the earth plane would not be a battleground as it is. There would not be the opportunities to learn nonjudgement, to learn that what another believes is all right to believe, and that what you believe is what you believe, and not to attempt to impose upon another.

And, as you all know, of course, this is a very particular lesson that comes onto the plane through religion and spiritual thought, spiritual groupings, the test of understanding, the test of nonjudgement, and many struggle with this. Many believe, of course, that what they have as information is truth, the one and only truth, and would attempt to impose that. And others, as you gain in your own awarenesses ~ as your own awarenesses increase, you begin then to see that there is no threat that comes from another who would think differently from what you think.

And this is the purpose of evolution in spiritual thought. But it is also inherent on the earth plane that at a particular point in the evolution of spiritual thought where it becomes organized and almost, as you would say, top heavy, where it begins to lose sight of the beginnings of its thought, then other groupings are allowed to come in, and there are several now on the earth plane similar to what I present that are bringing in the purity once again of spiritual thought. And just as in Christianity, it began as a small grouping of entities who then began to disseminate, this is the way that spiritual thought plays itself through in an illusion.

Open Discussion ~ Organized Religion (February 15, 1994)

We are gathered with you in this particular session to have an open discussion of what you call organized religion, and to give perhaps some insights to many of you as to what has occurred from illusion to illusion in this area called organized religion. Each illusion has its own name for the occurrence that you call now on the plane, organized religion. Understand that it is all part of the training ground of the earth plane and that simply because you may find yourselves in what you call spiritual growth, and therefore feel not the need for formal religion, is no reason to give negation to that which is organized religion, for we would dissect for you here this phrase ORGANIZED RELIGION.

Organized. Now, there is a favorite word. Many on the plane come in to work on their sense of organizing. And The Universe itself is perfectly organized, as you would call it, organized. Perfect. Religion is simply a translation in your current vernacular that has its roots as spiritual ~ organized spiritual thought. Now, what is wrong with that? Not a thing. And that is how it all starts, you see. It starts as a small group who come to gather to discuss spiritual ideals, just as you all gather. Whether you gather with us when we speak, or whether you gather in your own homes with several others, you speak of spiritual ideas. You speak of the concepts that you learn from many sources external to Self, as well as the insights that you gain internal.

Now. It begins in a small manner and it then begins to grow as more and more seek out discussions. And soon comes the need for order ~ organization ~ for as you know, The Universe requires complete order, and that when chaos occurs, and chaos in a positive manner is always the situation, then it means that this is the indicator for things to be placed into certain spots, if you will.

And thus, the order and the organization begins of the group, for it grows larger and must have some type of organization to it. And as the group grows in number, so too does the diversity of ideas. The similarities that brought the group originally together are beginning now to disperse and beginning to spread out as the group grows larger. And as those who founded the group begin to leave the earth plane, and leave then the continuance of their spiritual group, so too are the ideas diluted over time. And soon into the group of ideas comes new forms of communication unknown to the original group ~ as you would call it language. And with language differences, then come interpretations that are different, for they know not that they have interpreted different from the original. And thus, it goes on and it goes on.

And as the group grows larger and more diverse, and older, it needs more organization, and its roots begin to spread very, very, very far. And thus, you see then even greater dilution. As the roots spread further and further away from that which is the core, it creates the dilution, until eventually this group becomes so large and its similarities now are in the minority to the differences, that it becomes necessary for a cleansing. And a cleansing indeed does occur. It is a predictable behavior of energy groupings that it reaches just so large a size, and it must then come back to its original form, its roots, so that it can begin all over again doing this spreading and growing until it reaches the point of largeness, and it brings itself back into a spiritual core and then brings itself back, back and forth, you see. And all along the way in this growth from the core to the very large arena are the opportunities that are presented as part of the training ground of the earth plane for each entity who has incarnated onto the plane, for each take on many different lessons relating to spiritual values.

And thus, it is critical that all of those organized religions that exist currently on the plane, and that have existed in this illusion, be given their due respect, for they serve a purpose, and each who incarnates on the plane finds themselves having to incarnate into a particular point in the development of any number of these spiritual groupings now referred to as religions. It does not take much to make a group of entities with a single value and a single thought, develop that into THE TRUTH ~ THE RELIGION. "This is the way. We have found the way." This is a predictable behavior. It is absolutely essential as part of the training ground rules of the earth plane. The fact that it becomes diluted over time is not even an issue. It is expected. It is part of the path. And many issues of patience and judgement are at play when it comes to organized religion and spiritual awarenesses.

Many now on the plane, and you have met many of them, have a sense of superiority. It matters not what religion or spiritual focus they have, but they have a sense of superiority. And it is becoming even more prevalent among those who claim to be seeking the greater awarenesses outside of the confines of organized religion, that they are truly enlightened, and that if someone is in an organized religion that they truly cannot be enlightened. This is judgemental and unacceptable thought patterns. And it is that arrogance that creates an imbalance in an entity who may express those thoughts, just as an entity in any religion would express thoughts of superiority to another. It creates an imbalance.

It is meant, each of these religions, to bring about greater harmony and to understand that there is no one truth, and yet there is only one truth. The one truth is The Universal Consciousness, and from that all else flows, and that each energy that comes from The Universal Consciousness makes up The Universal Consciousness, and therefore we are all One. That is the truth. Everything else that comes from that one truth is meant for lessons to bring each of us back into The Universal Consciousness. And each religion starts out with the truth, that we are all One. Somewhere along the line, groups determine that they are more One than others, and thus, the hostilities begin to occur.

And you understand that issues of ego are very much built onto the earth plane. It is critical. This is an advanced training ground, and therefore, issues of ego and tolerance and patience and judgement, all meant to bring you to Unconditional Love, are necessary for your growth. And thus it is that the purity is the Universal Truth of Oneness, and it is very easy to get back to that purity. But of course, it is very easy to say it is very easy to get back.

You each have taken on in other times roles of ministry, many of you, along your path, in different spiritual groupings. Remember that each entity has its purpose, even those who you would be quick to criticize who speak through the electronic media now currently on the plane. Be not quick in your judgements. Understand the role that all have in the return to The Universal Consciousness and that we are all part of that path.

Now. We would like to have perhaps some conversation, as you might want to explore perhaps ideas relating to specifics in organized religion.

Symbols Used In The Catholic Religion ~ Discussion Of Christianity And Jesus (February 15, 1994)

In the Catholic religion, the Eucharist is a big focus, and it is spoken of as the body and the blood. Could you elaborate on the significance of it being flesh and blood?

Yes, indeed. It is very critical on the earth plane that there be concrete symbols to aid those along their path of spiritual awareness. When you reach a certain point of understanding in your path back to The One, the need for concrete symbols diminishes. And thus, however, for those who are just starting their journey along a particular path, it is critical that they see concreteness that they are truly on the right path.

Thus, in the religion that began simply as Christianity, and then of course had to, by its definition, sprout new roots, you know, there needed to be an identification with the entity who came in known as Jesus. In the time frame in which he entered in, it was difficult to accept abstraction. And he was presenting very, very abstract ideas, and he was given, on an earth plane time, a limited amount of time to get his point across. He had to get back and do other things.

And thus, in order to give a human quality to that which was difficult to grasp in that time frame, they took that which was considered the substance of their life, which was the bread, or the manna, as it was referred to then, and it symbolized the body. It symbolized the encasement itself. And it also symbolized what at that time could be understood as the life within the body, which was blood. It is another symbol for energy.

However, they were not able to understand energy at that time in their evolution. It was not at that time, when introduced, that this bread was in the shape of a circle, that it was round, as you now have come to know it. That later evolved as the understanding of Oneness began to creep in. And as they began to understand in more concrete forms, that message that came through, they were able to give it a frame of reference. And thus, the symbol has maintained itself as a part of the history of the development of the religion.

It is, however, also necessary for those who need to have that symbolism ~ who are currently incarnated on the plane. It serves a most significant, valuable and useful symbolism, and draws the focus, almost as if it were a meditation to the entity who takes it into the encasement. They may not want to admit that they are meditating, for many would dispute this idea of meditation, but for even a brief moment there is a complete focus on that symbol, and that brings the entity into a Self focus for even a slightest moment in time. And that can be beneficial for that particular entity in ways that proportionately serve the same benefit to another who may meditate for hours on end, you see. Understand proportionate is the key word here. Religions have all developed their symbols to help the followers of the concepts to have a frame of reference and to better understand the abstract.

A Discussion Of The History Of Killing Others Who Do Not Follow Another's Religion (February 15, 1994)

Throughout history, there has been a lot of different religions, and it has been documented that certain religions killed others who do not follow their religion. Is this a form of cleansing? And with other religions, like witchcraft and druidism and satanic religions, how do you know which religion is right for you to follow?

Ah. You have lumped a number of questions into that.

I tried to think of a way to put it all.

Yes. Let us sort out a bit these questions. First of all, the killing aspect, as you refer to it, and whether it is a cleansing ~ remember that as an entity evolves, there is a shedding of the old energy, and therefore, there is a cleansing as you move into a higher awareness and a higher energy, so there is always a cleansing. Each energy, as it grows, is continually cleaning itself.

In order for growth to occur, there must be imbalances that occur. We have talked of this so often ~ that you must have the exaggerations like the teeter totter in order to balance, and that killing, as you refer to it, is part of that teeter totter effect, to bring balance, and that if one is killed by another, it is a balancing that is occurring. You often may not know whether you needed to balance with the entity or the entity needed to balance with you, or there was a mutual balancing.

Love And Hate Are Not Opposites Of Each Other (February 15, 1994)

Religions, you know, are designed to bring out emotion. And one of the most powerful emotions available on the earth plane is that which you call hate, and it is thought by many that hate is the opposite of love. It is not. Love does not have an opposite. There are only gradations of it, so that one has the capacity for love. It may not be the highest capacity. It may be very, very conditional love, but the opposite of love is not hate, and the opposite of hate is not love. Hate is of itself an emotion. There are gradations of it until it dilutes itself. And thus, this particular emotion finds a very fertile forum in the issue of religion. It is one in which many entities find themselves able to work through and rid themselves of this emotion of hate.

And religion, also, is the powerhouse, if you will, of Unconditional Love, for it is where the spiritual values are housed. And thus, the two work hand in hand. It is often therefore thought that they are flipsides of each other. However, love is the Light and hate is the dark. And as you know, the Light eventually wins, and the Light eventually will clean out and make the dark pure. This is all that is occurring in religions. It is a fertile ground for working through that particular issue. It is predictable. It is planned by an entity that you will go in, and certain issues will be worked through. And in the name of religion, many wars have been fought. You know, it is a most powerful emotion.

Now, in terms of all of the many religions, there are many that have gone by the side, if you will, that you are not aware of, in just the ten thousand years since the last illusion of Atlantis. What you are familiar with now are those that were necessary for you to be familiar with for this changing illusion. Whether or not one is right, or not, for you is for you to determine.

What is correct for one may not of course be correct for another, and while it may appear that a particular religion has more negatives and more darkness to it than Light, understand that it serves a purpose in the balancing that an entity must take on. And once that purpose is served for the numbers of entities who need it as part of their concreteness on the earth plane, it disappears. It no longer serves that purpose. That is why many religions have disappeared, for they no longer are needed.

Some other grouping has come in to take their place. And the only way that you will know if it is right for you is to try it and see how it feels. And if it does not feel right, then it is not for you, you see. And oftentimes, an entity may stay in a particular religion, or energy grouping of spiritual thought, for an entire lifetime, even though they would feel it not correct, and upon departure from the life would evaluate it at that time. It may be that they are not able to truly evaluate while they are at the conscious level, and that is appropriate also, you see.

Can One Combine Different Thoughts From Different Religions? (February 15, 1994)

Oh, one would want to, my son. This is why there are so many religions, you see, for an entity would indeed say, "I like what this religion has to say, and I like what this religion has to say, but I do not want to be part of either of those two groups, so I will form my own new group." And thus it is, and the group grows, and the group organizes, and becomes diverse. And someone else then says, "I like what is in this religion partially, and I like what comes from another religion partially, and so I am going to go off and form my own religion."

And periodically on the earth plane, The Universal Consciousness sends in highly evolved energies to keep things on course, and the leaders of these religions that you have become so familiar with are those energies, highly evolved, who come from the energies of each of the five who run The Universe, as it currently is configured. And so, you must ~ we have encouraged from the moment we have begun speaking through ~ to seek out as much information as you can and to form then your own beliefs as they are best suited for Self. It is critical to the growth.

Is There A Way To Know What Jesus Actually Said? (February 15, 1994)

You mentioned all the dilution of information. In Christianity, for example, there is probably nine thousand translations of the New Testament. Is there any way to find out what Jesus actually said?

Not anymore. It is very important to understand that if it were meant for the world now currently in existence to know exactly what it was that Jesus said, you would have it. Part of the lessons to be learned is in the very fact that information that comes through changes over time because of translations. It is not so important to know what exactly he said. The only thing that is important to know is that he started with the Universal Truth of Oneness. That is what he said. Everything else is hearsay, because he is not here to tell you that it is the truth ~ what he said. So, even those who reported directly from what he said, heard what he said in a way that was different.

The dilution began even among those who were his closest followers. That is the way in which it happens, my loved ones. It is only if there is a recording, such as we have, ☺ that captures all the pearls of wisdom. Understand that even that which we give out for information now will dilute over time, for in The New Illusion, when The Shifting occurs, there will be the loss of much of the original pearls of wisdom that have come through ~ much to Limer's distress.

What will remain will be the written word, as you call them, the transcripts, so that the original recording of that, up to The Shift, will be lost. And then, eventually, gleefully after Mushiba leaves the earth plane, then the translations will begin, and it will be like any other type of information that has evolved over time. There will be translations. Even now, many of you in discussing what we have said, misinterpret. You hear it different from the way it is said. But that, my loved ones, is necessary. That is all part of the plan. That is to get you questioning. That is to get you moving along your path in whatever your path might be ~ to help you to grow.

Growth occurs only by trying something and not having it work. Once you try it and you see that it does not work, then you improve it so that it does work, and then it is time to try something new. And that is the way growth occurs. If everyone understood everything, why would you all be here? You would be back in The Universal Consciousness. So, do not be so concerned about he said/she said, but rather to look to the essence of what was said. Do not take what was said verbatim as THE TRUTH but look to the essence. Look to The One as the truth.

Discussion Of Powerful Buildings, Like The Sistine Chapel And The Dome In Cologne (February 15, 1994)

There are some magnificent buildings, such as the Sistine Chapel, or the Dome in Cologne, or the one in France, and I understand that many of them are built with very geometric alignment and are power spots.

Imagine that.

Living close by in Germany to the Dome in Cologne, it is such a circus going on in there. Does it still have any effect that, for example, spending time in a building like that? Or would one be better to sit at home meditate, tuning into that kind of structure?

Well, you know, my love, it goes back again to where you are in your particular evolvement and why the need for meditation is so critical to be in touch with your own energy and the answers to that. For some entities, that type of environment is very important to their growth, and for others, it would now be disharmonious to their energies. So, you must be careful of the judgements, you see. Your question has a judgement in it that, "Well, this is perhaps not a very good environment anymore." Well, perhaps for some entities it is not, but that is not a negative if it is a harmonious environment for another. And thus, look at each energy grouping as harmonious for someone. It may not be for you.

Where Is Heaven? ~ Heaven Is In Your Hearts. Heaven Is The Love You Hold For Self (February 15, 1994)

And thus it is with religion that the dividing lines are drawn. You know, if you belong to one religion, then you are able to go to heaven! And if you do not belong to that religion, then you do not go to heaven. And if you ~ wherever that is. We have not found it yet. Supposedly, we inhabit heaven, but I am not quite sure of that ~ where it is. Heaven is in your own hearts, my loves. Heaven is the love that you hold for Self. It is not dictated by a religion, as a spot up in the sky ~ though Saint Peter has been out looking for a job these days. ☺

Are The Five Who Run The Universe Currently Active On The Earth Plane? (February 15, 1994)

The five who run The Universe are not active on the earth plane. Their emissaries are active. They do not come onto the earth plane. Amelius, for example, who is our commander and runs this particular portion of The Universe, sent out as an emissary that who was known as Jesus, and would not be able to physically take on a form. There is an occasional popping in, if you will, where it is needed, and they each do that. However, they are all now in the mode of illusion change, which is keeping them quite busy, actually, and they have enough ~ all of us are actually their emissaries ~ all. All are part in some way from each of the five. Thus, in the frame in which you asked the question, my son, they are not active participants in the current illusion on the plane. They will be active at the time of The Shift.

Do their emissaries correspond to the great world religions?

You must understand that these religions would not exist if it were not for the emissaries. They are the ones who are designated to bring about what you call the Great World Religions. Every illusion has their own great religions. No religion is any greater than another, however. Understand that. It is only in the minds of those who run those religions that they are greater than another.

Do Other Civilizations In Other Galaxies Have Their Own Religion (February 15, 1994)

Are there civilizations in other galaxies with their own religions? And if so, do their religions correspond to ours? And how does this all tie in with the UFO phenomena?

The earth plane ~ and we have touched on this ~ not in the depth to which we will in the future ~ is composed of many different planets, as we have discussed. It is not just Planet Earth. And so, the earth plane as a training ground has many planets that have not even been consciously observed by you on the Planet Earth. And each of those other planets have lifeforms, and energy exists. Energy Exists in everything. And whenever there is energy, there is the tendency to organize. And wherever there is an organization of thought, you can be certain that there is a religion. And thus, it would not be perhaps a religion that you would have a frame of reference for in your conscious state here on the earth plane, but it is certainly a religion by any definition.

Other galaxies within The Universe are part of other training grounds different from the earth plane, and it is an issue that we intend to go into further on during our stay here with all of you on the earth plane. Currently, however, we have other information to bring through to lay groundwork for that type of information. But religion is a common denominator on training grounds. Religion as a frame of reference ~ as you would call it here on the earth plane ~ groupings of spiritual thought is the best way to frame it. And, yes, that exists in every training ground everywhere, and is the basis for growth. Very, very good question, my son.

What Is The Holy Spirit? (February 15, 1994)

The Holy Spirit is, again, my love, a symbol to represent the energy that is unbounded by those who are The Universal Consciousness. It is a very abstract and difficult concept to comprehend by many on the plane. And indeed, the continued use of the symbol of the Holy Spirit gives comfort to many who try to in some way explain the fact that there can be more than one form coming from an energy.

Now, we have gone through, in many sessions, discussions of lifelines and all these different sproutings that come from energy, and that an energy has the ability ~ it may not have developed it but does have the ability ~ to be in more than one place at the same time. And the Holy Spirit is a symbol of the multitude of energy potential, and it very easily helped explain during the time of Jesus, his ability to come back from the dead ~ so called ~ that there was some higher force ~ the Father, the Son and, as many would call it, the Holy Spook. ☺ It is an attempt to bring harmony into something, and wholeness, a family unit, if you will, and that all energy is able to disperse, and all energy is in itself One. You see, it all returns back to The One.

Energy is One. So, it is no mysterious type of concept. It is simply an attempt to bring a stronger frame of reference. It started out in a different form than it has turned out to be, which is necessary. It evolved as the needs of the earth plane required it to evolve. All evolves as the needs require.

I am still not fully understanding the feeling, though, or how that comes through to a person, and they are able to do things such as healings ~ and it is a sensation as well as an ideology.

My love, understand that that which you feel is Self. It is the expansion of your own energy. Nothing happens to any of you external. No energy comes in and takes over. There is planned energy exchanges, such as Mushiba allows with my energy to come through, but that is not what you speak of. When an entity feels a healing energy, it is Self that is doing that. You feel Self. And the symbolism of the Holy Spirit is representative of Self, of The One, of the ability to expand in your own energies and to do more than one thing at a time, you see. So, you are healing at one level, and at another level, doing something else with your energies, and thus. you feel the sensation of fullness.

We are preparing to depart. We do not want to overload you with too much information. We want you to digest that which you have heard and to discuss it among yourselves and then to return for additional questions. We are always happy to give whatever clarification on muddiness that we can ~ for there is much on the plane ~ and our attempt is to support perhaps that which you already sense as an answer and to give you greater understanding that ultimately it all goes back to The One, and that is the purity, and that is the prime Universal Truth.

Could You Explain About Talking In Tongues? (March 01, 1994)

We will give a brief response to that, with the understanding that it will have a further description given when it is an appropriate framing to do so in a larger context. The phenomenon that is referred to as speaking in tongues is an energy exchange that overtakes, if you will, the vibrational field of a particular entity. It is a very interesting phenomena in that an understanding of conceptual ideas is transmitted via an energy, and that it is not actually language that is being projected but rather a different type of physical manifestation of energy flow. And it goes into what you would call the host and the receiver of the information, so that the entity who is receiving the information from the host, or the entity who is projecting this phenomenon, is able to understand. Not all would be able to understand.

It is meant for very specific energies and exchanges of energy and for very particular audiences, just as any information that is disseminated is meant for particular audiences. So, there could be, for example, two of you in the same place with an entity who is considered the host giving the information through this energy source, and one person would understand and the other person would not. And it is simply one of those situations in which if you are meant to hear something, you will, and if you are not, it simply will not be heard. That is in its simplicity what this particular phenomenon is about.

The reasons for it happening and the actual experience itself is something that we would explain within a greater context, for it falls within a greater conversation relating to energy exchanges. But for now, that would be our response to it, that it is indeed an energy exchange. It is indeed a legitimate form of dissemination of information, and that it is indeed meant for certain audiences.

Discussion Of Saints (March 01, 1994)

I have a book called Saints for Our Times, a Hundred and One Saints. Would you comment on it?

Well, yes, you know, there is a book out there some place in The Universal Consciousness that gives the exact description of how a saint can become a saint, how an entity becomes a saint. But, you know, you must be only of a certain religion on the earth plane in order to be a saint. You cannot be a saint unless you are this Catholic religion, you see. Otherwise, you do not qualify. You see, you have to be a particular religion.

We are well aware of the traditions of each of the organized religions currently on the plane. It is part of our mission, if you will. For purposes of your own spiritual growth, this type of information may certainly amuse you and entertain you. For you, however, it is really a frame of reference that you might be able to provide to those who would seek the bridging of the gap, shall we say, that you help provide to those who come to you, usually those who are filled with their dogma from the religion in which they find themselves. And you are able to perhaps smooth that over with an understanding from their point of view about the religious traditions that they have.

You know, a saint is simply another name that is given on the earth plane for an energy who was allowed to show its powers at the earth plane level. And then of course it fits into the little package of being in a particular religion. You know, it is all planned very well that the entity will be able to have the chance to have this sainthood bestowed upon them, and in order to do so, however, they have to be within a particular dogma as part of their growth as well as the teaching that occurs from that type of behavior.

Perhaps you could have little drawings that accompany each one of the conditions that one must have. So, you could have a little wall that had all the drawings that give visual impact to each of those particular conditions. And perhaps you could add a few of your own. You could make it a group project. Bring it in here to this gathering and say, "Add your own condition." And then you could start naming your own saints.

Do The Other Four Kingdoms Send In Communicators Within Their Kingdom? (March 15, 1994)

If I understand correctly, Amelius projected part of himself onto the earth plane as Jesus, to give us some messages. Have the other four lead energies done the same thing?

Of course.

Like historical figures like Buddha and people like that?

We are not allowed to give out those specific kinds of information, but all of the significant entities who you are aware of in this particular illusion have come out of the leaders. And the five are not lead entities. They are higher than lead energies. They train, however, lead energies to take their place. But they are a level that we have not really discussed in great detail that comes out of The Universal Consciousness.

Understand that your frame of reference for this illusion is simply a limited number of names, as you might call them. But yes, they each will send communicators into their own kingdom, and they do not cross kingdoms. So, Amelius will manifest only within the kingdom to which he is responsible, as the others would also do. And the significant advancements, if you will, in this current illusion, for that is the only frame of reference that you have, is made by energies who come from that source, as emissaries, as very specific communicators. As we are given permission over time to give out those kinds of details, we would certainly do so.

That implies the validity of different religions for different kingdoms, or if not necessarily for different kingdoms, for certainly the different perceptions that you were talking about ~ Amelius providing as a leader only for that kingdom. Now, this was certainly in a time frame that has spread throughout the world, but it seems that obviously certain religions are more appropriate for certain cultures than Christianity, or this Buddhism, or Hinduism, is more appropriate for those cultures than Christianity would be.

Ah, but it is not as simple. You see, you try once again to give lines of demarcation and to say that well, the entity Jesus came out of the Amelius energy, and therefore, if you are Christian and/or Catholic, then you must be in Amelius' Kingdom. And Moses and Buddha and all of the other names that you are acquainted with, they must very definitely represent these other kingdoms. Or maybe Amelius, for all you know. You have no idea who has done what. The only one you do know is that Amelius sent an emissary who manifested as Jesus. And while they manifest within their own kingdoms, it does not mean that once that has been manifest, a, shall we say, religion, that it is restricted only to that kingdom.

That was the point, if there is a certain time frame, but it is expanded beyond that time frame. The point was, would that be an explanation of why some people, even within that same culture, that message will resonate with them, whereas it will not with other people, and that should be a part of our nonjudgement.

Yes. Yes. All five kingdoms are represented and have members within all of the organized religions and all of the cultures. It is all mixed in. You cannot go to one particular culture, or one particular geographic location, or one particular social system, and say that that is inhabited primarily by those from the kingdom of so and so. All of the kingdoms are equally represented in all of the systems that exist. And yes, one particular system may be initially established by a particular leader of a kingdom. But once that establishment has occurred, then it immediately becomes intermixed, for if it did not, it would be out of balance.

Could these communicators involve people like Thomas Edison, Thomas Jefferson and Michelangelo? It does not necessarily mean religion or social structure, does it?

A topic for another discussion ~ topic for another time, for our time now comes to closure with you in this gathering, and as you know, this topic we have discussed is much more complex than you might imagine, and also has, I am sure, for many of you, questions that have been raised as a result of the questions raised in this session. And that is why we are here, to help you in your questioning, you see. Getting the answer is the easy part. It is getting the question that is so difficult, for once the question is there, then finding the answer is easy, you see. That is what awareness is all about. Once you have the answer, there is nothing more. There is no more challenge. The challenge comes, and the growth comes, in suddenly seeing the question.

And on that point, we will send you now an energy that perhaps if you focus a bit within Self during meditation time, you will communicate with Self.

A Discussion Of The Life, And Lifelines, Of Amelius (May 03, 1994)

Could you comment on the life of Amelius? Is that where the derivation comes from?

The term Amelius is a frame of reference that is used in our descriptives to give you an understanding of an energy that is part of the what is commonly known on the earth plane as part of the running of The Universe. There are five energies who run The Universe, shall we say, and Amelius is one of those five. And each of those five has particular responsibilities, or as we have referred to them, a kingdom.

We are in The Kingdom of Amelius ~ my energy and all those who I would be charged with helping. So, when we say Amelius, it is the representation of that very high, high energy. It is not, however, to be confused with The One, for The One is all energy. Out of The One then comes what can best be described as a lineage of energies, for one energy cannot simply pop out on its own from The Universal Consciousness. There must be a tracking of lines, if you will. And it is very well organized, from your frame of reference on the earth plane, so that the five who run the kingdom then begin the lineage, and it simply splits off, you see. And out of the five who would run the various kingdoms, they have emissaries as energy forms that come onto the various training grounds.

And in this particular frame of reference, the energy known as Jesus in your most recent time frame ~ the energy known as Moses ~ the energy known as Buddha ~ the energy known as Muhammad, all come from the Amelius energy. And they came onto the earth plane for a particular progression movement of the illusion. And they are not Amelius in the totality of the energy but simply the lifeline, if you will. And we have discussed lifelines quite a bit. And it is best to frame it from that perspective, that it is a lifeline of Amelius.

Understand that the strength of the energy of Amelius is such that a lifeline of that energy is very, very strong and is given a very specific responsibility when entering the earth plane. And if you look at, shall we say, the job of each of those energies who we have named, you will see that they represented critical moments in the progression of the illusion, especially in relationship to what you know as religion. It is religion that is central to the illusion and to the growth of any energy, the way in which religion is threaded throughout all of the experiences. And whether it is called religion or simply called spiritual development, that is the thread, you see. You may indeed not affiliate with what you call the organized religions and still have a very strong sense of the higher powers. And thus it is that the job of the lifelines that come from each of the five who run The Universe have as their mission the strengthening of awareness of higher powers.

And as we have discussed in not too many sessions ago, that all religions as now are known on the plane, began with a spiritual base and then developed rules and regulations and dogma. But all come from the same exact point, and that is of the higher power that controls all that is done. That is The Universal Consciousness, or as you might, in your understanding, call this entity The One, God ~ however it is appropriate for your own understandings. The different names do not matter. It is simply the concept and the concept of the highest power. And the highest power is all energy combined. It is not some deity who has been given special privileges who says, "You will do this, and you will do that, and you will do this. And that is the way it is, and if you disobey then you are doomed." This is not the way it is. The Universal Consciousness, as we use it in our discussions, represents the energy of all, and in its ultimate is Unconditional Love.

Who are the other four energies?

The other four who run their own kingdoms have their own identities and their own missions and their own paths, and at this point in our own dissemination of information, we have not been given the permission from the five as a grouping to reveal the identities and points of reference, if you will, on the earth plane for the other four. We focus only on The Kingdom of Amelius. However, as we have said so many other times, you all are interacting in the five kingdoms. It is not that Amelius has his kingdom here in this little place and the others have their kingdoms here, and none of you get together. It is all melded. There are many in this gathering now who come from the different kingdoms, and not just Amelius. It is simply a way of organizing, learning experiences. All are fluid in their interactions.

And so, at this time in our dissemination of information, it is not necessary to have this information. When the illusion changes, when the axis shifts and you find yourselves in a different frame of reference, as you will, it will then be time for us to give out that information, for you will have a greater understanding of that information.

What Is The Difference Between Spiritual Development And Faith Development? (May 03, 1994)

Could you comment on the difference between spiritual development and faith development, and at stages of that faith development? Faith, as opposed to spirituality. I have been struggling with this one.

Yes, indeed. Well, it is part of a struggle, as one moves from the dogma that is organized religion into the higher arena of understanding that has no limitations on growth of the energy. And all energy's purpose is to grow to a higher power. That is the only purpose. It is to return to The One. That is the only function of coming out of The One is getting back to The One. That is it, you see. And in the meantime, as you go from playground to playground, whether it is the earth plane as an experience, or whether it is one of the other training grounds, you are presented with opportunities to break away those barriers to personal awareness to your own awarenesses. And dogma is one of those.

Dogma results from ~ and this is where the dilemma comes in ~ dogma results from having, initially, a spiritual awareness, and that it is part of the balancing. As you have open spiritual awareness on one end of the teeter totter, on the other end of the teeter totter you have dogma, which inhibits, which says "This is the way you will think. This is the way you will behave if you are to be a good Christian, or a good Moslem, or a good anything, that is organized. This is the way you will behave." However, that is the end result of the movement from pure spiritual awareness, up and down, back and forth, as we would say, to balance.

One must go into dogma, see that it is not what you want, and spring back into pure awareness, and back into dogma, and back and forth, back and forth, until you reach a point where you can balance your own behavior with the two. To be on the earth plane means that there is what you call dogma. One cannot live on the earth plane without standards that are set for the development of awareness. And that may sound like a contradiction, but when we discuss this in a more elongated time frame, we would bring that into perspective.

We have given preliminary information in other sessions regarding organized religion, and its very critical function within the growth of energies. It will be time now to elaborate more upon that. The struggle for faith and the issues that go with that, and spiritual awareness, and the issues that go with that, are simple in its own conceptual view, but complex in its application ~ as is everything, you know. Returning to The One is a simple thing to do. Getting there is not so simple.

Could Amelius Be Conceived As The God Of The Old Testament? (May 03, 1994)

I believe you said that Jesus was a lifeline from Amelius. Is that where we get the concept in the Christian tradition of the only begotten son? Could Amelius be conceived as the God of the Old Testament?

That is not as easy a question to answer as you would think, for there is not so cut and dry a response. There is much more at higher levels of awareness to understand. You know, this concept of what is called the virgin birth needs to be understood a bit differently than it actually was, you know. And that perhaps we could address in the session of where the other question was raised.

We are talking about metaphor.

Indeed, metaphor. Yes, we know this frame of reference for a word. We use metaphor quite frequently. And indeed, if you were to read our metaphors two thousand earth plane years from now, it would be much in a same way as the virgin birth has come down as some type of miraculous occurrence.

Will Organized Religion Change Closer To The Shift? (July 05, 1994)

Well, you know, they will change, as all changes. We have stated that it is critical for organized religion to be on the earth plane. It is part of the spiritual journey. Without it there would be no journey. There would be no base. It is from the spiritual base that each of the organized religions have sprung. And they will change. They will not go away. They are not meant to go away. The dark would like them to go away. The dark would like to project that they are on the downslide, but they are not. They are simply evolving into a greater spirituality. And as is the case so often, when, and we have addressed this, as you grow and you enlarge, you become too big oftentimes and lose sight of where you have come from. This is what is occurring with many of the organized religions. They have lost sight of their base and they are simply now being forced to return to their roots, to their spirituality. It is difficult for many, for they have ego involved and a great sense of power and do not want to give the religion back to its spiritual base.

You see, religion has its premise that in order to reach heaven or to reach God, you must go through this hierarchy of people. And if you are in this hierarchy, you have a greater chance of getting into heaven, than if you are not, because you have been blessed. And therefore, the rest of you are what you call sinners, and, you know, you have to obey the way you are told or else you will not get into heaven. Well, this is of course foolish, for each of us, and that is everyone, every entity outside of The Creative Force, can return to The Creative Force through its own efforts.

Why Do Some Spiritual Leaders Resort To Fasting? (September 20, 1994)

Why do some spiritual leaders resort to fasting, to using no drugs at all? For example, Jesus went into the desert, and for forty days and forty nights, he meditated, and then he came out spiritually cleansed with new thoughts to change all the environment around him. That is using no stimulant at all.

Yes, indeed. And that was appropriate to his energy. For others, that is not appropriate. We do not say that you must fast in order to become spiritually aware. You could be smoking a cigarette and have an enlightenment. You could be chomping on a chicken wing and find enlightenment. You must be most careful of judging how another reaches their own awarenesses and how another cleanses themselves. For some, fasting is simply not an appropriate behavior. And fasting, by the way, does not guarantee anything except perhaps being hungry. It does not guarantee that you will reach anything. Eating certain foods does not guarantee anything. It is from within Self that you determine what is appropriate for you.

And when you see behavior by leaders, such as the entity Jesus, it is meant to show you a possibility ~ one of the many different ways. It was appropriate for his energy and his vibration and for the situation at that time, and it was meant to teach a lesson. For those who would want to fast, they could then use that as a model, but not to be taken verbatim. Be most careful of taking the way someone else does something and imprinting it upon yourself completely. You must always look at what others do as possible guides for your own behavior, and then take parts of it that seem appropriate. You run a great risk in trying to imprint upon yourself another's way of behaving and another's way of finding their own answers, you see.

We have on many occasions recommended ~ especially after a session with us in which there was a sense of, "We are very serious here and we must learn all this information," ~ that many of you perhaps go for what you call this hot fudge sundae. And you will seek your enlightenment through some chocolate. Lots of chocoholics, as you call it, in the vibration. Feeding an addiction is often the way in which you get rid of it. For some, it may take a lifetime, and that is all right. It is what it takes, and it may only be the beginning of many lifetimes in which they will have to go through this. For others, eating chocolate, they are not even wanting it, they could care less. But they have something else. Remember that. As perfect as anyone might want to present themselves to you, the fact that they are on the earth plane means that they are not.

A Discussion Of Jesus, Organized Religion, And Materialism (December 20, 1994)

Waith, is Jesus going to pop in for his birthday?

You know, you took us by surprise on that one. We are usually tuned in. That one did take us by surprise. That was very, very good. We will put that on the record book here for almost making us speechless. Not quite, though. ☺ Almost.

Amelius watches at the highest levels, of course, as the earth plane goes into the celebration of that which is considered the time frame of the entry onto the plane. So yes, he watches the birthday. There will be no acknowledgement from his level, however, for there is need now at the time of the illusion for a smoothing out of the issues revolving around organized religion. Each of the organized religions claim to have the truth and fight it out among themselves that they are the way back to the God that they refer to, The Universal Consciousness, as we refer to it, or The Creative Force. However, in an understanding of the time frame on the plane that we find ourselves now vibrationally connected through Mushiba, it is a time to celebrate sharing and caring and giving. The goal is that this type of celebration of caring, sharing and giving would not occur just at one very brief time each earth plane year but that it would be a pattern of life on the plane. Part of the cleansing that is occurring relates to the exaggeration of materialism that exists on the plane that is symbolized at this time frame in the year.

Amelius, however, does send his greetings to all. It would be appropriate at some other time on the earth plane for him to share his energy with a particular session. Thus, we will not focus on this time frame. Rather, we would give support to a concept of sharing, caring and giving in a time frame other than that which has been determined by the earth plane concreteness now, so as to not take away from all who have various beliefs, and not just those who are called Christian.

You must be most careful in spiritual seeking to think that it is Christian. It is of no denomination, as you know it. It is not to be affiliated with any organized religion. Yet, it is important that you bring into your spiritual quest the precepts that you have taken on from an organized religion, if you feel it to be appropriate. Those precepts will also merge into new precepts for The New Illusion. Whether you want to admit it or not, most entities on the plane have been influenced by some precepts from one or more organized religions. And whether you adhere to those organized religions now, is not the point, but those precepts have brought you to where you are now in your spiritual quest. It is important that you do not deny those precepts that have brought you to where you are, as they relate to the growth that you have taken on as a result of them.

You may not adhere to them now. You may not believe them now, but they contributed to who you are now. Anything that has contributed to who you are now should not be denied and should not be dismissed, for in doing so, you deny and dismiss who you are. Cherish who you are. Cherish the differences that exist within each of you, and accept that Amelius was a symbol of caring, sharing and giving, just as other religion founders were ~ Buddha, Mohammed, the list is endless.

We were able to recover from that, you see. ☺

I was actually thinking in a concrete sense. He has come in sometimes and spoken. He pops in.

Indeed. They do like to do that, pop in and out.

What Will Religion Be Like After The Shift? (December 20, 1994)

Waith, if we could jump a little bit ahead of time, right after The Shift, from the religion point of view, would the remaining souls just believe in one common religion, or would a time occur where, because of the events, people will believe in several Gods, like it used to be ~ God of Sun, God of Thunder, God of Water. And so how will it be evolving after this?

The very nature of The Human Kingdom, inherently, does not allow belief in only one system. This is not the way in which the earth plane, and The Human Kingdom specifically, has been set up. However, there is a major difference at the beginning of an illusion versus the end an illusion. At the beginning of an illusion, there are still many, many different beliefs. There are many differences. However, there is a respect for each other, a respect that is Universal. There may not be the same belief, but there is no fighting about that belief. There is no threat that what you believe, being different from what another believes, would create disharmony. Indeed, it creates a sense of unity. This is only at the beginning of an illusion.

By the time the illusion is ready to change, as is the case now, all of those differences have become exaggerated. There is the fighting, and the threats to belief systems, and the holding onto the idea that what you believe is the only truth. At the beginning of an illusion, there is the awareness that there are many truths, and that that is all right. Indeed, that is the way it needs to be. As an illusion begins to work its way through, that harmony begins slowly to become out of balance. This is the way in which illusions are set up. It is not a new activity. This is simply the way it is, so that the beginning and the end of an illusion are exact opposites. They are the exact extremes of each other. That is the way it needs to be.

So now, you are at the end of an illusion. You are in the concrete form, and thus, you are experiencing the extremes of disharmony. If you decide to remain and are able to remain into

The New Illusion, it will be as if you have flipflopped. Just as the polarities change, so too will awarenesses. For many on the plane now, it is difficult to understand that concept of their being complete harmony and complete difference and being able to live within that difference arena in complete harmony, you see.

So yes, there will be religions. There will be remnants of religions that currently are on the plane that will remain. That which needs to be cleaned out from those religions will be cleaned out ~ philosophically, emotionally, spiritually, mentally, physically. In its place, where the void is, will be brought in then a different understanding, a different spiritual precept that will seed the religions that begin The New Illusion, just as it has been in each new illusion.

And periodically, during the illusion, there will be the seeding of another religion, just as Amelius did in several incarnations, the seeding. As an illusion moves along, it needs to have, shall we say, a jumpstart in getting the imbalance going, you see, for imbalance is the way of the earth plane, and except for the beginning of an illusion, there cannot be complete balance. There must always be an imbalance. That is the only way in which lessons are learned. You see, it is a game. It is a teeter totter. It is a toy. What kind of imbalance are we going to have today, you see.

So, we have spoken in the past of the importance of organized religion to the progression of individuals' paths, and the importance of organized religion in an illusion. It is that very arena that brings about the greatest opportunities for issues of Judgement, Unconditional Love, Tolerance, Patience ~ all of the major biggies, you see. So, you have some interesting things to look forward to in The New Illusion.

If we make it.

Well, that is your decision. There will be a significant number who will be the seeds for The New Illusion.

Would You Comment On Armageddon, The Force Of It, And The Time?

(January 17, 1995)

Well, you know, as we are on record for our frames of reference and the way in which we give information, we give conceptual responses to what appear to be sometimes exclusionary words and phrases used by groups on the earth plane in an attempt to appear to have more knowledge than another group might have. And the term that you use is simply a term that has conceptually been used from illusion to illusion to indicate the end of an illusion. It has been placed into a type of framework that makes it appear that it is the end of something rather than simply a transition. Many belief systems on the plane, from illusion to illusion, like to think that there is an end to something. It gives them some type of comfort.

It also can give some an excuse for certain types of behavior. "Well, the world is going to end, and the forces of dark and Light will come together and clash and they will destroy each other, and that will be it. And so, therefore we do not have to pay our mortgage. We do not have to be nice to anyone because it is all coming to an end. And all the psychics have said that it will come to an end in the year 2020 or 22, or whatever," you see. So, it serves a certain purpose. However, at its most purist formulation, it is simply meant that at the time of an illusion change, there is transition and there is indeed the Forces of Light and dark coming together. It is the extremes, as we have indicated so often, that bounce up and down so that they attempt to balance, and that is what is occurring.

The very high forces of dark and Light will, and are currently, meeting each other and having rather interesting conversations. That filters all the way through the line, if you will, of awarenesses, so that at all the levels of awareness, the Light and dark that is appropriate to those levels of awareness are also having interesting conversations, and it can sometimes present, then, the illusion that there is going to be a finality. There is a battle and only one side wins. Well, we have said that the Light always wins. However, there is not ever an end. There is no end to the battle. It is simply that in any particular skirmish, shall we say, the Light prevails in the long term.

Thus, illusions are simply transitions and not beginnings and ends. Illusions do begin and illusions do end. However, illusions take with them remnants from prior illusions so that there is a consistency. As we have said before, the Webbing Effect of the energy that keeps the illusions going on the earth plane must be maintained from illusion to illusion. So, there is no major event, my love, that is going to occur in which everything is destroyed, you see. The Universal Consciousness remains and will always spit out energies. It is the way it is, you see. There can be no ending, for there was never a beginning.

The Timing Of The Entry Of Jesus Two Thousand Years Ago (January 17, 1995)

Two thousand years ago, was it already in the process that two thousand years later, now would be the time for the change?

Yes, indeed. It was at that approximate time with the entry of the entity known as Jesus that the vibrational reconfigurations were put in place. And, you know, we have given minor information about the time spent on the plane of the entity known as Jesus. There is much that is not recorded that he did prior to that concentrated time in which there is recorded information. We have placed this on the record quite some time ago. Part of what he was here to do was to place energy configurations into certain areas of the planet. Because of the advancement of his energy and the type of mission that he had, he was able to move from one spot to another through a power that is not used too often. He was able to simply pop in and pop out and be in more than one place at a time. This was part of what he did. It was part of his mission. That is not secret information by any means. It is simply information that is not widely discussed, especially among the religions that have come out as a result of his entry.

I Am Curious How Scientists Came Up With The Idea Of Evolution

(January 17, 1995)

Oh, yes, it was something that we thought they might like to play with. This particular illusion was given that as something to play with. In Atlantis the issue of evolution was not there. It was known that that was not the way things happened. They, in fact, did know that there were a series of illusions. That was part of the understanding. There was never a discussion of evolution.

When this illusion that you are currently in was about, oh, five hundred, eight hundred, years into the illusion, it became time for certain ideas to be planted. That is the way it is done. It was planted. And then, of course, our fun begins because then once we set the storyline, we have to give it. And so, we present evidence of dinosaurs and evidence of all of these different situations that give this idea of things evolving. The idea of evolution, as it is now on the earth plane, is a very concrete type of idea. The idea, conceptually, of evolution is quite evident in the fact that illusions move in a transitional form. They move from one to the other quite smoothly. They take from one illusion into the next illusion. They build on that, and it builds the illusion, and it brings it in, so that there is a threading effect.

However, the breakdown in that concept, as it is currently accepted on the earth plane by many, is that suddenly there was a planet Earth, and that it went through this period of development. There were no human beings. There were only certain kinds of animals, and that human beings evolved from animals. Well, this is nonsense. Each of the kingdoms is and of itself a kingdom. It does not evolve from something else. What is interesting in certain illusions is the ability to cross pollinate as, they did in Atlantis, with species ~ human and animal being one of the favorite ones. But plant and animal have been done in other illusions. The Mineral Kingdom and The Human Kingdom have been cross pollinated in other illusions. The ability is there. Nothing is impossible.

Is that where we get Easter Island?

We always leave it to (Name given) ~ that was very good, my love. It was very good. Yes, that was a result of a cross pollination of The Mineral Kingdom and The Bird Kingdom. It could be anything. No, is not, my love. It is not. That is a subject for another time, however, if you care to raise that.

It is time we talked about Easter Island. ☺ I am glad I brought it up.

Why not? Everything currently on the earth plane is up for discussion. As a topic of discussion, nothing on the plane is by accident. Nothing that is on the plane just happens to be on the plane. It is all purposeful. Everything is purposeful. Everything has a reason for being, and has history, in some way or another. Whether it evolved within the illusion or whether it was simply placed by those who have the ability from other dimensions to do so.

Why Is Christianity So Hung Up On This Concept Of A Set Hierarchy? (November 21, 1995)

Well, because you see, my love, it is all political. Every religion ends up that way. You know, you might find it interesting to read our most recent discussion of Organized Religion, for we addressed this very issue that you have brought up ~ why organized religions reach the point that they are in. They all begin with a spiritual concept. One thousand years from now, "Waith said ~ " and there it is, the hierarchy has been put into place.

Misinterpretation of what we say is already rampant. So, imagine then the misinterpretation of what the energy Jesus said so many years ago on the plane. Interpretation, language, interpretation, language, interpretation, agenda, items by those seeking power, seeking control ~ all of those earth plane issues that are most necessary. They are built into the training ground of the earth plane. It becomes up to each of you to distinguish among all of the rhetoric and the dogma, to determine what feels appropriate for you.

If you are reading information that we give, or that others give, regarding a spiritual or metaphysical concept, then it means that you question the organized religion dogma. It is much easier to put people in their place, as you would say. The priests have the power to do this, that, and the other thing. The nuns, of course, do not because they are female.

This is the way it has evolved. In other illusions it is the other way around. and other forms take other roles. There, predictably, has, at the end of an illusion especially, this overweight, hierarchical, perception of the way one reaches enlightenment. It goes back to that entire issue of, "If you are not in this religion, then you will not go to heaven," wherever that is. "And if you do this kind of thing, you will go to hell," wherever that is. Many say that is the earth plane.

Then how can you relate to people who believe so strongly in this type of a hierarchy? They live and stand by it.

Yes, it is an issue that is not easily discussed in this short a time frame, my love. We have addressed the issue in other sessions, of how you respond to entities. It is certainly worth revisiting, however, as we find that many on the plane are faced with the extremes of dogma perception, and actually, in some cases, attacked by those who have that belief system. And if you do not have that belief system, then you are attacked by them.

Oftentimes, it becomes an issue, my love, of instinctively knowing that there is nothing you can say to this particular individual that will change their perceptions, and that in some cases, you will be able to make a dent in their perceptions. It is where you learn, yourself, where those lines are. Sometimes you simply say, "It is apparent that we have opposite opinions and attitudes, and it would seem that we are unable to find similarities in our perceptions."

What you try to find when you have opposite opinions with another, is similarities ~ if you can find one similarity to use as the bridge. If the other is unwilling to find a similarity and to create the bridge, then you must make the decision to either back away or to try and build this bridge, but you may find it not worth the effort, for it may not be an individual who is ready for that point of understanding.

There is much more that we could talk about in this, and we certainly will, for as we speak of meditation in the coming year, the focus within Self helps you to find the answers to give to others, for they become very situational, often. You cannot make a blanket statement to one individual, for each individual has a different set of perceptions they come into the situation with. They may all be what you call Born Again Christians in the generic sense, but they each have a very different spot from which they came to that particular point. And it is those variations that you may find the similarity to build the bridge.

It would seem that our time with you will now come to closure. And we would indicate that if any of you are coming to our next public gathering, that you would bring a favorite crystal or Mineral Kingdom friend with you. Do not bring the wheelbarrows, but select one that you would like to bring with you, and we will give energy to it and perhaps give you some information, if you so ask, of what the particular mineral friend has in relation to you. We have not had a crystal, mineral gathering in quite some time, so we will do this. And you may relay that to any who would be coming with you or those who you would speak with between now and that gathering. It will be a highly charged gathering with all The Mineral Kingdom.

Meaning Of The Phrase "ETERNITY IS YOUNG" ~ Concept Of Heaven And Hell ~ The Dimensional Grid ~ Taking Responsibilities For The Stories Of Self

(April 27, 1996)

We would perhaps now, loved ones, move around a bit so that you can see my great artistry. First of all, Mushiba resurrected something that we wrote down quite a while ago which has been hanging here. "ETERNITY IS YOUNG". What does that mean? What is eternity?

Forever. There is no end.

There is no end. But yet we talk about beginnings and endings, so what is eternity if there are actually beginnings?

The beginning and the end.

The beginning and the end. But eternity would imply ~ what?

Never ending.

Never ending.

A circle.

It would indeed represent a circle. Yes. But if there is no beginning and there is no end, how can we say that eternity is young? For that would imply then that young would end with old.

Not necessarily. I don't see it that way.

Why? How do you see it, my love?

Eternity is now, always. It's always now in eternity, so to speak.

Very good.

Because whenever there is an end, there is a beginning, and when there is a beginning, there is an end.

Ah! If something is young, what eventually happens?

It gets old.

It gets old. And when something is old, what eventually happens?

It dies and goes to heaven.

More Discussion On The Concept Of Eternity, And Where Is Heaven And Where Is Hell?
(April 27, 1996)

Goes to heaven! Where is that? Where is heaven?

Right here on Earth.

How far above the Soul is heaven? How long do your arms have to be for that? ☺

- ⚙ Have to stand on a chair to reach it.
- ⚙ They could go somewhere else.

Where else would there be to go?

- ⚙ I won't mention it. I don't want to go there.
- ⚙ H-E-double hockey sticks? ☺

Go to where?

Hell.

Oh, you mean there is a place to go? Is this a particular room? Is there a special gate that you go through?

The door of my ex-wife's house!

Yes, well, many would say that where you are at any point in your path determines whether you are in the darkness or the Light ~ or as the earth plane calls it, heaven or hell. There is no spot out there in the ether that has a sign that says Heaven up there in the sky. And conversely, there is no spot that is an open fire pit below that says Hell. Those are concepts that have been brought into the illusion to help entities understand the idea of dark and Light.

Of course, it has become dogma, as reality, for concepts have a way of doing that. They become so ingrained in vocabulary that they become The Truth. In actuality, all that we are talking about here is The Circle. Our journey outside of The One is a circle. However, our journey ends, but yet it does not end. For being in The One is a continuation of the journey, you see. No matter what we do, we are always new ~ for young implies NEW. We go through a cycle. We are young. We become old. Our path becomes old.

Our path finishes its journey. You do what is called death. You leave an encasement is all that is happening. You are not dying. None of us die, as you would define the word ~ finished. There is no such thing as FINISH. If that were the case, then you all would have cause for concern. We all would. There is no finishing ~ ever.

Eternity means no finishing. It just means going on and on, and on and on and on ~ ad nauseam, sometimes. But there is always the hope that because of this cycle of young to old ~ to departure ~ back to young ~ this is a circle. You see? It is an impossibility to escape the circle, no matter how much you would try. There is no end, and therefore, you exist in the moment. And yet, you exist at all time, as it would be defined, TIME. You are here now, and yet you are not. But you are here now and you must deal with that. You must deal with the concrete illusion in which you have found yourself, in which you have rooted yourself, for that is all part of the game.

We set up our own scenarios, each of us. Some of you have very interesting stories that you have established. The purpose of our saying to you, "Set up a story for this item" was to concretely illustrate to you that you each set up stories for yourself. You have a creative corner out there in the Universe. It is a special room, creative room ~ go in ~ Mushiba has just come back from some store where she has picked up all kinds of little doodads. You go in, however, and you look at everything, and you bring a friend with you sometimes. You say, "Look! Let's do this! Let's play together. Let's design our next life together."

It is much more complicated than that, but this is its concept ~ the simplicity of it. You each design your own life ~ every life. Now the problem at concrete often is in not wanting to trust the Higher Self. "I am not the one who would have made up this kind of life," you would say at concrete. "It's not my fault. I did not choose to be born. I did not choose my parents. I did not choose to come in with a disability ~ mental, physical, emotional. I did not choose to be female ~ I did not choose to be male. I did not choose any of this."

Yes, you did. Taking responsibility for what you have chosen is the first step in finding Self, for you acknowledge that you worked at concrete in conjunction with every level of Self, that nothing outside of Self created this scenario. You may have received guidance. We help many determine what kinds of stories they want. That is what the guides are for. That is what the Angelic Protectors are for. But you do not have to listen to us.

Many of you do NOT listen to us. We may say, "I do not think so. You better step from that scenario and look at its implications. It may be more than you want to take on." But we cannot impose that. There are rare occasions where we are allowed to impose. That comes from Amelius. However, most of the time, you are on your own. "Okay, you chose that ~ do it!" And hopefully, you will be wiser as a result.

"Oh, I should have listened to my Angelic Protector. After all, isn't that what protection means?" You learn from lifetime to lifetime who to listen to for advice and who not to listen to. Because when you first start out, you may not be sure who to listen to, and that is a wise decision. "Who DO I listen to?" You must find that out yourself. Sometimes it means tripping on your path, but it is the tripping that brings you back to yourself. In the SEARCH FOR SELF, there is always, then, the need to bring others into your environment.

You must then remember ~ ETERNITY IS YOUNG. Remember that Eternity is Young. Remember that within your circle ~ just as you have a dimensional grid, here is you, your little circle. You have an Energy Circle that you are part of. We have talked of that very often. You are within a larger circle which is within a larger circle which is within a larger circle which, of course, is the never-ending circle.

However, let us remember that within all of the circles there are other entities. So, within your circle which is in a larger circle, which is in a larger circle, there are all the others who are a circle within a larger circle, within a larger circle, within a larger circle ~ the dimensional grid brought now into circle format. Circles, circles, circles overlapping with circles.

It is an impossibility to be on the plane and not be balancing with something. It could be the carpet that you are balancing with. It could be that little spook mobile over there on the plant that you are balancing with. It could be another human being. It could be a light bulb. "Oh! That light bulb went off just when I needed it!" Oh, my, that you did not anticipate that it was going to expire when it did is something that you need to look at. "Why did I not know that it was ready to go, and it expired right at the moment I needed it!" Well, imagine that. Do you think that there might have been some energy connection between you and the light bulb? That may sound foolish to many, but to those who understand its implications and the concept between energy connection, they find themselves leading a rather harmonious, flowing life. For while there will be obstacles placed in their path, they have an understanding of the connection of EVERY THING to them.

Everything that you find yourself a part of, you have a reason for that. It may not necessarily be balancing, but simply it is all part of the story line that you have developed for yourself. You come into Terra Lux. It is a most harmonious environment. It gives you a sense of comfort and safety, and a sense of the energy. You are connected in some way now with all of the energy that is here. So, group balancing ~ it is important then that you not only recognize group balancing, but that you help in the balancing.